

Nuptials in Hillsboro of Interest

SILVERTON — Miss Helen Colleen Madsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Madsen, Hillsboro, formerly of Silverton, and Platt Hart Bliss of Hollywood, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bliss of Salt Lake City, were united in marriage Sunday night at 9 o'clock at a candlelight ceremony at Trinity Lutheran church, Hillsboro. The Rev. George Reule read the double ring ceremony. Miss Kathryn Reule, Hillsboro, was soloist, accompanied at the organ by George Henriksen, Jr., Portland, who also played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white marquisette over taffeta. The full gathered skirt was fashioned with lace insets, long sleeves, and a court train. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace and held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid.

Miss Loretta Madsen, only sister of the bride, in frosted green organza over a deeper green taffeta sash was maid of honor. Miss Joan Satern, cousin of the bride, and Miss Norma Kroeger, Hillsboro, in gowns identical to the maid of honor's, were attendants. All carried red roses and bouvardia.

William Jenkins of Salt Lake City was best man. Ushering were Roger Madsen, brother of the bride, and Robert Corey of Salem. At the reception which followed, Mrs. Harold Larsen, Silverton, aunt of the bride, poured. Three other aunts who assisted were Mrs. Arthur H. Madsen, Salem, presiding at the punch bowl, Mrs. Oscar Satern and Mrs. Harold Satern, both Silverton, cutting the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Herbert Walker of Bellingham, Wash., Mrs. Marshall Satern and Miss Althea Meyer, Silverton, Miss Dorothy Olin and Mrs. George Henriksen, Portland. Miss Kay Madsen, Salem, passed the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a sheer powder blue gown with pink accessories and Mrs. Bliss wore garnet with silver accessories. For going away the bride donned a navy blue dressmaker suit with navy accessories, shell pink sheer blouse and a fingertip shell pink topcoat. Pinned to her coat was her white orchid.

After July the couple will be at home at 1900 Franklin Circle, Hollywood.

Returning from a week of summer camp at the Smith creek recreational area on Sunday were 35 girls of the Salem court of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America. Mrs. Harry Corey, Salem junior chairman, was in charge of the group with Mrs. Lade Koutney, Mrs. J. D. White and Mrs. Joseph Thomas assisting. Mrs. Edmund Silbernegel, R. N., was camp nurse for the week.

Mrs. W. Wells Baum and daughter, Marion, will entrain today on the streamliner for Madison, Wisconsin to visit with Mrs. Baum's mother, Mrs. Frederic K. Conover. They will return in a fortnight. The Baum's son, Ted, is expected home this week from Leland Stanford university. Since school ended he has been in Los Angeles visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Peters (Anna Louise Heater) who were married on June 8 at a garden ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Heater, in Union Hill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters. The couple will live at Union Hill. (Josten-Miller).

Betrothal Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Merle D. Bruckman are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Lou Bruckman, to James A. Shelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shelley, all of Salem. The wedding is planned for the early fall.

Miss Bruckman is a graduate of Salem schools and this summer is at Breitenbush Mineral Springs with her father, who operates the resort. Her fiancé attended schools in Colorado and during the war was in the army, serving in Germany for three and a half years.

Betty Burbank Is Married

PEDEE — The Monmouth Evangelical United Brethren church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Betty Burbank only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burbank and Paul Ronco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ronco of Newberg, on June 17. The Rev. Edward A. Fogg of Milwaukie officiated at the 8 o'clock rites. Mrs. Joe O'Neal was soloist and Miss Melva Womer the organist. Miss Jay Humphreys and Miss Janice Bevens, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with imported lace yoke, full skirt ending in a train, a fingertip veil of net with lace edging,

Parties For Miss Wade

Miss Corinne Wade, popular bride-elect of Richard Kuhn of Portland, is the incentive for several pre-nuptial parties. The couple's marriage will take place on July 15 at the First Congregational church with a reception following at the Chi Omega sorority house.

Saturday afternoon Miss Patricia Viesko and Mrs. Reed Vollstedt (Mary Ana Bollinger) of Albany will be hostesses for a bridal shower in compliment to Miss Wade at the Edwin Viesko home on South High street. Mrs. James Meese, Jr., was hostess for a surprise party in honor of Miss Wade Friday night at her Portland home and a group of the engaged couple's Portland friends were bidden. A miscellaneous shower feted the bride-to-be.

Hostesses to Entertain

Miss Echo Yeater and Miss Elise Schroeder will be hostesses for a buffet supper and bridge party tonight at the former's home on Chemeketa street in compliment to Miss Yeater's sister, Mrs. William Langston, who has just returned from a several month's stay in New York City, where she has been with her navy husband. Bouquets of summer flowers will provide the decorative note.

Honoring Mrs. Langston will be Miss Marjorie Chester, Miss Genevieve Cockerline, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Mrs. Lloyd Griffiths, Mrs. Warren Doolittle, Mrs. Waverly Gilmore, Mrs. Edward Dyck, Mrs. Arthur Sprague, Mrs. M. E. Hughes, Miss Yeater and Miss Schroeder.

Elected to Presidency

Mrs. Forrest I. Goddard of Salem was elected president of the auxiliary to the Oregon Association of Chiropractic Physicians at the opening of the association's annual convention in Portland Saturday. Mrs. Goddard succeeds Mrs. Ross H. Elliott of Portland.

Others elected were Mrs. R. H. Harris, Albany, first vice president; Mrs. Elliott, second vice president; Mrs. Charles E. Dixon, Portland, third vice president; Mrs. Ralph Schmidt, Silverton, secretary; Mrs. A. J. Stephens, Gresham, treasurer; Mrs. Carlton Mast, Portland, historian; Mrs. Gordon Peasley, Portland, auditor, and R. M. Peffer, Corvallis, parliamentarian.

The couple will spend their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and for going away the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories and corsage of red-rosebuds. The couple will live at Pedee.

Reputation Makers

Cream Salad Dressings Often Give Lift to Menu of Fresh Vegetables

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Women's Editor

Sometimes the variation of a dressing will do much to raise the family cook's reputation as a salad maker. Young cabbage takes kindly to this dressing:

CREAM DRESSING FOR COLE SLAW

(Serves 6 to 8)

1/2 cup thick sour or sweet cream

2 tablespoons sugar

1/2 cup vinegar

Few drops onion juice

1 teaspoon salt

1 quart cabbage, finely shredded

Combine first 6 ingredients, beat, pour over cabbage. Mix well and serve at once.

Or, of the salad's to be fresh fruits or fruit to clear out the canning closet to make way for this summer's supply try this dressing:

CREAM DRESSING FOR FRUIT SALADS

(1 quart)

1/2 cup butter

2 tablespoons flour

1 cup milk

3 egg yolks, beaten

1 teaspoon mustard

1/2 cup vinegar

1 teaspoon salt

1/4 cup sugar

3 egg whites

Make white sauce with butter, flour, and milk. Combine egg yolks and mustard, dissolved in 1 tablespoon vinegar, in top of double boiler. Add salt and remaining vinegar. Pour cream sauce over egg mixture gradually and return to double boiler, cook until thickened. Remove from fire, add sugar, fold in stiffly beateh egg whites.

Here's a new version of Thousand Island dressing that takes cream.

THOUSAND ISLAND

1/2 cup mayonnaise dressing

2 tablespoons pimientos, finely chopped

1 teaspoon chives, minced

2 tablespoons tomato catsup

2 tablespoons chili sauce

1/2 cup whipping cream

2 hard-cooked eggs, coarsely chopped

Combine first 5 ingredients. When ready to serve, whip cream, add cream and eggs to first mixture.

Dr. Stewart to Speak

Dr. Stewart is speaking under the auspices of the Salem chapter of the League of Women Voters.

Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wiles and daughter, Nancy, have returned from a several weeks trip to Detroit and New York City. Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Bodmer and daughter Brenda, are also home from a motor trip which took them to Kansas to visit with relatives.

On Etiquette

By Roberts Lee

Q. Who should lead the procession into the dining room when a dinner is being given in honor of a man and wife?

A. The host or hostess with the wife or the husband of the honored couple; the other two next.

Q. Is it proper for a girl to powder her nose, file her nails, or comb her hair in a public place?

A. No; she should do this before leaving home, or in some dressing room.

Q. What do you consider the best acknowledgement to an introduction?

A. A sincere "How do you do" is never out of place.
