Ceremony Held in Garden

UNION HILL.—The garden of the Dolph Heater residence at Union Hill was the setting for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ann Louise Heater, and Donald Keith Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters of Union Hill, on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the ceremony. Sue Teter, violinist, and Mrs. Ernest Byberg, pianist, played the wedding music.

The bride walked down an aisle, marked with white satin ribbons and flowers, on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The couple exchanged their vows before an arch of pink roses with baskets of roses, rhododendrons and white flowers on either side.

Of white nylon marquisette was the bridal gown, fashioned with rows of ruffling extending from the neckline to the hem and a wide ruffle edging the train. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip length veil in place and she carried pink roses centered white butterfly orchids. For "something old" the bride wore her grandmother's watch, a keepsake.

Mrs. Walter McElhaney was the matron of honor and wore a yellow marquisette gown with ruffling enhancing the shoulder line and at the hips. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Daniel Potter and Miss Janice Johnson, who wore identical frocks of apple green marquisette with ruffle trim. All the attending girls wore matching picture hats and carried fan shaped bouquets of roses. Lorene Heister, niece of the bride, was flower girl and her white nylon marquisette dress, was made identical to the bride's.

Donald Mader was best man and ushers were Rollin Heater, Walter McElhaney, Marvin LeRud and Guy Scott.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Heater chose an aqua faille tulle gown with orchid corsage and Mrs. Peters' gown was of pink with corsage of pink carnations.

A reception immediately followed the nuptials. Mrs. W. W. Neal, Mrs. W. A. Heater and Mrs. Larry Carpenter presided at the coffee urns and Mrs. James Neal, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Maurice Heater, Mrs. Donald Mader, Mrs. Ray Gehr, Misses Genevieve Scott, Maxine Scott, Mary Heater and Lucille Carpenter.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the newlyweds will be at home in Union Hill. Following away the bride donned a mauve pink suit with white accessories and orchid corsage.

New Officers Are Installed

SILVERTON.—At a candlelight ceremony Tuesday night in Trinity church social rooms, officers of the Silverton Business and Professional Women's club were installed by Miss Hannah Olson, junior past president. Installed were Mrs. F. J. Roubal, president, re-elected; Miss Thora Arestad, first vice-president; Miss Stella Dybevik, recording secretary; Mrs. Lela Quintall, corresponding secretary; Miss Betty Heldestrom, treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Hudson, second vice-president, was unable to be present.

This was the spring formal meeting of the club and candles and roses decorated the dinner tables at which 26 members were seated. During the dinner hour piano numbers were given by Miss Shirley Seid and Miss Lois Olson, and vocal solos by Mrs. Earl Spencer, accompanied by Mrs. Quintall.

Miss Edith Ross, gave a report on the recent state convention held at Salem. The president's annual report, given by Mrs. Roubal, showed that the club had 37 members during the past year; contributions were made to the local hospital, a Chinese girl studying at Corvallis, the Heart funds, the Girl Scouts and the annual $25 prize to an outstanding high school senior girl; Christmas gifts to state hospital; and a tea for the senior girls.

Miss Hannah Olson was presented a bon voyage gift. Miss Olson leaves Sunday to study at the university at Oslo, Norway, this summer, and will return this fall to teach in the Silverton schools.

Shannon Dyer, daughter of the Claybourne Dyers, will go to Portland today to spend the remainder of the week and attend the Rose Festival with her grandmother Mrs. Gertrude R. Watson.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When conversing with a person, is it good form to use this person's name frequently, as: "What do you think about it, Mr. Smith?" "I don't think so, Mr. Smith." "Let's sit here, Mr. Smith?"

A. Yes, this is good taste.

Q. Who should say the grace before meals in the home?

A. This duty should be performed by the father, but if he is reluctant, then the mother should do so.

Q. Is it proper for a woman who is marrying for the second time to have an elaborate wedding?

A. No; she should avoid this.

Mrs. James Sundel, the former Velma Folsom and young daughter, Beth, of Wilkeson, N. D., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Folsom on Wallace road for a month.

Miss Betty Jean Seder, daughter of Mrs. Kay Seder, whose engagement to John Lloyd Cowan, son of Mrs. Pearl Cowan, has been revealed. The wedding will be an event of October 1. (Kennell-Ellis photo).
