

Civic Clubs Hold Carnival At Amity

AMITY—Several hundred citizens of the Amity community attended the picnic and carnival sponsored by the Amity Woman's club, Thursday, June 23.

Booths were conducted by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Friendly Neighbors club, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Three Link club of Industry Rebekah lodge, Firemen's auxiliary, Lyons club and Ladies of Eastern Star.

A softball game, all Amity players, drew a large part of the group. Supper was a no-host and was served under the trees.

The proceeds of the concessions will be added to the Community Center fund, the project of the Woman's club this year. This meeting climaxed the end of the club year.

A street parade was held Tuesday morning, June 21, at 10 a. m. with 40 entries participating. Children's nursery rhymes featured the parade. The parade was led by the Amity school band.

RAM BRINGS RECORD

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP)—A record price of $8,400 for a New Zealand sheep was paid recently for a Corriedale ram. The ram will go to Uruguay. Rr. Gallinal Heber, a leading South American breeder, bought the ram from a Caterbury (South Island) stud.
