Louise Cops Singles, Shares Doubles Toga

By Bill Macklin LONDON, July 2-(AP)-Blonde Louise Brough retained two Wimbledon tennis titles today and barely missed another in one of the greatest marathon performances by a woman in the history of big time tennis. In five hours and 20 minutes o the sunswept center court, she captured the singles and shared doubles honors, but lost the mixed doubles in partnership with John Bromwich of Australia.

CHAMPS FETED

LONDON, July 2 -(AP)- Wimbledon's singles tennis champions, Ted Schroeder and Louise Brough. were feted tonight at the Wimbledon ball where they performed the traditional "duty" dance together before Prime Minister Clement Attlee and other guests.

Viscount Templewood, president of the British Lawn Tennis association, described Schroeder as a "most popular champion" as toasts were drunk to the victorious

The well-built miss from Beverly Hills, Calif., opened finals day with a victory over her chum Mrs. Margaret Osborne duPont of Bellevue, Del., 10-8, 1-6, 10-8.

After an hour's rest during the men's doubles won by America's Frank Parker and Pancho Gonzales, she returned to the worn court as a partner of Mrs. duPont to defeat Gertrude (Gussie) Moran of Santa Monica, Calif., and Mrs. Pat Tedd of La Jolla, Calif., 8-6, 7-5.

The sun was setting but the officials allowe dthe "iron woman" a 15-minute intermission before her mixed doubles.

Against fresh opponents, Eric ambidextrous Bromwich bowed in a thriller, 9-7, 9-11, 7-5.

Altogether she played 117 games and, until the fag end, was jump-
