Beula Arnold To Wed in August

Today's romantic news concerns the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Beula Arnold and James Williams. The attractive bride-elect told a group of her friends of her betrothal at a barbecue supper party last Sunday afternoon at the North 21st street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold. The benedict is the son of Mrs. Harold Dickey.

Guests were seated a long table covered with a wishing well and ivy with a card bearing the names of the engaged duo and the ring was hidden in the bucket. At either end of the table were bouquets of sweet peas and fern. It was not until dessert was served that the guests learned Beula and Jim were to be married on August 21 as the date was written on the cake. The ceremony will take place at the Knight Memorial church.

Miss Arnold and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school and she is employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Mr. Williams has been attending Willamette university and his fraternity is Beta Theta Pi. In the fall he plans to continue his studies at Santa Rosa Junior college and the couple will make their home at Santa Rosa, Calif.

Bidden to the announcement party were Miss Crystal Huntington, Miss Irene McLeod, Miss Joan Hoerth, Miss Josephine Coughell, Miss Janet Lindley, Miss Jean Pickens, Miss Nancy Snyder, Miss Marian Carson, Miss Ruth McCall, Miss Ruth Holtzman, Miss Marilyn Nichols, Miss Eva McMullen, Miss Frances Baum, Miss Patricia Burrell, Miss Elsie Cannon, Miss Virginia Lewis, Miss Janyce Baker, Miss Mary Arnold, Mrs. Robert Wagers, Mrs. Harold Dickey and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold.

Bradys Hosts at Dinner Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady were hosts for a dinner party Sunday afternoon in the garden of their country place, "Half-Pint Farm," on the Garden Road. From out-of-town came their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Siddoway, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wright and Beth of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Sterling Jensen, David and Joan, of Salt Lake City, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady, Jr., Michael Jean and Robert, Miss Carolyn Brady and the hosts.

Travelers Return Home

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bogart, are being welcomed home from a two months cross country motor trip. They drove south from here and stopped in Arizona, the Carlsbad Caverns, New Orleans, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. They visited in Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, New York, Boston and motored up the east coast to Portland, Maine. The travelers also visited in Quebec, Montreal and Niagara Falls, returning home by way of Detroit, Chicago and Salt Lake City.

House guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cover are Mrs. Bea McNeeley and Mrs. John D. Kilpatrick, sr., of Honolulu, who arrived from the Islands by plane. Both matrons will remain in the states several months, planning to travel cross country and into Canada. The Covers entertained their guests at Timberline Lodge on Sunday and plan trips to the coast and Silver Falls this week.

Miss Ethel Larson a Bride

At a Sunday afternoon ceremony on June 19 at the First Evangelical church Miss Ethel May Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson of Bend, became the bride of Ira Winfield Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Jones of Gresham. Dr. Raymond Withey, dean of men at Willamette university, performed the 3 o'clock double ring rites before a setting of white daisies and pink delphinium. Clusters of daisies marked the alternate pews. Frank E. Sanders of Portland played the wedding music and Miss Patricia Willard of Dayton sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white neton embellished with pastel chenille flowers. The bodice was fashioned with a net yoke, long sleeves buttoned at the wrists and a full skirt, which ended in a train. Her fingertip veil was edged in lace and was made by the bride and her mother. She carried white daisies with a shower of daisies on white ribbons.

Miss Helen Larson of Bend was her sister's maid of honor and wore a yellow taffeta gown fashioned off-shoulder and a full skirt. Miss Sylvia Wilde of Junction City was bridesmaid and wore a gown identical to the honor maid's. Both carried colonial bouquets of white daisies.

Lee Jones of Gresham served as his brother's best man and ushers were William Harris, Charles Woodcock, Bob Singleton, and John Stuller, all college friends of the bride and groom.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Walter Dry, Mrs. Max Alford, Mrs. Ross Huckins, Mrs. E. T. Fleenor, Mrs. Dick Larson, Miss Marie Mahood, Miss Thelma Gear, Miss Nana Cahill, Miss Bettyella LeFiles and Mrs. Paul Cookingham.

After a wedding trip to Glacier National Park the couple will be at home at The Oaks, route two, Junction City. For going away the bride wore a beige and gold plaid suit with brown accessories. Mr. Jones and his bride have been employed at the Oregon State School for Blind here and are graduates of Willamette university. In the fall he plans to work on his master's degree in business administration at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Mae Wilder, president of Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, who will be attending the state convention in Coos Bay this week.
