Wasley Nears Two Records as Homer Hitter

Thanks to the changing atmospheric conditions, summer winds and the fact that the boys must be eating their Wheaties, besides some of Ted Chambers' valley - pack hams, home run production in the Waters arena is picking up for the Senators. And right along with it, a couple of new records are in the offing. The record for a season of round-tripping at Waters is 48, established in 1940. To date this campaign there have been 26 propelled from the yard, the great majority in the last month. Leading the way is Mel Wasley, the outfielding gent who would latch onto the "most popular" accolade on this year's team, were such goings-on not tabbooed by the Portland-Salem policy.

Despite being out of harness almost two weeks, Wasley has banged eight out of the park. One more and he ties a record that has stood since '40, the first year when Eddie Wilson lifted nine of his season's 14 over the same right field barrier. Four more circuit smashes by the conscientious little hustler from the Sacramento valley and he'll hold the all-time Salem Senator record. Eddie Barr possesses that one, after his 16 home runs of last season. Wasley now has 13, and the way he's been powering them from the park lately he might take command no later than next Sunday night when the team finishes its

McCrady Was Handy with His Fists Also

As W. H. McCrady, the slender and mustachioed Portlander was downing one target after another at STC in the big meet allaround title over the weekend some of the oldtimers were heard discussing the fellow's athletic achievements of some 15 years ago. Not with a shotgun, but with boxing gloves. It seems McCrady is the same gent who at that time was a fighter, and a pretty good one. They were telling us he is the one who beat the hallalujah out of the once-famed Ah Wing Lee, giving the Chinese battler such a pasting in the process that he never fought again. McCrady can still belt 'em, but now with his shootin' iron . . .

Not heralded nearly as much as his departure, Sammy Baker is back at Oregon State and is registered in summer school. The great prep athlete of Corvallis high year before last isn't eligible for next fall's football team, because of his flunk-out, but he is back and trying to make up the lost ground at least . . . Spokane writer Danny May, Wasley has 65, Bud Peterson 49 here with the Indians during their stay insisted Red-headed Jack Parks and Bob Hedington 36. Wasley's five hit ball tonight to give Willadoesn't belong to Seattle at all, and that he's the outright property of 13 home runs lead. Bud Peterson mette a 6 to 0 win over Cornelius Spokane. It was the first the best prospect we've seen in the WIL in many a year, and he has the major league-scouts following him all over the circuit . . .

Hold the Fort, Men, That Man's Coming In

Speaking of home run hitting above, batten down the hatches and man the barricades, men, for that man's coming again. Meaning that Rousing Richard Greco comes in with the Tacoma Tigers tonight. Consequently, watch the crowds perk up for the threegame series, as Greco's rampaging against Salem pitching staffs in recent seasons has helped local attendance (when he's here) considerably. They like to see those home runs whether hit by Salems or their enemies.

Salem faces a "must win" week actually. The onrushing Bremertons are now but one game back of the locals, and Victoria is practically tied with Bremerton (discounting Monday wins and losses). The Senators are but six games out of the cellar, now occupied by the Tigers.

Manager Bill Beard will have a top home run threat to toss at Tigers too. Mel Wasley has hit four over the right field barrier in the last six games to run his seasons total to 13. The solidly erected little outfielding populaire seems to have regained all his hitting strength since being out of the lineup with that bad leg, and should not be long in elevating himself into the ".300" class again.

In games played with Tacoma thus far Salem has won five, lost six. With other enemy clubs the up-to-date win-loss count is 7won, 6-lost with Victoria; 6-won, 9-lost with Yakima; 5-won, 8-lost with Vancouver; 7-won, 11-lost with Spokane; 7-won, 6-lost with Wenatchee and 5-won, 5-lost with Bremerton.

"It isn't very pleasant for me to find myself in the middle of a public argument that has nothing to do with the standing of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the pennant race - or even the pay raise I am going to ask Mr. Branch Rickey for next year."

Jackie dropped it in just like that, neatly and quietly by the back door. But he was under eath because the committee swears in all witnesses.

Robinson, who hurried back here for tonight's game with Chicage, didn't say how much of a raise he wanted. It is not the policy of baseball clubs to discuss such matters in open forum, and Rickey declined comment when told about it. Best guess on Robinson's current salary is about $19,000.

There doesn't seem to be much argument about Jackie earning his keep. The latest average show him hitting .363, or 31 points better than runnerup Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh, And that isn't all. He has more hits than any other player in the majors, 117, and tops the national league in runs scored with 73, runs batted in with 68 and stolen bases with 21.
