Sisters Will Be Married Same Day

By Jerry English
Statesman Society Editor

There is much excitement around the Hubbell A. Young home these days as their two daughters, Carol and June, will be married at a double ceremony on Saturday, September 3. The nuptials will be performed at the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock with a reception following in the church parlors.

Carol, who has been living in San Francisco for several years, will be married to Frank Lauritzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Lauritzen of Oakland, Calif. Their engagement was announced in the early spring in the bay city. June will become the bride of Stanley Ralph Underwood, son of the Stanley King Underwoods of Los Angeles. They have been a steady duo since early college days, their troth being announced several years ago.

The two sisters are graduates of Oregon State college. Carol is a member of Gamma Phi Beta and her sister wears the Chi Omega sorority pin. Mr. Lauritzen attended the University of California and graduated from Armstrong College at Oakland. He is now with the United States government, with headquarters in San Francisco, where the couple will make their home. Mr. Underwood graduated in June from the University of Oregon, having previously attended Oregon State college. He is now with the unemployment compensation commission in McMinnville.

On the Fairways

Two events are on the calendar for the Salem Women's Golf association during the coming week. Sunday, July 31 there will be a two-ball foursome with dinner following at the Salem Golf club and those wishing reservations are asked to call Mrs. Conrad Paulson by Friday. Play on Sunday will begin at 1 o'clock. For the regular ladies day on August 3 is slated the annual dress-up day.

Guests at the regular play on Wednesday were Mrs. Harry Schenk of Glendale, Calif., Mrs. M. D. Hemenway of Portland, and Mrs. J. W. Tindall. Prize winners were Mrs. J. H. Thompson, class A; Mrs. Chandler Brown, class B; Mrs. J. W. Matulec, class C; and Mrs. Gerald M. Robison, class D. A special prize went to Mrs. Harry Wiedner.

Three Tie

There was a three-way tie in class A for the Oak Knoll Lady Golfers on Wednesday. Tying were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn, Mrs. Mars Flack and Mrs. Robert Evenden. Other winners were Mrs. LeLand LeFors, class B; and Mrs. Robert Claggett, class C. No-host luncheon followed at the clubhouse.

Rites Read At Home

Miss Norma Stewart and Bruce Peterson were married at a quiet ceremony on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Lloyd. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Stewart of Hutchinson, Kansas, who were unable to come west for the rites, and the benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Peterson of Salem.

Dr. Seth R. Huntington performed the 8 o'clock nuptials and Mrs. Howard Kaufman played the organ music. The couple exchanged their vows before the fireplace which was banked with pink and white gladioluses and tapers.

For her wedding the bride chose an aqua suit with white hat adorned with brown ribbon trip and white accessories. She carried a lavender orchid encircled with baby's breath.

Miss Jean Monaghan was the honor maid and wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and carried pink roses. David Spalding was best man for Mr. Peterson.

For her son's marriage Mrs. Peterson chose a grey dress with black accessories and corsage of red roses.

At the reception, which immediately followed at the Lloyd home Mrs. Ralph Ranson poured and Mrs. Irene Monaghan cut the

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it proper for a girl to give her fiancé an engagement gift?
A. This is purely optional; in most cases, the ring given to the girl is the only engagement gift exchanged.

Q. Is it ever permissible for an employer to take his woman secretary to luncheon or dinner?
A. Yes, when strictly a matter of business, but not in a social way unless he is willing, if seen by friends, to have his act misinterpreted.

Q. Is it correct to refer to a doctor's wife as "Mrs. Dr. Brown"?
A. No, the correct form is "Mrs. Brown," or say, "the wife of Dr. Brown."

A Surprise Party, Date Is Set

Miss Constance Louise Cocking and James Paul Woodroffe, who recently announced their engagement, have set Saturday, August 27 as their wedding day. The 8 o'clock ceremony will take place at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating. A reception will follow at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cocking. The benedict-elect is the son of Mrs. N. S. Woodroffe.

A Surprise Shower
Mrs. Donald Preiss, the former Jane Acton, was hostess for a surprise bridal shower and party Wednesday night at apartment on North Church street for the pleasure of Miss Cocking. A late supper was served following the miscellaneous shower.
