

Firecracker Violators Fined At Silverton

SILVERTON, July 5—Silverton judges report that the holiday weekend resulted in a record of no cases. Cases in courts Tuesday were all hold-overs from pre-holiday charges. Only civil cases were handled in the justice court, Tuesday, Alf. O. Nelson, stated. Pre-holiday firecracker shooting fines of $5 each were paid to Arthur Dahl, police judging by Evelyn Krebs, John Zolotoff, James Stucklik and Daryl Siefert. Heaviest speeding fine was paid by Charles Siewert, Salem, who paid $25 for driving 60 miles in a 25-mile zone limit. Paying $10 each for speeding were Ralph Baller, James Moullet, Teddy Cook of Portland, and Sam Kaiser.

Newspaper Story Reunites Former Nebraska People

FOUR CORNERS — Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bashford of Jefferson saw some familiar names in the Four Corners items in a Salem newspaper. Last week the G. M. Deen and A. J. Batterson families on Durbin Avenue remembered their acquaintance with the Bashfords, whom they knew more than 20 years ago in Bushnell, Neb. Mrs. Jess McInay and Mrs. Wilford Pederson drove to the YMCA camp at Silver Falls park Sunday, taking Eric and Gary Pederson, Craig Seiff, Gary McInay and Ronald Russell. The boys will remain at the camp for two weeks.
