State Parole Board Has 12th Anniversary

The state board of parole and probation had a 10th anniversary recently and held a get-together observance Thursday night at the Golden Pheasant. Left to right are Board Members Gerald W. Mason of Portland and Roy S. Keene of Corvallis (chairman), who have served continuously since being appointed to the original board by former Gov. Charles Sprague; Gov. Douglas McKay; Board Member John L. Gary of West Linn (who was appointed in 1944 to succeed the late Paul Kelty), and former Governor Sprague. Highlight was the presentation to Governor McKay of a report by the board and

A poem fro mWilliam Shakespeare's play says, in part,

"In the Springtime

The only pretty ringtime . . . Sweet lovers love the Spring."

But what about Summertime Mr. Bard? Certainly everybody loves the Spring — but a pretty, ringtime is anytime a sweet lover receives a ring ... or gives a ring! Incidentally, there's more truth than poetry in this quotation which every good ring-bearer should know by heart, "You need never sacrifice to give the finest. You are assured of that at
