Two Cases of Polio Found in Marion County

Twelve cases of communicable diseases, including two of poliomyelitis, were reported by physicians in Marion county during the past week, the county health department disclosed Monday.

"This is the season in which polio can be anticipated," stated Dr. W. J. Stone, county health officer, "but by the time polio shows up in a community the virus had been present for some time and need not create undue concern."

He added that communicable diseases cannot be controlled by isolation or quarantine, though such measures are often beneficial, but advised that as new contacts and new activities during the warm season should be minimized. Statistics show, he said, that closing of public gatherings is not an effective deterrent to such diseases.

Other diseases reported were one case of chickenpox, four of conjunctivitis and five of measles.

WOODBURN, June 20—(Special)—Two cases of poliomyelitis, first in this area in recent months, have been reported here today.

Both cases are in the same family. Stricken at their homes are James Fletcher, 8, and his brother Robert, 10. They are the sons of Alva Fletcher.

Barker Gang Men Slain in Jewel Robbery

LINCOLN, Neb., June 20—(AP)—Two men, shot down as they fled with a $75,000 jewelry loot Friday afternoon, have been positively identified as former members of the notorious Barker gang.

Lt. Harold Smith, head of the criminal division of the Nebraska state patrol, identified them as Albert C. Gladson, 48, and Alton Crapo, 47. They were identified through fingerprints.

Gladson and Crapo were shot to death a little more than two hours after they had forced two Lincoln salesmen to the side of a country road and took the small fortune in diamonds at gun point.

Lt. Smith said he had learned from the Kansas investigation bureau that both were members of the Barker gang, notorious a decade ago for bank robberies.

Enroute to the national young republican convention at Salt Lake City to be held Thursday through Saturday, Anderson pointed to Oregon as an example of how young republicans stimulated leadership in the parent GOP organization.

He said Oregon State Republican Chairman Sig Unander is 35, and Newell Elliott, secretary, and Lawrence Neault, treasurer are both under 35.

A motor caravan of Oregon young republicans will leave Portland tomorrow morning for Salt Lake City, Anderson said. They will stop in Boise overnight and Idaho young republicans will join the caravan Wednesday morning.

Ex-Hungarian Diplomat Held As Subversive

BUDAPEST, June 20—(AP)—The communist press said Sunday the vigilance of Hungarian Deputy Premier Matyas Rakosi disclosed "subversive activities" that led to the arrest of ex-Foreign Minister Laszlo Rajk.

(Rakosi, though holding the title of deputy premier, is the communist boss of Hungary.)

Rajk and 19 others are held by the communist government on charges of spying for an unnamed foreign power.

The published comment was a full page editorial in the communist organ Szabad Nep.

The editorial called the imprisoned Josef Cardinal Mindszenty "that unctuous traitor." It said "Trotzkism, Fascism, Zionism and anti-Sovietism—that was the ideological sink" where Rajk and his alleged accomplices came from.

This attack on Zionism coincided with the conviction of seven persons last midnight of charges that they helped other Zionists emigrate from Hungary to Israel illegally.

(Restrictions have been reported in force in Russia against Jews wanting to go to Israel.)
