Kids Catch Whopper With Bare Hands

Nothing like fish in your own back yard! Especially for these youngsters who caught a salmon in the mill race Wednesday just off the 700 block on N. Chur ch street. The 30-40 pound salmon was found stranded on a gravel bar in the middle of the stream by Lorraine and Barbara Simington, 742 N. High st., and Beverly Smalley, 754 N. High st. Admiring their catch, left to right are, Bobby Smalley, Lorraine, Robert Simington, Jr., Gordon Moore, Beverly, Barbara and Martin Simington, all of 742 and 754 N. High st. The fish had been seen in the mill race for several days but efforts to catch it failed until yesterday. (Statesman photo.)
