Proof From Crane Prairie

Ample proof that "they're big and plentiful" in the newly opened Crane Prairie reservoir was brought back by Dick McGuire (left) of 3762 Sunnyview avenue and Chuck Seakens (right) of Salem route 9, who caught this fine "mess" this weekend.

Salem Legion Hammers Stayton Juniors 14 to 2

STAYTON, June 19.—(Special)—Bill Hanouska's American Legion junior team cut loose with a nine run-seven hit barrage in the first inning and then went on to pile up five more to smother Stayton 14 to 2 in an afternoon game here today.

Stayton could get no closer than second base on the pitching starts of Salem's Jim Rock until the sixth inning when they combined a hit, two walks and a wild pitch to tally one. They added another in the seventh on a pair of walks, stolen base and an error.

Stewart started the big first for Salem with a single. Jacobson singled, Sloan doubled and Jones was safe on a fielders choice.

to keep the rally running. Stewart up for the second time in the inning, was safe on the center-fielders error. Jacobson drew a pass when he was hit by the pitcher and then Sloan added out number two. Jones singled before Jacobson was caught off third for the final out of the inning.

Salem added two more in the second and two more in the third. Gertsbacher, who came on to replace Ed Higberger on the mound for Stayton, checked the Salem sluggers until they clicked with one run in the seventh.

DiBiasi, Helsler Credited Wins

Seals Split, Drop Into Seventh Spot

The Portland Beavers, who started the week in the cellar, swept two more games from the Los Angeles Angels today to move into sixth place in the Coast league.

The scores were 7-1 and 7-2, giving the Beavers the series, six games to one.

Vince Di Biasi, Portland's ace chucker last year, finally regained his 1948 form and held the Angels to three hits in the first game.

Los Angeles got to him for a run in the first inning, but was helpless thereafter. The run came on Wayne Terwilliger's double and two infield outs.

Leo Thomas and John Rucker clouted home runs for Portland, Thomas' coming with two men on base in the fourth inning.

In the seven-inning nightcap Joe Brovia and Vince Shupe smashed homers for the Beavers, while lefty Roy Helsler was scattering seven hits to keep the Angels scoreless except in the third inning.

The Angels tallied twice in that frame through a Helsler balk. Terwilliger came home on the balk and Cece Garriot moved up to third, from where he scored on Clarence Maddern's long fly.

The double win made it five consecutive victories for the Beavers, currently the hottest team in the league. They have won 12 of their last 14 games.

San Francisco's Con Dempsey shut out Seattle, 3-0, in the first game of their Pacific Coast league twin bill today but the Rainiers came back to win the seven inning nightcap, 9-2. The split gave Seattle a five to two edge in the seven game series.

Two great center field catches by Jack Tobin helped Dempsey hold the Rainiers scoreless for his seventh win of the season.

Seattle had a man on first base with one away when Tobin raced back to the wall to snag Frank Colman's wind-driven liner backhanded. On the next play the fielder outfielder made a diving, somersault shoestring catch of Al Lyons' low drive.

In the nightcap, Herb Karpel racked up his seventh victory against two losses as Seattle pounded Hal Gregg for 12 hits. The Seals got their only runs in the fourth when Rocco homered in the bases empty, then Reno Ches doubled and came in on Darlo Lodginja's single.

Rain Cancels Sunday Pair

Unexpected rain washed out the Senators-Victoria doubleheader at Waters field last night bringing an end to the series and the Solons' stay at home.

The Solons now take to the road; to play Tacoma starting Tuesday night. During their home stand the Solons broke even in two games with Victoria and dropped a 4-2 series nod to Vancouver.

Business Manager George Emigh announced last night that the Senators were now "standing pat" after the Saturday sale of Dick Sinovic to Vancouver. No other immediate changes are planned for the club.

The condition of Marty Krug, injured before Saturday night's game, was reported check last night. Krug will return to the lineup Tuesday.

Chiefs Dump Tacoma, 8 to 4

The Wenatchee Chiefs threatened again today to knock Salem out of the first division in the Western International league by taking the opening game of a double header here with Tacoma by a score of 8 to 4.

The winners of the fifth place Chiefs with half a game of the fourth spot Senators who were iced by rain today.

At Spokane, the Indians and Bremerton divided a twin bill. Bremerton took the opener 3 to 2, but dropped the night cap 5 to 8. Marshall went the distance for the Blue Jackets in the opener, while Simon was tagged for five runs in a big eighth inning to drop the second.

Sil-Sox Down Bend in Tenth

BEND, June 19.—(Special)—Catcher Ted Kerr drove in two runs with a single in the 10th inning today to give the Silverton Red Sox a 4-2 victory over the Bend Elks, sweeping the two-game State league series.

Silverton won last night, 12-6. Kerr was the batting star of the game. In the second inning he hit a two-run homer off Bailey Brem.

The only runs off Charley Sauvain of Silverton came on a home run by Joe Farrell with one on in the third. The two wins by Silverton here pushed the Bill McGinniss-Pop DeLay club toward the league lead.

Middlecoff, Mangrum Divide Motor City Open Golf Honors

Dentist Reaches Top in Earnings

DETROIT, June 19.—(AP)—National Open champion Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum who rank among the nation's top money winners pros of 1949 divided honors in the Motor City Open Golf tournament today as they played to a tie in an eleven-hole "sudden death" playoff.

Each went into the final round today with a 54 hole total of 204 and they came up with a 69 apiece — two under par in their regulation rounds.

After a brief rest, they set out on their "sudden death" playoff and at the end of the first nine each had a 35 even par. Playing steady and conservative golf each had a birdie and eight pars on the outgoing nine.

After consulting with tournament sponsors and PGA officials Middlecoff and Mangrum decided to play two more holes in the hopes of breaking the deadlock but they paried each hole.

Today's winnings boosted Middlecoff into the number one spot among the nation's top golf money earners as his 1949 earnings are now $14,249.59.

Sam Snead, who did not play in the Motor City tournament, has $13,868. Mangrum ranks third with $13,825.50.

Each got $2,250 today as they divided the $2,600 first prize and the $1,900 dollar second money.

Reese, Gordon Lead in Polls

CHICAGO, June 19.—(AP)—Shortstop Peeewe Reese of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and third baseman Sid Gordon of the New York Giants have completed a double play in the all-star baseball poll.

They took over first place at their positions, regaining the lead which they gave up to Marty Marion and Ed Kazak of the St. Louis Cardinals last week.

Reese now tops Marion by 4,424 votes while Gordon has an edge of 4,112 over Kazak.

In the first nine days of the 20-day balloting throughout the country to select starting lineups for the all-star game in Brooklyn July 12, a total of 416,733 votes has been cast.

The only northwest player listed among the leaders is Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians. The second baseman held second place for his position behind Michaels of Chicago's White Sox. Michaels had 92,953 votes to 87,163 for Gordon.

Brooks Lose, Cardinals Win

Bob Feller Gains 3rd Season Victory

NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—The pennant races in the American and National leagues tightened today as the leaders in each circuit lost while their pursuers won.

Detroit's rambos, three games ahead to within three games of the American's pace-setting New York Yankees, sweeping both ends of a twin bill from the Washington Senators, 9-0 and 7-0, while the Yanks bowled 4-2, in eleven innings to the Cleveland Indians.

The third place Philadelphia Athletics divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns, winning the opener, 8-2, but losing the nightcap 7-3. The Boston Red Sox turned back the Chicago White Sox, 8-2, and took over fifth place from Washington.

Brooklyn's National league lead over the St. Louis Cardinals was slashed to a game as the Browns bowled, 8-2, to the Chicago Cubs while the Red Birds eked out a 6-5 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Boston Braves took over third place from the Phils, sweeping a twin bill from the Cincinnati Reds, 5-2 and 3-2. The Braves are only two and one half games behind Brooklyn. Pittsburgh's seventh place Pirates crushed the New York Giants, 9-4, to move to within a game of Cincinnati.

Virgil Trucks and Fred Hutchinson held Washington scoreless before 21,818 fans at Washington. Trucks, in pitching his second straight shutout and tenth victory of the season, limited the Nats to four hits. The big right-hander now has pitched 24 and one-third consecutive scoreless innings.

Mickey Vernon and Bob Feller teamed up before 40,031 fans at Yankee stadium to beat the Yanks. Vernon blasted his eighth homer with a mate on in the eleventh off Joe Page to ice the game. Feller pitched brilliantly, allowing only one hit after Tommy Henrich cracked his 13th homer in the fourth inning. It was Bob's third victory in nine decisions.

Rollin' Along by Jerry Stone

What a Michigan flavor the state's athletic picture is taking on as Kip Taylor goes to Oregon State and Chester Stackhouse lands the Willamette grid coaching job. Stackhouse comes to the local school as virtually a 100 percent surprise to everyone—and the big fellow evidently has plenty to qualify him for the Bearcat football post. After all, the WU powers-that-be just didn't accidentally reach clear over into Pennsylvania and pick him out of a pile . . . Would we be wrong in surmising that one of the main impetuses "behind" the Stackhouse selection might have been a few words from Kip Taylor, a former coaching colleague of Stackhouse's, to GSC Athletic Chief Spec Keene plus a bit of Keene advice to Willamette headquarters. Spec, though no longer with the local school, probably isn't beyond giving 'em a helpful hint now and then . . .

Sammy Rides High

A gent the local bowling sharpies would just love to best

In Sammy Steinbock, the one-time Fades softball hurler, who now rides the crest as a match play specialist in Portland, Sammy challenges one and all to take 'em on in 20-game sets but the pot comes high—from $250 up to a grand. Steinbock is one of those guys who doesn't carry an exceptionally high average in league play. But, oh boy! Get him in a two-man whindling with plenty of dough on the line and he's dynamite. Another guy along the same lines in Dds Wroten who did some throwing here two years ago. He's probably Sammy's chief rival in Portland . . . Some of Frankie (300) Evans' friends are trying to get him to do battle with Slammin' Sammy. It would be an interesting match . . .

Arguing Point

Now ballplayers really have an argument when they ask the buses for a bigger paycheck. They can point to the unpredictable of worshipful fans, who plague 'em with autograph demands—or street 'em with a boot "meant just for you, my hero." . . . And considering that a bobby Sox follower almost did Frank Sinatra's escaped all these years? . . .

Glorious?

Where do they get that "glorious" (sire stories put it that way) victory for Jake LaMotta? He snatched the middleweight title from Marcel Ceran. Jake earned the crown fair and square, all right. But can it be called "glorious" when you lick a foe whose artillery is reduced to one fist after the opening round? . . .
