Don't Look Now

But . . . Friday was one of those days for us. We were sideswiped by a truck com- horseburger would be insulted to be associaing in to work, rammed into headon by another car as we went home, both in the same spot. A check we had deposited to our credit bounced, the mail brought a notice of a library book overdue and one of the calves got through the fence. Even the cookstove refused to heat until we fought with it half an hour. Makes a person appreciate a dull day.

To be expected . . . No one should be surprised at the weather, it's just hanging on until the Fourth, when there'll be a good old time rainy weekend for everyone to fuss and fume about.

Be careful . . . Any self-respecting ted with some of the hamburgers they put out, if flavor is any indication. It's just a good lesson. Know what you are getting in a meat cake or else order boiled eggs.

An idea . . . and incidentally, they can't do much to a boiled egg. It may be old, but it has to be clean if the shell's still around it.

Apropos . . . After we'd had two auto accidents on the corner near our house a neighbor remarked to those assembled that perhaps we should change the name of this column. - Maxine Buren.

For fun-on-the-run, as you've already discovered, there's no travel mate like that Buick of yours-especially if it's really in the pink.

So while you're readying yourself for vacation tours, how about doing the same for your car-with a little of that special Buick care that does so much to make trips top-notch? For instance-

Got plenty of pep? Our engine tune-up is just the ticket to bring back flashing, new-car liveliness on hills and straightaways.

Can you "stop on a dime"? The answer's yes-when our experts get through truing up worn drums, mounting new linings to replace old worn ones.

How's your view? It'll be good, night and day, when you let our experts check your lights, windshield wipers, and windows.

Want a good steer? That's just what you've got, after our front-end experts get through adjusting your steering mechanism to give it new-car lightness.

In short, start your trip in our shop and you'll
