Dewey Rand Takes Bride

A Salem man, Dewey Allyn Rand, Jr., took as his bride Miss Phyllis Ann Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Albert Howard of Portland, and June 20 at Mount Tabor Presbyterian church, Portland. Dr. Robert K. Russell performed the ceremony. Mr. Rand is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Rand of Salem.

The bride chose an ivory slipper satin gown fashioned with a heart-shaped neckline with clusters of seed pearls, a rippled bodice and a full length train. Her illusion veil was trimmed with imported lace and was held in place by a satin coronet. She carried a prayer book with orchids and was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. John Leslie Schaele was matron of honor and wore an auburn gown with matching mitts. She had a corsage and carried a crescent shaped bouquet of salmon carnations and roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Beryl Doby, Mrs. Richard P. Simmons, Mrs. Marlowe Garretson and Miss Jeanne Miller, who wore yellow moire taffeta gowns with matching mitts and their coronets and bouquets were of blue delphiniums and salmon roses. Flower girls were the Misses Sharon Marie Booth and Ann Marie Barton.

Harry J. Thomas was best man and ushers were Paul Anderson, John L. Scheele, Wayne Pollock and Richard P. Simmons. A reception was held at the church. After a wedding trip to California, the couple will live in Portland after July 5.
