Indiana Folk Entertained at Unionvale

UNIONVALE — Guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George K. Millen are her mother, Mrs. Earl Gingrich, and son James of Lafayette, Ind. They plan to make their home in Oregon and James will enroll at Oregon State college this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicks of Lafayette and Barbara Ahlbrand of Seymour, Ind., have also been visiting the Millens. Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Ediger are being congratulated on the birth of a son June 16 in the Memorial hospital in Salem. He has been named Dwight Allen and weighed 8 pounds 2 ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Green of Eugene were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rutschman. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Rutschman are sisters. Spending the day at home also were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Konzelman of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Withee, jr., and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stockhoff and Gene and Mrs. R. M. Rickey spent Sunday at Depoe Bay. Father's day dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Magee were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Robb of Salem, the Rev. and Mrs. Clark Robb and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Magee and Stephen.

Mrs. Louis Magee returned home Tuesday evening with her daughter and son-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Clark Robb, from a two weeks trip to Michigan, where she attended the graduation of her daughter from Calvin college in Grand Rapids. On the way home they visited relatives in North Dakota, stopped at Glacier National park and Grand Coulee dam and visited friends and relatives in Montana and Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crawley and family spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Matt Warren who are staying at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Chester Carpenter at Willamette. Mr. Warren's condition is continuing to improve.

A party was enjoyed by a group of young people on the lawn of the Louis Magee home Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher and Mrs. John Richardson of McMinnville and Rosemarie Lorenzen and Rudy Braun of Dayton were among those present from out of this community.

A Sunday school picnic will be held in the McMinnville city park Tuesday, June 28. The picnic is being sponsored by the young married peoples class of the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Magee attended the graduation of their niece, Pauline Herzigstad, from the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland Thursday evening. She is a nurse.

The Women's Society of World Service met Thursday night at the church for their regular meeting.

Entries File for Santiam Festival Amateur Hour

STAYTON — Numerous entries have already been filed for the Santiam festival to be held in Stayton from July 26 through 30. Committee Chairman Ed Bell announced this week.

Due to the popularity of the amateur program, Bell said, it will be staged on two evenings during the festival. The first performance will be Tuesday, July 26, and the second Thursday, July 28. The Thursday performance will feature winners of the first program and will be broadcast over Salem station KSLM.

Other members of the amateur hour committee are Mrs. Eye Humphreys, Mrs. Eunice Phillips, Kenneth Farwell and Marcel Van Driessche. Persons wishing to enter are asked to contact a member of the committee.

Governor to Lead St. Paul Rodeo Parade

ST. PAUL — Oregon Mounted posse, Salem Saddle club, Riders of the Santiam and Silverton Saddle club members have been invited to take part in the 14th annual St. Paul rodeo's wild west parade slated for 10 a. m. Monday, July 4, according to Rodeo Secretary Pete Kirk. Governor Douglas McKay, member of the Oregon Mounted posse, will be the parade's grand marshal.

Prize ribbons, trophies and other awards will go to the best marching group, the riding club with the most members participating, the best float, the best dressed junior and senior cowboys and cowgirls, and other entry classes. The awards will be presented as the parade concludes at rodeo park arena.

Professional cowpokes from all sections of the United States are expected to be on hand for their share of the $7500 in prize money being offered by this year's show.

In addition to winning an extra $250 and the best all-around cowboy honor, some ropers and rider will be the first to have his name engraved on the huge gold Stevens' trophy, given to the outstanding performer. Permanent possession of last year's President's trophy was claimed by Gene Rambo, Shandon, Calif. St. Paul's champion cowboy for three consecutive years.

One thousand dollar purses are carried by each of St. Paul rodeo's main events — Brahama bull riding.

Mrs. Clark Noble, president, was in charge of the meeting. The lesson was on the "American Possession" and Mrs. Louis Will talked in detail on Alaska.

Woodburn Men Train at Fort Lewis

FT. LEWIS, Wash., June 21—When a tank is "buttoned up" the crew must rely on periscopes to guide them. Sgt. Fred Dall, 2nd division instructor, is explaining the use of these instruments to a group of National Guard crewmen from the 186th heavy tank company of Woodburn, Ore. The sergeant is pointing to a periscope mounted on the inside of the assistant driver access hatch on this M4 A3 type tank. Shown from left to right: Cpl. Irban Zastoupil, Pvt. Harold Seaton, 2nd Lt. 72 Donate Blood To Mobile Unit At Grand Ronde

SHERIDAN — Seventy-two volunteers were on hand last week when the mobile blood bank visited Grand Ronde. A total of 82 pints were taken, 17 volunteers were rejected and three were unsuccessful.

Mrs. Kenneth Hall, Oswego, counselor of volunteer services, said the blood program was progressing satisfactorily. The blood donations are taken to Portland where they are typed and stored for necessary use in northwest Oregon and southwest Washington hospitals. The blood is contributed free of charge to the hospitals.

be family nights at the rodeo and all youngsters under 12 years of age will be admitted free of charge to the show. Matinee performances are planned for Sunday and Monday, July 3 and 4, at 1:30 p. m.

Valley Obituaries

Margaret M. Obrist
ALBANY—Margaret Means Obrist, 84, of route 1, Albany, died in the Willamette hospital June 18, following an extended illness. Funeral services were held from the Fisher Funeral Home Tuesday, June 21, with the Rev. Orville Mick officiating. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery at Salem.

Margaret Means was born March 15, 1865, in Andrew, Iowa. She came to Oregon with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. James Means in 1888, the family first locating at The Dalles. It was at The Dalles, on March 13, 1889, that Margaret became the bride of William Geor Obrist. In 1908 they moved to the vicinity of Albany. Mr. Obrist died here in 1932, but Mrs. Obrist continued to make this her home. She was a member of the United Brethren church.

Surviving are six children, Mrs. Elizabeth Stoaks of Portland, Alvin Obrist of Roseburg, Carey Obrist of Wheeler, and Mrs. Anna Propst, Lloyd and John Obrist, all of Albany. Surviving also are 13 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Infant Handy
ALBANY — Graveside services were held Monday, June 20, for Baby Handy, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Handy of Albany, at Willamette Memorial Park. The Rev. Roy Strong officiated. The Fort Miller-Frederickson funeral directors were in charge of the services. The baby was born at a local hospital June 18.

Surviving besides the parents is the grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Pittman of Albany.

Middle Grove — Mrs. Florence Wright, hospitalized for a week following a heart attack, was brought Thursday to the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Cagle.

Swegle — Guests this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peffer on Hollywood drive are her daughter, Mrs. John Baldridge and children from Payette, Idaho, and her sister, Mrs. Andy Shanks from Oregon City.
