YW Teen-Treks Are Planned

Warm weather brings enthusiastic Teen-agers to the YWCA to register for the weekly summer treks, or Teen-Treks as they are called, throughout July and August. Wednesday evening, June 22, at eight o'clock all girls who have registered or wish to learn more about these Treks have been invited to come to the YWCA to see colored slides of various places which may be seen on these treks. Mr. Harold Melchert will show the pictures and explain them. Refreshments will be served following the showing of the pictures. Mrs. Esther Little, camp business manager, will work with the girls towards setting up plans for each trip. Girls will have a definite part in planning each day's adventures. Mrs. George Hewitt will be the leader working with the girls who do the meal planning. Outdoor meals on a stick, with a reflector oven and in a gypsy kettle will be developed. The campers will stay overnight at certified forest service camps and on these various trips have an opportunity of visiting other girls' camps, hiking on the Skyline Trail in the wilderness areas of Oregon, boating or swimming at numerous mountain lakes and visiting lava caves, rock gardens and waterfalls.

The three trips creating the most interest are along Columbia River highway and Mt. Hood, the scenic coast highway and the Central Oregon Metrolous country.

Only thirty girls may go on each trip, so anyone interested should register at once if she wishes a space reserved for her choice trip on a chartered bus. The first trip is scheduled to begin Monday, July 11, leaving Salem early in the morning and returning July 14. Any Teen-Agers in Junior high school from Salem or outlying communities may register on Wednesday.

Filling or Pretty

Cheese Makes Good Sandwiches; Fill For Either the Husky or Dainty Kind

Cheese just seems to take to sandwiches, whether they be the husky variety for picnic lunches or mid-afternoon snacks for hungry kids — or the dainty variety whose function is to be pretty rather than to fill.

Here's one filling that can be classed as filling, yet could be used in rather dainty sandwiches too, because it looks nice. The handy thing is, it will keep.

AMERICAN DAIRY SANDWICH
1 pound American Cheese
1/4 pound dried beef
Tomato soup
Put cheese and beef through food chopper; moisten with soup. Will keep several weeks in refrigerator.

This sandwich is definitely for eating — good for filling up those with outdoory appetites:

BROILED CHEESE SANDWICH (Serves 6)
6 slices bread
6 slices American Cheese
Slices of tomato
Pepper
12 strips bacon
Spread bread with butter, cover bread with cheese, then layer of tomato, pepper. Place 2 strips of bacon on each sandwich. Broil until cheese melts and bacon is crisp. May be prepared in advance and broiled just before serving.

Note: Bacon may be omitted. And if it's beauty you look for, try this:

SANDWICH LOAF
1 loaf sandwich bread
1 cup American Cheese, grated
3 tablespoons pickle relish
2 tablespoons pimiento, chopped
1 1/2 cups dressing
1 cup red salmon, flaked
1/4 cup green pickle, chopped
1/4 cup blue cheese, grated
Stuffed olives, sliced
Cucumber pickles, sliced
1/4 pound cream cheese.

Remove all crusts from loaf of bread. Cut in four lengthwise slices. Combine cheese, pickle relish, and pimiento. Moisten with dressing. Spread on one slice of bread, cover with second slice. Combine salmon and pickle, moisten with dressing. Spread on second slice, cover with third slice. Tint vein cheese with green food coloring. Combine with chopped olives. Moisten with dressing. Spread on third slice, cover with fourth slice. Blend cream cheese. Season with salt and paprika. Moisten with dressing. Spread over entire surface of loaf. Place in refrigerator overnight. Garnish top and sides with olives, sweet cucumber pickles and pimiento. Place on large platter and garnish with hearts of lettuce and small clusters of crisp parsley.
