

Flying Bevos Batter Angels Twice; Bridges Hurls 4-Hitter in Nightcap

Austin Homer Clinches First

Saltzman Chalks Victory No. 13

LOS ANGELES, July 17 (AP)—Portland swept a double header from Los Angeles today, 8 to 6 and 7 to 1, with Tommy Bridges twirling a four hitter in the finale.

The Beavers took the series, five games to one.

The Beavers broke a 6 to 6 deadlock in the ninth inning of the opener, with two singles and Frank Austin's first Pacific Coast league homer. The uprising gave the Beavers two runs—and the ball game.

Seven pitchers saw service during the ritual, Alan Ihde being charged with the loss and Hal Saltzman getting credit for his 13th victory.

The nightcap was another story. Bridges allowed the lone Los Angeles tally on singles by Bobby Sturgeon and Ostrowski in the sixth.

Booker McDaniels started for the Angels but was ejected promptly as the Beavers nipped him for four runs in the first inning. Three of them came on Leo Thomas' homer.

Williams Ventures Title With Bolanos Thursday Dick Gonzales Retains Crown

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—Like Williams, the brilliant lightweight champion from Trenton, N. J., risks his crown for the fourth time in 14 months Thursday when he meets Enrique Bolanos of Mexico in a 15-rounder in Los Angeles.

It will be the third meeting between jolting Ike and the clever Mexican who does most of his boxing out Los Angeles way. Williams, "fighter of 1948," stopped Bolanos in six rounds two years ago, but the Mexican gave him a stiff tussle last May 25. The Trenton negro gained the split decision after 15 rounds.

Thursday's battle will be fought outdoors in Wrigley field. The title bout tops a national boxing program which included such headlines as Rocky Graziano, and two unbeat young prospects, lightweight Maxie Docson and heavyweight Roland La Starz.

Graziano, the rough and ready, hitting New York middleweight, meets J'Que Acosta of Brooklyn in takes on an easy opponent in his second comeback effort. Rocky a scheduled ten at West Springfield, Mass., Monday night.

Docson goes up against Joey Barnum in a ten in Little Duke's home town, New Orleans, Monday.

La Starz is listed for ten against Jackie Lyons of Oklahoma City and Pittsburgh at Long Beach, N. Y., Friday night.
