

Keizer Bible School Will Close Today

KEIZER — Closing program of the daily vacation Bible school held the past two weeks at Community church will be given Friday evening, July 22, at 8:00 o'clock. A total of 125 children have been enrolled with an average attendance of about 100. The program will include demonstration of work done in the classes and there will be a display of handwork. The public is invited.

The Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Thompson, missionaries from Brazil, were speakers at Community church Sunday evening, July 17. Rev. Thompson is founder and director of Pedra Bible Institute in the suburbs of Rio de Janeiro, and has spent 18 years on the southern continent. Curious pictures were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dodson of Grand Forks, B. C., are visiting at the home of their son, Glen Dodson. They also visited sons at Prineville and Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nekuda have returned from a motor trip to Nebraska where they visited with relatives. They were gone three weeks.

phers Valley, which is located eight miles northeast of Sheridan, in 1852. Since then, present-day family members have revived the old practice of holding large reunions each summer.

Sunday's gathering drew four generations from Washington, southern Oregon and Willamette valley points. Attending from Dallas were seven members of the L. G. and Ed Agee families, while Albany was represented by the E. E. and Oscar Agees.
