Summertime Visitors Of Note

By Jermy English
Statesman Society Editor

The summer months always bring a number of interesting visitors to the capital and this year is no exception.

Guests at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brydon on Park avenue are his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jean Brydon, and her three children, Ruth, who is 13, Eric, 11, and Alistair, 9. The four arrived in the capital from their home in Edinburgh, Scotland a week ago and plan to be in the states seven weeks, most of which time will be spent in Salem. The Brydons are entertaining their guests with scenic weekend trips about Oregon. This is the first trip to the states for the visitors and they will return to Scotland the end of September.

To Fete Visitors

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William B. Leonard of San Francisco. The Leonards came north last week and have been in Olympia a few days this week. They will return south on Friday. In compliment to the visitors the Campbells will entertain informally at their Virginia street home tonight between 9 and 10 o'clock with a group of their friends bidden to meet the Leonards.

Arriving in the capital Friday for a visit will be Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lauman and son, Bill of Seattle, who will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lester Newman. The visitors plan to be here a week.

Coming from the South

Coming north by train Saturday will be Mrs. Andrew Hammond Burnett of Santa Barbara and her sister, Miss Margaret Purvine of Berkeley, who will visit for the ensuing week with their mother, Dr. Mary B. Purvine.

Dr. and Mrs. William Parker and twin daughters, Cathy and Susan, of Sacramento are expected to arrive in Salem Sunday for a week's stay, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker.

Baptist to Picnic

The Woman's Missionary society of the Olivary Baptist church will entertain all church families at a no-host supper on the lawn of the church on Friday night at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Edna Steen, Call of Portland will be the guest speaker.

Rites Read At Church

The First Baptist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lillian Gregg, daughter of Mrs. Annie Gregg of Nyssa, to Leo L. Baton, son of the Mason Bishops, on July 22. The 8:30 o'clock rites were performed by Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson. Mrs. C. E. Brickweel sang and Mrs. John Schmidt, jr. was the organist. Lighting the candles were Miss Mary Carolyn Davis and Miss Pearl Combs.

For her wedding the bride wore a white taffeta gown, designed with bustle and a train. The fingertip veil was arranged from a bandeau with orange blossoms at the sides. She carried a crescent bouquet of Vanda orchids, rapture roses and white sweet peas. Mrs. Howard Paschall of Mitchell was matron of honor for her aunt. She wore a sky blue taffeta dress. Miss Vera Jones was bridesmaid wearing a teal blue marquisette frock. Both carried crescent bouquets of Rapture roses and pink and white sweet peas. Flower girl was Judith Hansen.

Edwin Watkins of Hillsboro was best man and usher was Ray Guthrie. Victor Gregg, a nephew of the bride, Nyssa, was ring bearer.

The reception was at the church. Mrs. V. L. Loucks of Scio, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Ardith Combs poured and assisting were Miss Myrl Gramse and Miss Betty Holland.

After a trip to Lake Louise and Banff the couple will be at home in Salem until fall, when they will go to Portland to live. Mr. Baton is a civil engineer.

The auxiliary to the Patriarchs Militant Canton Capitol took in two new members at a meeting this week over which Mrs. L. A. Wood presided. The new members are Mrs. John Wiles of Salem and Mrs. Blanche Johnson of Portland. Guests came from out of the city. Mrs. Viola McLaughlin, Dayton, Mrs. Collette Miller and other past state officers. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Erickson, Mrs. Allura Change, Mrs. Victoria Stiffler and Mrs. Ada Pomeroy.

Hostesses to Honor Mrs. Knapp

Mrs. Ed Lewis and Mrs. Thomas Graham will be hostesses for an informal coffee Thursday morning at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. A. A. Larson, on Hulseley avenue. The affair is being arranged in compliment to Mrs. Grace Knapp, who recently moved here with Dr. Knapp and daughter, Barbara, from Des Moines, Iowa.

Guests have been invited to call between 10:30 and 12 o'clock to meet the newcomers. The hostesses will decorate with summer garden flowers.

Bidden by the hostesses to honor Mrs. Knapp are Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. Forrest Bodmer, Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Mrs. George Terry Hill, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. John R. Wood, Mrs. Fred Pickhard, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. James Schuler and Mrs. Charles E. Gray.

Nuptials Are Performed

Miss Mearl Elaine Ingledue and Jimmie Charles Lannigan were married at a quiet ceremony Saturday night in the parlor of the First Methodist church. The Rev. Carl Schulz officiated at the 8 o'clock nuptials before a setting of white and pink gladioluses flanked by white tapers, which were lighted by Claire Maxwell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white suit and white lace hat. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Alice Ingledue was her sister's honor attendant and wore a pink suit and corsage of gardenias. Charles Feskens was best man and ushers were Allan Olson and Warren Osborne.

A reception followed at which Mrs. Albert Koehler presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. C. McDonald cut the cake. Miss Pauline Ingledue passed the guest book.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem. Out-of-town guests here for the rites were Miss Lucille Figg of Smith Center, Kansas, Mrs. Frank Bohme of Roseburg, Mrs. O. D. Upp and Mrs. H. Hummel of Springfield.

Mrs. Roswell Beach and daughter, Sharon, of Portland are spending a few days in Salem with her mother, Mrs. R. H. Baldock.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Keith Morris

Mrs. Keith Morris was complimented at a shower Tuesday night when Mrs. Harvey A. Lovell, jr. entertained at the Mission street home of Mrs. H. A. Lovell, sr. After an informal evening a dessert supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Phillip Jackson. Arrangements of pastel summer flowers were used in decorating.

Honoring Mrs. Morris were Mrs. C. A. Rust, Mrs. Glenn Morris, Mrs. H. A. Lovell, sr., Mrs. Joseph Coonen, Mrs. Dale Pence, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Phillip Jackson, Mrs. James Erickson, Mrs. Herbert Aplington, Miss Barbara Hendrickson, Miss Barbara King of Portland, Miss Joan Blaxall, Miss Charlotte Alexander, Miss Patti Ray, Miss Patty Wilson.

Miss Geraldine Woodruff, Miss Lorraine Roidexer, Miss Patricia Burrell, Miss Marilyn Hill, Miss Joyce Smith, Miss Marianne Bonesteels, Miss Beverly Nelson, Miss Roberta Tussing, Miss Suzanne Huggins, Miss Wanda Hathaway, Miss Luella Campbell and the hostess.

Begonia Group To Picnic

The Salem branch of the American Begonia society will have a no host picnic supper, August 4, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Cazell, 1675 Market street, at 6:30 p.m.

A unique feature of the meeting will be the parade of flower hats which members have been asked to fashion from the flowers in their gardens. Those not wearing flower hats will be fined.

There will be a display of plants raised from seed. Slides will be shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McWain and daughter, Judith, of Portland are visiting in Salem this week at the home of his mother, Mrs. Homer McWain, and her brother-in-law and sister, the Ralph Nohlgrens.

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Wednesday, August 3, 1949 - 15

Sunbeam WAFFLE BAKER

Four golden, crispy-tender waffles in one baking! No confusion, waiting. No delay! The new Sunbeam is the only waffle baker with an 80-inch over-all baking area. Over twice the usual area! Yet, think of it, the Sunbeam occupies little more space on your table than ordinary waffle makers. All lustrous chrome plate and smartly styled.

Fully automatic, too, has a red Indicator light that tells when the grids are at the correct non-stick heat to put in batter, and also tells you when the waffle is done. Due to its special construction the batter can't overflow the grid. And you can set the Sunbeam for light, medium or dark waffles.
