Gravel Firms' Spokesmen, Teamsters Talk

The arbitration committee of Salem Trade and Labor council met with two employers' representatives Thursday in an effort to settle the current wage dispute between the Teamsters union and four local sand and gravel com-

E. Lee Crawford, Salem attorney, and Pat Blair of Eugene represented employers at the Labor temple meeting. Herbert E. Barker, Alfred F. Chivers and Howard Wooley were on the labor committee.

Crawford said employers offered the same 10 cents an hour wage increase plus certain retroactive payments which were accepted by Eugene teamsters recently. He did not elaborate.

Bakes, executive secretary of the Trade and Labor council, said the council will decide what action to take in the dispute at a meeting Tuesday night.

Ward E. Graham, secretarytreasurer of the teamsters, said contracts calling for, 121/2 cents an hour pay increase were signed Thursday morning with three companies, Eola Tile and Products, Valley Sand and Gravel and Lune Rock and Construction company. None of the firms was involved in the current dispute

Bridge Creek Koad Surveyed

A survey on Bridge Creek road which leaves Silver Falls highway halfway between Silverton and the falls was presented to the Marion county court Thursday by Surveyer Dale Graham.

Commissioner Roy Rice said the survey was undertaken to determine the exact right-of-way owned by the county along the road which has not been used for 60 years. Bridge Creek road was used by settlers in the area in the 1880's as a main trail to Silverton, Rice said.

The Cascade Operating company, now hardling property of the old Silver Falls Timber company, wants to rebuild and maintain the road in order to haul out lumber.
