Mathias, Gordien Pace U.S. Trackmen

OSLO, Norway, July 29-(AP)-The Star-Spangled American track and field team climaxed an uphill climb tonight by winning the "Little Olympic" and its accompanying decathlon competition.

The final point score was 2331/2 points to 2241/2 points over the combined Scandinavian squad which had led almost all the way through the three-night meet.

Chunky Bob Mathias, the Tulare, Calif., wizard, used his customery second-day surge to win the decathlon going away. Irv Mondschein of New York university was third and Bill Albans of North Carolina last in the six-man grind Mathias had 6,346 points. Fortune Gordien of Minnesota bettered the listed world record for the discus throw for the second time this month. His throw tonight measured 182 feet 3 53/64 inches. The approved record is 181 feet 6% inches by Adolfo Consolini at Milan, Italy, last Oct. 10, but Gordien has a still better throw awaiting record approval. He reached 185 feet 2 47/192 inches at Lisbon, Portugal, July 9.

letic club set a Norwegian record in the pole vault at 14 feet 8 27/32

George Rasmussen of the University of Oregon placed third in that event with a 14 feet 31/32 inches effort.
