Young Musicians Study

Four girls from Leslie junior high school were awarded scholarships to summer school in the department of music, University of Oregon, and are now attending classes in Eugene. Carol Lee, violinist, Sidney Krugmer, cellist and Lauren Hurr, pianist, who make up an instrumental and a vocal trio and Roberta Graham, also a violinist are the musicians. All made superior ratings in the music contests in Klamath Falls this spring. Roberta Graham will go into high school next fall, the others into the 9th grade at Leslie.

Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist and Bennet Ludden will be in Portland Friday night to be dinner guests of Mrs. Robert C. Topping. Mrs. Topping was a member of the Willamette university music school faculty the past year.

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loucks were her brother-in-law and sister, Commander and Mrs. J. E. Edwards, who stopped here enroute to his new base in Seattle. Commander Edwards has been stationed in China.

Salem Folk Home From The East

Three Salem couples are being welcomed home from trips east which took them to national conventions. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Guyner Knapp attended the national Boy Scout council's convention in Boston and later went on to New York City for the International Rotary convention. Also attending the Rotary convention were Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Johnson and daughter, Karen, who are expected home the end of the week, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Kells, who have already returned to Salem. Accompanying the Knapps on the trip were their sons, Ed and Jim.

Mr. Knapp is president of the Cascade area council, Boy Scouts, and Mr. Phillips is a member of the northwest regional committee. The Knapps toured the New England states, Quebec and Montreal, following the conventions and then went south to Virginia, Washington, D.C., Annapolis and home by way of Kansas City, where they visited relatives, and Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips also visited the New England states while in the east and went up to Quebec and Niagara Falls. In Harrisburg, Pa. they visited with General and Mrs. Albert Stackpole, and in Wilmington, Delaware with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downs, both couples having formerly lived here during the war, when their husbands were stationed in Salem with the army.

A Garden Wedding

The marriage of Miss Joyce Houtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Houtz, Salem, and Edward Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis of Barstow, Calif., took place on June 23 at 2 o'clock at a garden wedding at the country home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Houtz. The Rev. Dudley Strain officiated and organists were Miss Ruth Van Orsdel and Carolyn Willis. Mrs. E. W. Boldt sang.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white Bemberg sheer floor length gown with lace trim on the bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of lace and orange blossoms and she carried a white Bible topped with yellow rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mrs. Darrell Simmons of Portland, sister of the bride, was the honor matron. She wore a pink organdy frock and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Steve Manners of Portland was best man and usher. They were Arthur Houtz and James Houtz.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. H. F. Houtz, Mrs. Arthur Houtz, Mrs. L. L. Goode, Mrs. E. W. Boldt, Mrs. C. B. Willis, Mrs. J. D. Houtz and Miss Mary Ann Willis.

After a wedding trip along the coast the couple will be at home in Barstow, Calif., where the bride is a kindergarten teacher and her husband is in the service station business.

Icings May Change on Summertime Birthdays; Try the New

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Even summertime birthday parties served outdoors deserve special icing on the cake, and sometimes it's a good idea to use new recipes for the frosting.

Here are several good old icings from "my little black book" of recipes:

ORANGE BUTTER FROSTING

- 3 tablespoons butter in
- 2 tablespoons boiling water
- 2 cups sifted conf. sugar
- 1 unbeaten egg white
- 2 tablespoons canned orange pulp or marmalade

Mix butter, water, sugar, add orange, drop in egg white, stir hard until it holds shape when dropped from a spoon.

ICE CREAM FROSTING

- 1 1/2 cup powdered sugar
- 1 egg yolk
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- 1 Cream enough to spread
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Drop egg in butter, add sugar, vanilla, and cream to spread.

CLEVER JUDY ICING

- (or chocolate custard) Good!
- 2 cups sifted conf. sugar
- 4 squares unsweetened chocolate melted
- 2 eggs or 3 yolks
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 teaspoons vanilla

Cream butter and sugar, add milk, chocolate, vanilla and eggs. Beat hard about 3 minutes or until it stands in peaks.

Airborne Travelers

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cunningham of Pittsfield, Maine, arrived by airplane Wednesday to spend the coming two weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. duVal, who have recently purchased a home at 1508 Jefferson street.

Mrs. F. J. Griffin of San Francisco will arrive in Salem the end of the week to spend the holiday weekend with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maison.

CLUB CALENDAR
