Wedding Highlights...

By Jermye English
SATURDAY'S MARRIAGE... perfect in all details and long to be remembered, the beautiful wedding of Marylou McKay and Lester Green... every pew of the First Presbyterian church filled with guests... even the balcony... A large number from out-of-town... Outstanding the all white flowers on the altar and the alternate pews marked with large clusters of Easter lilies and stock... Impressive dignity marking the entire ritual... the words of Dr. Chester W. Hamblin and the Rev. George H. Swift clearly heard throughout the church... as well as Marylou and Lester as they repeated their vows...

Here they come!... the young ushers handsome in their white dinner jackets... the bridesmaids walking singly and appearing well poised... just one shaking bouquet... the girls wearing rhinestone pendant necklaces, their gift from Marylou... Adorable was Eileen Hadley as flower girl... she enjoyed every minute and was all smiles... when the bouquet was thrown from the terrace steps Eileen was right there to catch it...

A happy couple... as Marylou and Les greeted their guests in the foyer of the church... the reception in the beautiful garden of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay... Three identical bride's tables... one in the dining room where the couple cut the first piece of cake... another on the patio and one on the lower terrace... All similarly decorated... clusters of regal lilies, the centers filled with bouvardia... garlanded with smilax and satin bows and bouvardia at the corners... Pink hydrangea blossoms in the lilies on the other tables and hurricane lamps... A huge bouquet of white gladioluses above the fireplace on the patio... The cake there served from a small round table with floor length white cloth... A colorful sight to see... guests strolling about the garden from the balcony off the dining room... Dozens of young people, newlyweds and college friends on hand to felicitate the couple...

The gifts... A steady line all evening waiting to view the gorgeous array of gifts, so artistically arranged in one of the upstairs rooms... The tables garlanded with smilax and a pretty bouquet of deep pink sweetpeas, daisies and baby breath centering the long table of handsome silver... China and glassware in orchid and green, the bride's favorite colors, as were so many of her gifts... Sentimental note... Lester's Lambda Chi fraternity brothers singing their sweetheart song to the couple on the steps in the lower terrace... Good-looking white wrought iron garden furniture... Guests peering into the doll house at one end of the garden, where Marylou and Shirley spent many a day... and the weather man timed his showers right once more... a few drops beginning just as the newlyweds led admist a shower of rice...

From out-of-town... came Sen. and Mrs. William Walsh of Coos Bay... Sen. and Mrs. Carl Engdahl of Pendleton... Sen. and Mrs. Paul Patterson of Hillsboro... Rep. and Mrs. Orval Thompson of Albany... Rep. and Mrs. Warren Gill of Lebanon... From Portland... Mrs. Lee Patterson... Miss Henrietta Lawrence... Sen. Jack Lynch... the Carl Donoughs...
