Escape Try Case Against Cons Dropped

Indictments against four Oregon state prison convicts charging attempted escape from the prison last fall in a flax plant fire were dropped Thursday.

The indictments were dismissed on order of Marion County Circuit Judge George Duncan on motion of District Attorney E. O. Stadter, jr. The order stated there is "not sufficient evidence to sustain a conviction of the crime charged."

Indicted were John O. Pinson, who escaped from the prison May 30 and still at large, and Lawrence Ogilvie, John Edward Ralph and Allan D. Brumfield, all now in prison.

The men, however, are slated to stand trial on charges of arson in connection with the flax plant fire.

Two other convicts were convicted early this month on similar charges by circuit court juries.
