

NFL Rookies Tagged 'Best'

Bert Bell Predicts Wide-Open Contests

PHILADELPHIA, July 27—(AP)—Commissioner Bert Bell tagged a bumper crop of National Football league rookies as "the best all-around collection of first year men we've ever had."

Undaunted by the 90-plus degree on the thermometer, Bell plunged into his favorite talking subject, hot or cold, and exclaimed joyfully that "every club in the league now has not one but two great passers."

"The game this year is going to be the widest open brand of football we've ever seen," he asserted.

Bell rattled off the names of some of the top rookies, men like Chuck Bednarik of Penn., Johnny Rauch of Georgia, Bill Fischer of Notre Dame, Stan Heath of Nevada, Norman Van Brocklin of Oregon and Paul Brunner of Oklahoma.

"There have been years," Bell said, "when we had a few bigger names, but never before have we had so many good players coming up in one season."

"You can't name a team where there aren't two great passers and in some cases, you've got three or four," Bell said.

Bell mentioned particularly the Los Angeles Rams with Jim Hardy, Bob Waterfield and Rookie Van Brocklin.

Sanity Code Said Violated

NEW CASTLE, N. H., July 27—(AP)—Clarence P. Houston of Tufts college, chairman of the N.C.A.A.'s compliance committee said today several colleges will be notified of non-compliance with the "sanity code" governing eligibility of college athletes.

Houston did not name the colleges but said they would be notified officially when the compliance committee meets in Chicago on August 12.

He also told the National Association of Collegiate Commissioners meeting here that "whatever action is taken by our committee must, under our regulations, be withheld until the N.C.A.A. meeting next January."

Meanwhile, the commissioners assured Houston more cooperation in enforcing the N.C.A.A.'s "sanity code," but no drastic action was taken at the meeting about those regulations which govern eligibility of members of all sports teams in the nation's major colleges.

'Sugar' Slates Belloise Bout

NEW YORK, July 27—(AP)—Ray Robinson, world welterweight champion, and Steve Belloise, one of the main contenders for middleweight honors, agreed to terms today for a 10-round bout in Yankee stadium on Aug. 24. They will fight at 160 pounds or less.

The fight follows by two weeks the Ezzard Charles-Gus Lesnevich bout for the NBA world heavy-weight title in Yankee stadium and precedes the Sept. 14 outdoor meeting of Rocky Graziano and Charles Fusari, both middleweights.

DOUGLAS RACES SET

ROSEBURG, July 27—(AP)—Nearly 200 thoroughbreds and an equal number of quarter horses will race on the Douglas county fairgrounds' new half-mile track Aug. 17-27. The racing meet is under the sponsorship of the Umpqua Jockey club.

They'll Do It Every Time

Su Zimmerman, Eight Others Suspended for Hawaii Jaunt

OAKLAND, Calif., July 27—(AP)—So far as the Amateur Athletic union is concerned, the nine swimming and diving stars who went off on an unauthorized junket to Manila this week are all through as amateurs.

Included in the group under suspension is Sue Zimmerman, famed swimmer from Portland. The others are from the Athens club of Oakland. They are:

Laura Woods, Jacquelyn Woods, Joan Pawson, Lynn Pawson, Mora Stone, Al White (former Olympic diving champion), and Houston Moore and Harold W. Lockwood, comedy diving specialists.

Along with them went Lou Bittner, Oakland promoter of athletic events, who arranged the Manila trip and, last year, sponsored the Bittner basketball team which won the National AAU championship. Bittner no longer has standing as an amateur sponsor.

Frank Geis, chairman of the Pacific Association Registration committee, handled the suspensions after correspondence with Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the National AAU in New York.

"The Oakland swimmers have automatically suspended themselves," Ferris advised Geis in a telegram citing the regulations violated.

The situation hinged on failure of the group of swimmers to make arrangements through the governor athletic bodies of the countries involved; in this case the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation and the American AAU.

'Stran' Bows, Canuck Meet

SAINT JOHN, N. B., July 27—(AP)—Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, the defending champion, was pushed out of the Canadian Amateur golf tournament today by Tiny Tommy Riddell of Quebec, one up in 18 holes. Riddell sank a 30-inch putt on the first extra hole to win the fourth round match.

Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C., scored an easy 6 and 4 victory over Vernon Mohs of Edmonton, Alta., in the afternoon round today.

Vince Dundee, Ex-Middleweight King, Passes

GLENDALE, Calif., July 27—(AP)—Vince Dundee, one-time world middleweight champion, died today after a seven-year stay in a hospital. He was 41.

Sanitarium officials said death was due to multiple sclerosis. He had entered the hospital in 1942 for treatment of a blocked nerve at the base of his brain.

The nerve condition led to a progressive paralysis that made him virtually helpless during his final years.

Dundee, born in Italy as Vincent Lazzaro, won the middleweight title by defeating Lou Brown in Boston in 1933 and lost it the following year to Teddy Yaroz in Pittsburgh.

His brief reign as king of the 160 pounders and brother Joe's stay on the welterweight throne from 1927 to 1929 made the two

GONZALES WINS AGAIN
SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y., July 27—(AP)—National Champion Richard Gonzales stepped up his pace today to lead a phalanx of favorites into the quarter-finals of the Meadow Club's 59th Annual Invitation tennis tournament. The strong-stroking Los Angeles star eliminated Frank Shields of New York, former Davis Cup performer, in a third round match, 6-2, 6-0.

Cowboys Eye Pendleton Go

PENDLETON, July 27—(AP)—The nation's leading cowboy will try to add a few points to his slim margin over fellow-contestants at the Pendleton Round-up here Aug. 24-27. Gene Rambo, Shandon, Calif., all-around champion of the International Rodeo association in 1948, has a lead of only 14 points over second-place Bill Linderman, Billings, Mont.

The two far outstrip other cowboys in the year-long competition for the 1949 title. Rambo has 3,553 points; Linderman 3,539.

Most of the nation's top wranglers will be here to compete for the $5,000 Sam Jackson trophy, which goes permanently to the first

Cotton to Skip Ryder Action

LONDON, July 27—(AP)—Henry Cotton, three times winner of the British Open golf championship, announced tonight he will not be available to play for Britain in the Ryder Cup golf match against the United States Sept. 16 and 17.

The 42-year-old peer of British professionals was one of 20 nominees from which the team of 10 will be picked.

Cotton captained the 1947 British Ryder Cup team that lost to the U.S. in Portland, Ore. He has been in semi-retirement from big time golf since winning the British Open championship last year.

5 ELK KILLED—LEGALLY

REEDSFORT, July 27—(AP)—One of the largest elk kills in Oregon was reported here today.

Farmer Westley Harrison shot five elk on his place near Loon lake last night. It was all legal—he had special permission to shoot as many as five if they started eating his crops again.
