

Helser, Saltzman Hurl Beavers To Pair of Wins Over Seattle

Hot Portlands Snare Series

Burgher's Grand Slam Wallop Ices Finale

SEATTLE, July 24 (AP)—Portland ganged up on Lefty Herb Karpel for five runs in the first inning to beat Seattle, 5-1, in the second game after taking the opener of today's Pacific Coast league double bill, 3-1. The twin triumph—Southpaw Roy Helsner's victory in the opener was his 13th of the year—opened Portland's series decision, five games to three.

Saltzman racked up his 15th win in the seven-inning nightcap. Two were out before the winning Beavers started their spurge in the afterpiece. Karpel walked Eddie Basinski to force in the first run and then big Bill Burgher unloaded a grand slam home run to depopulate the sacks and give Portland all the runs it needed.

Saltzman, who had blanked the Rainiers earlier in the week, appeared headed for his second shut-out until the final inning.

Helser scattered six hits and gave up Seattle's lone run in the first and then big Bill Burgher squeeze-bunted York home. In the seventh Johnny Rucker singled home Shupe and Art Pennington drove in Thomas for the deciding second game tallies.

In other afternoon Coast league action the leading Hollywood Stars socked Los Angeles twice, 4-3 and 6-1, as Jim Baxes rapped three homers. Oakland topped San Francisco 2-0 and the Seals came back for a 5-2 victory. A night twin-bill was slated between Sacramento and San Diego.

Harbert-Hamilton Duo Alley, Albrich Easy Inverness Victor Links Winners

By Frits Howell

TOLEDO, O., July 24—In the most spectacular scoring spurge the 12-year-old tournament has ever seen, Melvin (Chick) Harbert of Detroit and Bob Hamilton of Landover, Md., today won the Inverness Four-Ball matches and grabbed $4,450 in prize money.

The two hot shots played perfect partnership golf in out shooting seven other star twosomes. Harbert had 25 birdies and two eagles, and Hamilton 27 birdies and one eagle in the seven matches.

They compiled a plus 19 total under the Inverness scoring system, second largest in history, and their 14-point margin over runners-up Clayton Haefner and Skip Alexander was the greatest ever.

The new champs lost only one of their seven best-ball frays, a two-down decision to Lloyd Mangrum and Johnny Palmer, the pretourney favorites who wound up in fifth place with a minus 1 reckoning. Under the Inverness system a team gets a plus for each hole finished "up" on an opponent, and the loser gets a corresponding minus.

Hamilton and Harbert wheeled into today's pair of matches with a plus 14 score which had the tourney "in the bag." They put it on ice with a three-up win over Haefner and Alexander this morning, and a two-up win over Freddie Haas and Dave Douglas, the last placers, in the grand finale staged before about 11,000 galleryites.

Sam Sneed, substituting for South African Bobby Locke who retired to play after winning the recent British Open, teamed with Dick Metz to finish in third place with plus 3. Sneed-Metz lost two down to Mangrum and Palmer this morning, but won over Jimmy Demaret and amateur Frankie Stranahan this afternoon, one up.

Demaret and Stranahan, who started out deep in the cellar, climbed back to even by splitting two matches today, and wound up in fourth place with a big zero which was good for $1400.

Lad's Channel Attempt Fails

DOVER, England, July 24 (AP)—Philip Mickman, 18-year-old grammar school boy from Wakefield, Eng., failed today to swim the English Channel. Mickman swam stoutly for 13 hours in the treacherous waters before becoming exhausted. He tried the channel last year, but failed.

Water and weather conditions were ideal when he left the French coast at Cape Gris Nez this morning. When he was within a few miles from Dover, he was pulled into the motor boat accompanying him. The channel is 19 miles wide between Cape Gris Nez and Dover.
