

Schroeder, Czech Reach Final Round, Wimbledon

Aussie Star, Sturgess Lose California Ace Big Favorite in Singles

By Bill Macklin
LONDON, June 29 (AP)—Ted Schroeder, the lion-hearted scrapper from La Crescenta, Calif., stormed from behind to beat South African Eric Sturgess today and gain the finals of the Wimbledon singles tennis championship.

Dowager Queen Mary and 17,000 other fans saw the last American survivor beat the classy empire hope, 3-6, 7-5, 5-7, 6-1, 6-2, by finally getting the jump at the net.

For the title on Friday, Schroeder will meet Jaroslav Drobný, the bouncing Czech, who routed Australia's John Bromwich, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2, in a faltering demonstration by the veteran from down under.

The crowd was silent as the demoralized Bromwich bowed, a contrast to the cheers that greeted the thrills supplied by Schroeder in another of his classic comebacks.

The fighting Yank's finish was so devastating that Sturgess, befuddled at his failure to keep Schroeder from the net, made a feeble showing in the stretch.

The South African champion got only four points after Schroeder broke his service to lead 3-2 in the fifth set. Ted was nimble as a deer when the tide swung in his favor.

The experts agreed tonight that Schroeder looks unbeatable. Drobný, although the best in Europe, will be given little chance against him on Friday.

Queen Mother Mary, a keen fan at 82, sat straight as a net post for more than four hours of tennis. She stayed after the men's matches to watch Gussie Moran of Santa Monica, Calif., and Mrs. Pat Todd of La Jolla, Calif., draw. Mrs. Patsy Rodgers and Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith of Britain, 6-2, 6-2 in a doubles quarter-final.

Gussie did not wear her lace panties. She wore shorts.

An all-American lineup was completed for the women's singles semi-finals tomorrow. Louise Brough, defending champion from Beverly Hills, Calif., beat Mrs. Molly Blair of Britain, 6-2, 6-3, and Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont of Bellevue, Del., ousted Mrs. Betty Hilton of Britain, 6-1, 6-3.

Yost Ousted from Meet
AMES, Ia., June 29 (AP)—Washington's Jim Mallory was the only Pacific Coast conference Northern division representative to survive in first round match play at the national collegiate golf tournament.

The lanky husky ace, a quarter-finalist last year, turned back Frank O'Connor of Canisius, 1 up. Eddie Draper, the other Washington entry, lost to John Winters of Ohio State, 4 and 3.

Draper was one of seven who played off for five positions among the 154 first-day qualifiers.

Other Northern division contestants eliminated from the NCAA meet were:

Dick Yost, Oregon State, defeated by Dave Dennis, Kansas, 2 and 1.

Medalist Arnold Palmer of Wake Forest led the way into the second round with a 4 and 3 victory over Marion Pfluger, Texas.

Gracie DeMoss Snares Match

LINCOLN, Neb., June 29 (AP)—The favorites breezed through today in the opening round of match play in the annual trans-Mississippi women's golf tourney.

Tomorrow is expected to be different. Then several matches listed in the "mighty tough" category are on tap over the 6,330-yard Lincoln Country club course.

Among the survivors are Gracie DeMoss, Corvallis, Ore., who defeated Mrs. John Wilkin, Kansas City, 2 up, and Edean Anderson, Helena, Mont., who won from Mrs. E. R. Mansfield, Des Moines, 3 and 2.

Carrasquel Back With White Sox

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox today announced the return of Pitcher Alex Carrasquel, who jumped to the Mexican league in 1946.

Gen. Manager Frank Lane, reporting from Portland where he's stopping on a scouting trip, said Carrasquel will report to the White Sox in St. Louis Monday.

The veteran right handed pitcher will receive a 30-day tryout with the White Sox in keeping with the trial runs given all the batted major leaguers who jumped to Mexico during the 1946 season.

'Good To Be Back', Says Mickey

BROOKLYN, June 29 — Catcher Mickey Owen (left), set to play his first game for the Brooklyn Dodgers since his jump to the Mexican League, discusses strategy with Pitcher Erv Palica prior to a recent exhibition game between the Dodgers and Cleveland Indians. Seals Sign Up Hank Feldman

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29 (AP)—San Francisco of the Pacific Coast league announced today the signing of Harry (Hank) Feldman, righthanded pitcher who was with the New York Giants before jumping to the Mexican league in 1946.

Among the jumpers recently reinstated, Feldman asked for his release when he was not satisfied with a Giant offer.

The 30-year old Feldman, a fast ball pitcher, broke into baseball with Fort Smith, Ark., in 1938.

Onslow-Michaels Tiff Shakes Chisox Clubhouse

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox clubhouse debating society is at it again.

This time it's Manager Jack Onslow, the undisputed and top man of the "society", vs. Second Baseman Cass Michaels, an almost certain starter in the All-Star game July 12.

The subject: Whether Michaels could visit his home at Detroit tomorrow when the Sox have an open date and then join the club when it comes to Detroit Friday.

There was plenty of conversational fireworks when Onslow turned down Michaels' request in the Pale Hose clubhouse just before last night's game with the St. Louis Browns here.

Michaels referred to Onslow as a "chicken manager" and otherwise belittled the managerial talents of the 59-year-old major league freshman boss. Michaels also threatened to quit the club in disgust one of these fine days.

When Cass acted as though he would walk out of the clubhouse on the equally hot Onslow, the be-spectacled pilot roared he would slap a fine of between $250 and $500 if Michaels walked out the door. He didn't walk out.

Instead, he went out and pitched his 68th game—he hasn't missed a single inning in any game played since the season started—and belted three singles in six trips.

After the Sox 7-6, 12-inning loss to the Browns, vice-president Charles Comiskey summoned Michaels and Onslow to his office. This morning, Comiskey said all was serene between the two.

The problem of Michaels' Detroit departure tomorrow, however, was not immediately settled, Comiskey admitted.

One-Armed Pete Gray Receives Walking Papers After Squabble

DALLAS, June 29 (AP)—Pete Gray, one-armed outfielder who figured in an incident that caused dissension on the Dallas baseball squad, said tonight he had been given his outright release.

Gray was arrested early Saturday when Owner Dick Burnett of the Dallas club said he called police and told them if the ball player had been drinking to put him in jail.

Gray was released when officers said they found he was not intoxicated. Shortly afterward several members of the Dallas ball club came to jail to get him out.

Burnett, in a statement today, said Gray, whom he called on the telephone to inform that he was being sent to the Gladewater farm club, had said he wasn't going to go and that Pete sounded as if he had been drinking.

Gray said Burnett later apologized to him.

The Dallas News said officials of the Dallas club would not confirm that Gray had been released but that the ball player had said so and announced that he would leave for his Nanticoke, Pa., home tomorrow.

Gray was not charged when taken to the jail, Jail Supervisor R. M. Wiseman releasing the player when he said Gray was not intoxicated.

Lanier Returns To Card Fold

ST. LOUIS, June 29 (AP)—The last member of the trio of St. Louis Cardinals which jumped to the Mexican league in 1946 has returned home.

Left-hander Max Lanier is en route to St. Louis today to rejoin the club, Fred M. Saigh, Redbird owner, said. Lanier will sign a contract for $11,500—the amount he signed for in 1946, Saigh added.

Lanier joins Pitcher Fred Martin and Infielder Lou Klein who took advantage two weeks ago of Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler's reinstatement of the jumpers.

Approval Given 'Aid' Measure

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—A bill to provide federal aid to states for fish restoration and management projects won approval today of the house fisheries committee.

A state would put up $1,500 and get federal funds of not less than $4,500 annually.

The committee also approved a senate bill to increase from $1 to $2 the hunting stamp fee for migratory birds and to provide that up to 25 per cent of any refuge area may be opened to limited shooting of birds.

60-YEAR-OLD WINS

RYE, N.Y., June 29 (AP)—Joseph M. Wells, 60-year-old veteran from Newell, W. Va., won the National Senior Golf championship today with a 36-hole score of 145, three strokes better than his closest challenger.

Second place in the competition for golfers 55 years old and up went to Brackett B. Fernald of Providence, R.I., who carded 73 at Bling Brook today for 148.
