strokes off the pace as the field entered the last half of the 72-hole classic this morning they shot identical scores of 68 and 70 in the day's two rounds in a dramatic windup on the sandy, windswept Royal St. George's course. Frank Stranahan of Toledo. Ohio, captured the silver medal for finishing as the low amateur with 71-73-74-72-290.

The only other American in the field of 31 still firing today -Professional Johnny Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., and Pittsburgh, Pa. - faded out and wound up with 71-73-76-79-299 in the race for the title vacated by Henry Cotton. It was the first two-way finish in the Open championship since American professionals Denny Shute and Craig Wood played to a dead heat in 1933. Roberto De Vicenzo of Argentina, who posted a 72-hole score of 68-75-73-69-285, was third. England' hopefuls also wilted before the sharpshooting of the visitors from overseas. British Rydery Cupper Sam King, who led by two strokes after 36 holes, shot 74 and 72 today for a 286. That left King in a fourth place tie with Charlie Ward, who entered the final round only a stroke off the pace but finished with a 70
