

Coast Conference Schools Rapped With Stiff Fines; Huskies on Top

$5500 Clipped Off Washington

Oregon Gets $1390, Oregon State $120

By Russ Newland
PORTLAND, June 16 (AP)—Topped by a $5,500 assessment against the University of Washington, the stiffest fines in the history of the Pacific Coast conference were levied today against member schools for athletic code violations. Faculty representatives threw the book at some offenders in an effort to put the athletic morals of the conference on the highest plane possible. All ten member institutions were fined varying amounts for the third successive year.

The University of Idaho received the second largest fine—$4,010. Washington State college drew a penalty of $3,720 and Stanford university $2,890. The University of Southern California was charged $2,370 and the University of Oregon $1,390. Lesser fines were set as follows: University of California at Los Angeles, $555; University of California, $350; University of Montana, $200; Oregon State college $120.

It was the second straight year that Washington headed the list, being fined $3,550 in 1948. Individual cases and reasons for penalties against each school were not made public. The infractions covered 26 categories, from salary to an athlete for working on a mythical job to illegal recruiting by alumni. Some violations were technical, such as irregularities in bookkeeping, but the faculty men went along almost unanimously with the findings of Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt.

Assessment of the fines, which go into the conference treasury, was the final action of the three-day convention. Earlier today the convention awarded the 1950 track and field meet to the University of California, for May 26-27; and moved up the football practice season to a full 18 calendar days before the first game when the season starts before Sept. 15. Until now practice began Sept. 1.

The conference voted to prohibit televising of official motion pictures of conference-sponsored athletic events. Individual schools, however, may contract for direct televising.

The annual winter meeting was set for La Playa hotel, Carmel, Calif., Dec. 11-14. The code violation fines totalled $21,105—well above last year's $8,150. Commissioner Schmidt explained that penalties were upheld considerably in cases of repeat violations. "Our code is stricter than the National Collegiate Athletic association's code," he said. "Many of the violations for which Pacific Coast conference members were fined would not be regarded as such by the NCAA."

Aggressive alumni and supporters who pursued athletic talent for old alma mater were singled out as unidentified pests to the conference's peace of mind.

'DOC' FAVORITE
DETROIT, June 15 (AP)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, winner of the national open golf championship in Chicago last week, was cast in the role of favorite in the four-day, $15,000 Motor City open tournament that opens tomorrow.

Reservoir 'Opener' Drew 'Em By Hundreds

The opening of Crane Prairie Reservoir to angling Wednesday lured Isaak Waltoners by the hundreds, according to a report from Don Harger, Statesman sports outdoor writer who flew over the reservoir and made this picture. Harger counted as many as 200 boats in one corner of the big lake and estimated between 500 and 1000 on the lake in all. Twenty can be seen in the picture. John Hughes of Salem Air service, Emory Lebold and Preston Doughton made the flight with Harger.

Lee to Fight Sullivan

King Henry Lee, the dusky Seattle gent who took only 53 seconds to kayo Bobby Volk in his only appearance in the Salem fight ring, will be John L. Sullivan's opponent in Matchmaker Tex Salkeld's armory 10-rounder next Wednesday night. Salkeld was dickered with Lee, Jack Snapp and Volk for the mix with the vastly-improved Sullivan, and has signed the hard-cloutin King Henry. Usually a lightweight at around 175 pounds, Sullivan will make a 168-pound level for the scrap. During his current Portland workouts, John L. has been weighing in the neighborhood of 170, so should make the weight easily enough.

Lee's kayo of Volk—a hard left smash to the eye—was one of the quickest on record here. Because of it, fans didn't have much of a look at the muscular and capable appearing negro.

A six rounder and a trio of fours will fill out the card. Davey Ball, the rugged little Bakersfield battler who downed Dean Abney in his last outing here, will appear in the sixth, says Salkeld.

CORVALLIS GOLFER WINS
PORTLAND, June 15 (AP)—Roy Strand of Corvallis defeated medalist Bill Krieger of Redmond today to become the favorite to win the Oregon junior golf tournament. Krieger was 4-up on Strand after nine holes, but the Corvallis boy picked up holes later and then canned a 10-foot putt on the 18th for a birdie four and a 1-up victory.

girl's room in response to a note she said she had something "important" to tell him. She also had pleaded with him on the telephone to come to her room.

Ruth packed a suitcase, a .22 rifle and a paring knife with a three and a half inch blade and checked into the hotel Monday afternoon. She gave a key to $5 to deliver the note to Waitkus' room.

Waitkus, returning to his room late last night, found the note and telephoned Miss Steinhagen, but she said she insisted that he see her in person.

She later re-enacted the shooting for police and gave this version: "I just shot a man." She surrendered to hotel detective Edward Purdy.

Bevens Defeated By Tulsa Outfit

HOUSTON, Tex., June 15 (Special)—The Tulsa Oilers tonight scored two runs in the eighth inning to down Houston, 5-3, and hand former New York Yankee pitcher Bill Bevens a loss. Bevens was replaced in the eighth inning by rising pitcher Bill Betsworth.

'Entertainment' Cost Bulk of Husky Fine

By Jack Hewins
SEATTLE, June 15 (AP)—The entertainment of Seattle Athletics—about which it had no knowledge—cost the University of Washington $2,000 today at the Pacific Coast conference meeting in Portland, Harvey Cassill reported. Another $1,500 of the $5,500 fine handed the university, making it the hardest hit of all conference schools, was assessed because two members of the university staff met an airplane with two athletes aboard. Cassill, university athletic director, told the Associated Press in a telephone conversation from Portland: "Two thousand dollars of the fine was assessed for entertainment of several local prospective students beyond the conference regulations. The university had no knowledge of nor did it participate in payment for this entertainment."

"Sixteen hundred dollars was levied against the university for the actions of a member of the alumni department and the head basketball coach in meeting two prospective students on their arrival by plane, incident to a visit to the university campus."
"Except for two technical violations, no fines were levied against the University of Washington coaching staff or any other staff member for illegal recruiting or subsidization of any athlete."

"The balance of the fines were for technical code violations."
Although he would not comment, it was indicated in Cassill's report that none of the fines was in connection with the enrollment of junior college transfers at the university this spring. Several athletes moved north from California junior colleges with the opening of the spring term.

Trojans, MSC Liked In NCAA

75 Schools Entered In Los Angeles Romp

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (AP)—Southern California's perennially powerful Trojans and the Spartans of Michigan State appear to be leading contenders for team laurels in the national collegiate track and field championships here this weekend.

Such was the way the dopsters viewed the 28th annual cinderpath carnival Friday and Saturday afternoons as athletes by the score continued to arrive in Los Angeles today.

Seventy-five universities and colleges have entered contestants in a field exceeding 300. Numbered are nearly a score of lads who competed for Uncle Sam in the 1948 Olympic games at London.

Unbeaten in dual meet competition, Michigan State and USC battled to a 61-61 tie here last April 16 in one of the best meets of the season. Local observers unhesitatingly pick the Trojans to bag their 13th national championship, with Michigan State runner-up and the undermanned defending titleholders, Minnesota, to finish far down the line.

Spearheading the Trojan team, of course, is sprinter Mel Patton, who figures to score a double victory for 20 points in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Much will depend on pole vaulter John Montgomery, whose best mark of 14 feet 7 1/2 inches tops the best in the country this season. A mishap, or an exceptional effort by two-time defending champion, George Rasmussen of Oregon, or Tom Bennett of Wisconsin, would throw the Trojan hopes into a knot.

'Buddies' Wait Friday Night

The "Bleacher Buddies", numbering well over 700 after their initial meeting at Waters field week before last, are standing by until Friday night of this week, another of their "in-for-free" excursions at the baseball park. The meeting of the "Buddies"—boys and girls from 10 to 15 years old—will take place shortly after seven o'clock Friday, just before the Salem Senators-Victoria Athletics all game. The "Buddies" will again enter the park via the third base bleacher gate.

Limits Bagged At Reservoir

BEND, June 15 (AP)—Hundreds of anglers caught the limit of 15 to 20-inch-long rainbow trout today at Crane Prairie reservoir's first open season in 24 years.

Many anglers were disappointed, however. They had thought the fish would be still longer—two feet or more.

Descartes forest officials estimated more than a thousand boats were on the reservoir today. The roads around were congested with cars of some 4,000 fishermen. One camp was practically atop the next.

Good catches were reported in other lakes where the season opened today, particularly north and south Twin, East, and Paulina lakes.

Sauvain Leading Sil-Sox Hitters

SILVERTON, June 15 (Special)—Charley Sauvain, the hitting pitcher from Oregon State, leads the Silverton Red Sox batsmen in State league games played to date—four of them—with a scoring mark of .667. Sauvain has had six hits in nine trips. Averages to date:

Name	B	R	Pct.

Phillies Sign Cougar Player

SPOKANE, Wash., June 15 (AP)—Tom Marier, Washington State college baseball star, has signed a contract with the Philadelphia Phillies. A. B. (Buck) Bailey, his college coach said today.

Marier was named to the Pacific Coast conference, northern division all-star team three consecutive years for his play at third base. This year he was also selected for the all-coast college team. He graduated from WSC this year.

Marier left today to join the Terre Haute, Ind., club in the Three-I class "B" league. He hit .381 with Washington State college this spring.

Greys Rolling, Seek Ball Tilts

Now operating under a new athletic director, Frank Cooper who once played for the St. Louis Cardinals, the Prison Greys have notched two straight victories and are seeking more baseball games with "outsiders". Any team wishing to schedule the Greys should have contact with Cooper by telephone or mail at the penitentiary.

Cooper switched "Tanglefoot" Bernstein from first base to the pitching mound, and Tanglefoot has responded well with two wins. The wins were over Jefferson Merchants and Shrock Motors. The Greys boast a team batting average of near .350 and are led by their flashy second sacker Darry Johnson.
