

Miss Davey A Bride

At a wedding solemnized in Emmanuel Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, July 17 at 3 o'clock, Miss Beryl Mae Davey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davey of Welton, Minn., became the bride of Ronald McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol McDonald of Salem. The Rev. Fred Bennett officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, E. F. Hausfeld. She wore a gown of white nylon, full length veil which was that of her mother. Her bouquet was of coral pink gladioluses and ferns. She wore a necklace of turquoise and silver.

Miss Rowena McDonald, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a dusty rose gown and carried rose and white gladioluses. Merry and Cherrise Davey, twin sisters of the bride were flower girls, and wore yellow and carried colonial bouquets.

Stanton Anderson served as best man. Ushers were Darl Hunt and Russell Reich.

The bride's mother sang "At Dawning" and Jeannette Saucy sang "Love of My Soul" and Sam Berger sang "The Love of God." Miss Helen Hausfeld accompanied the singers and played the wedding marches.

The bride's mother was gowned in pale green and pink accessories. The groom's mother wore rose pink gown and white accessories. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Hausfeld, wore a dress of orchid, with which she wore navy blue accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Rhodelia Dell on South 12th street, owned by the groom's father. Assisting were Mrs. Sam Berger, Mrs. E. F. Hausfeld, Miss Cornelia McDonald, Miss Ruth Berthold, Miss Barbara Bennett, Mrs. Dick Ware and Miss Ellen Brown.

The new Mrs. McDonald is a graduate of Tri-Mont high school of Triumph, Minn., and attended Willamette university. She has been employed at the Commercial Book Store. The groom is a graduate of Salem high school and Klamath Falls vocational school and is a refrigeration technician.

Leila Mae White Is Married

LYONS — A wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White when their oldest daughter, Leila Mae, became the bride of Gerald Rockwell, son of Mrs. Nellie Dahlenberg, on Saturday afternoon, July 9 at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Willard Buckner of Stayton reading the ceremony.

The bride wore a teal blue floor length gown, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and pink rosebuds. Her only attendant was her sister, Mary Ellen White, who wore a blue and pink suit, her flowers were pink roses and variegated carnations. Leater Luke, nephew of the groom, acted as best man. Aladean McDonald sang, accompanied by Leonard Smith.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a grey suit, with corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a maroon colored dress with a corsage of carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Mehama, where he is employed at the Etzel sawmill.

LYONS — Installation of officers was held at the meeting of Faith Rebekah lodge with Mrs. Elsie Myers, district deputy president, and staff installing the following officers: Helen McClurg, past noble grand; Frances McCauley, noble grand; Blanche Wagner, vice grand; Garnett Bassett, secretary; Beulah Lewis, treasurer; Mildred Carr, warden; Helen Andersen, conductor; Rosa Berry, chaplain; Carrie Naue, inside guardian; Millie Bickett, outside guardian; Jean Roberts, flag bearer; Alta Bodeker, right supporter to noble grand; Elsie Myers, left supporter to noble grand; Eva Bressler, left supporter to vice grand; Alma Oimstead, financial secretary; Hazel Shields, right supporter to vice grand; and Mabel Bass, musician. At the close of the meeting a covered dish supper was served by the losing side in a contest which was carried through the past six months.

Delicately Flavored

Veal Dumplings Summertime Dish When Weather's on Cooler Side

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Women's Editor

The delicate flavor of veal makes it an excellent food to include often in the summer diet. While veal cutlets and chops are perhaps the most popular veal dishes there are many other ways of bringing veal into the menu for the family. Reba Staggs, home economist, suggests as one example serving veal with dumplings on days when weather's mild.

VEAL WITH DUMPLINGS

2 pounds diced veal shoulder
1 onion
1 quart water
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 cups diced potatoes
6 carrots
1/4 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup cold water

Have meat cut into one-inch cubes. Simmer veal and sliced onion in water for one hour. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce, potatoes and sliced carrots. Continue cooking for fifteen minutes. Thicken mixture with the flour
