

Forecast: Fishing 'Good' in Many Areas for Weekend

PORTLAND, July 7-(P)—Good fishing in many areas was predicted today by the state game commission for weekend anglers. The outlook by districts:

PORTLAND VICINITY: ML Hood Area.—Stream fishing improving. Some good catches being made. Twin lakes reported excellent.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY: Lane county — Eugene: fair with some good catches from upper Willamette river. Best results from files. Reports from upper lake area favorable with some limit catches on both files and bait. Fern ridge lake poor with only a few catches being made. Triangle lake good with some very nice bass taken on plugs. Upper Siuslaw river very poor, water low and clear. McKenzie river water conditions excellent. Fishing fair on Horse creek and Blue river and good on South Fork of the McKenzie and McKenzie rivers. Prospects for weekend good.

DESCHUTES AREA: Deschutes county — Most lakes good with exception of Davis and Elk lakes which are just fair. Metolius river good. Little Deschutes and Upper Deschutes rivers — water conditions good, catches fair. Deschutes river near Maupin low and clear. Luck just fair. White river clear. Luck good.

COASTAL SECTION: TILLA-

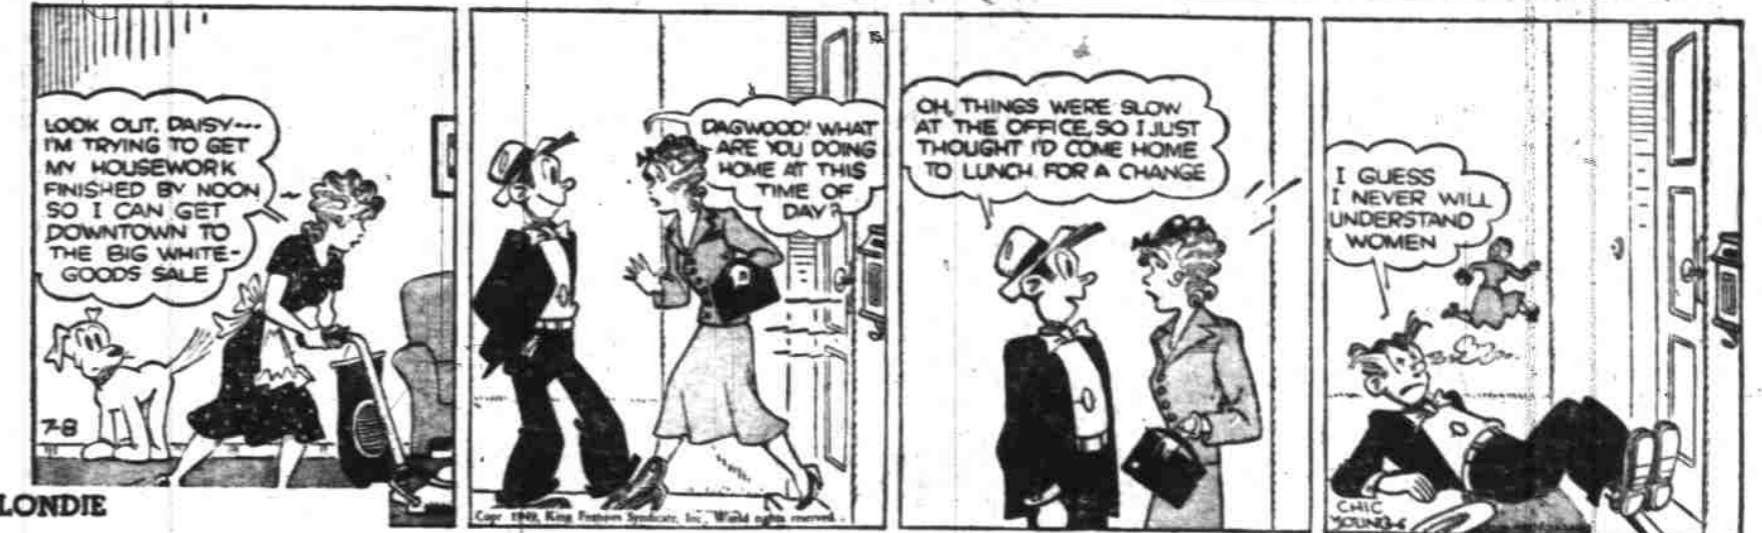

moor county — all streams low and clear; angling slow, few fish taken last weekend. Prospects for weekend only fair. Lincoln county — conditions just fair so far but improving daily. Several nice catches of trout in Yaquina and Alsea rivers by trolling. Siletz river not very promising. Large trout are taking flies in the upper Yaquina. At present stream conditions very favorable and there should be some nice catches of trout this week.

SOUTHERN OREGON: Josephine county — Rogue river trout fishing fair to good. Salmon fishing extremely poor. Klamath county — Lake of the Woods average to good catches made trolling early in the morning with good fender. Fly fishing good in the evenings with gray hackle, black gnat and bucktail each man best. Still fishing with eggs and worms also good. Fish lake excellent with eastern brook up to one and one-half pounds and rainbows sixteen and seventeen inches taken trolling. Fly fishing good in afternoon, still fishing poor. Four Mile lake road still in bad condition. Rainbows seventeen inches up to four and one-half pounds taken trolling. Klamath lake — good. Diamond lake — fair. North fork and south fork of Sprague river fair. Lost river poor. Good results on flies in Williamson river. Good results on bait in Long creek.

King Has Lead, British Open

Bulla, Stranahan, Locke Trail Pacer

SANDWICH, England, July 7-(P)—Sam King, the sole Briton to beat an American in the 1947 Ryder Cup matches, shot his way to the front of the British open golf championship today with the only 69 posted in wind and rain.

His 71-69-140 gave the 38-year-old Kent county professional a two-stroke lead at the halfway mark over his closest rivals among the 30 other players — including Frank Stranahan and John Bulla — who qualified for the final 36 holes tomorrow.

Only those with scores of 147 or better survived a bleak day on the 6,728-yard Royal St. Georges course hard by the English channel.

Two other Britons shared second place with 142 each. They were Bill Shankland and Max Faulkner.

Another stroke back came Roberto Vicenzo of Argentina with 68-75-143 and Dick Burton of Britain, the 1939 Open champion, with 73-70-143.

Bulla, Phoenix, Ariz., professional now representing the Westmoreland Country club of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, amateur, remained within striking distance with 144 each. Both had identical scores of 71-73.

Bobby Locke of South Africa, the favorite before the tournament started, slid to a 76 today after his 69 yesterday and got in with a 145 but left himself plenty of ground to make up.

NOVELTY 'CAST SET BY KOCO

The KOCO broadcast of tonight's Salem-Spokane game at Spokane will be novel indeed. Operations are to be shifted to the MKN Furniture Co. building at 1425 Edgewater street, west Salem, where Castles, Bruce Williams and Dick Nason will carry on amid bleachers, pop corn, hot dogs, "cokes," etc., all donated free by the four baseball broadcast sponsors, the furniture company, Valley Packing Co., Master Bread and Salem Automobile Co.

The broadcast, starting at approximately 9:30 p.m., will be free to the public.

All-Star Game Howl Made

NEW YORK, July 7-(P)—An alleged "snubbing" of Pitcher Ken Heintzelman brought the major league all star game to its annual boil today just five days in advance of the playing date. The 33-year-old Philadelphia Phillies southpaw, who has won 10 games and lost only three, seems headed for his finest big league season.

But when Boston Manager Billy Southworth announced his National league lineup Ken was not listed.

at what the players called a "snub" of one of the league's top pitchers were audible all the way to St. Louis. About the mildest came from Manager Eddie Sawyer: "It's an injustice," he snorted.

A couple of others weren't so temperate. "It'll serve them (the National league) right if the American league beats 'em 45-0," one reporter quoted P. i. c h e r

Schoolboy Rowe as saying. Southworth, as manager of the defending National league champs, has the right to pick his own pitching staff. He named Don Newcombe, Preacher Roe and Ralph Branca of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Howie Pollet and George Munger of the St. Louis Cards, Warren Spahn and Vern Bickford from his Boston team and Ewell Blackwell of the Cincinnati Reds.
