Midgets Hop Into Deadlock for Lead

The Salem Steel and Supply Co. and Midget Markets last night posted "C" Junior baseball league wins, the Steels downing Bishop Electric 11-2 and the Markets topping Master Bread 10-5. The Market win vaulted that team into a first place tie with Four Corners, at two wins for each

Jim Miller banged a perfect 3-for-3 for the Steelers, and Derald Knetel homered with none on for Bishop's. The Markets took advantage of John Caughell's pitching wildness to set them en route to their victory. The Junior circuits are now idle

Salems to Spokane For Next Series

ATHLETIC PARK, Wenatchee, July 7 -(Special)- Salem's robust run making came to a quick halt tonight as the Wenatchee Chief's on Long Lou McCollum's four-hit flinging blanked the Senators 7-0 in the finale of their Western International league series here. It was McCollum's seventh win of the season, three of which have them by shutouts.

Salem now goes to Spokane to open a series Friday night. Hank Sciarra was the losing pitcher tonight. He served up a home run ball to Clint Cameron in the second with none on, and another to Dick Faber in the fifth, with two on. Faber drove in four runs. Jimmy Foster finished the game for Sciarra and gave one run.

The whitewashing was the eighth time this season Salem has been shut out. The loss dropped Salem 11/2 games behind fourth-place Wenatchee and left them just two games ahead of the onrushing Victoria Athletics.

hazard is increasing steadily. If we are to have continued good fishing and good hunting we will have to be extremely cautious from now on until fall, when in the woods. Vacationers to the national forests should not forget the required shovel, axe and bucket. Be sure that no fire is left unattended throughout the day. Be sure too, that fire is out before you break camp. The forest service wisely hints that after you cover your fire

Angling in General is Picking Up

Angling seems to be hold in the Deschutes area. The Metolius and Deschutes are good. East and Paulina lakes are good in spite of the heavy fishing pressure. Summit lake is on the improve. Rock Creek reservoir near Maupin is turning out some nice catches of rainty. The little Deschutes and Crescent creek are getting in tip top is pe. Around close, the Santiam is dropping fast and is getting fair to good. Thomas creek is fair to good. The Abiqua is good but the fish are small.

Where ever you go, take the kids along. They'll enjoy it.
