Golfing Gang Swarms 'Tam'

CHICAGO, Aug. 4-4/P)-The all-American championship, first installment of George S. May's $66,200 golf carnival, tomorrow sends some 500 professionals and amateurs into a complex 10-day outing at Tam O'Shanter course. Half of the field in the all-American's concurrent pro-amateurwomen's open circus will play 18 holes tomorrow.

The other half shoves off Saturday. May proudly points out that no qualifying is necessary. But in effect there is quite a bit, the 72-hole medal play test will find a field of only 200. This is accomplished by the May code of eligibility which whittles the second rounders to 125 pros, 40 amateurs and 30 women.

In order to maintain player (especially) and speciator interest in his Fairways marathon, May has a $10,000-$7,000-$5,000 lure for win-place-and-show in the $35,200 "world" affair. Needles to say, the potential of $13,333 for winning both events has Tam swarming with every pro who had the $20 entry fee The $20,000 all - American which leading money winner Sammy Snead never has captured, is only a prelude to May's "world championship of golf." event, another 72-hole medal earfare to Chicago. Caps Come Tonight; Double Bill on Tap

By Al Lightner Some razor sharn relief pitching by Sidearmer Frank Logue of Victoria, and another capable mound job by Rookie Johnny Burak, the latter ruined by errors, helped give the Victorians a 5 to 4 win over the Salem Senators last night at Waters field. With it the once-downtrodden Athletics pocketed the series, four games to two, and finished off all play with the Salems for the season with 12 wins to 10 for the locals.

To say Logue saved the game for the A's is putting it mildly. He came on for a tiring Jim Propst in the sirth inning with two out and Salem's tying run on first base. All the bespectacled righthander did was retire 'he next 10 Senator batters in order. and the way he was wheeling he could have made it 110.

Rookie Burak, fresh off the Pacific U campus last spring, toiled well enough to win his first professional start. But lo, there were four errors in the very first inning, one of them his own on a bad throw, and two unearned runs came in. The three in the second frame were earned as Bob Day and Propst hit consecutive doubles and Gordon Johnson singled. Boston 5 Tilts Back

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 -(AP)- The St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers, separated by a halfgame in the National league pennant race, went on batting sprees today to keep in step. The pacesetting Cards drubbed the Boston Braves, 10-2, and the runner-up Dodgers mauled the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-3.

Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst featured the Cards' 17-hit blast against a trio of Boston flingers with three blows apiece. Ron Northey chipped in with a homer. The Cards never were headed as they solved Johnny Sain for three runs in the first inning.

Home runs by Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Tommy Brown were the big blows in the Dodgers' 14hit triumph over the Pirates. Only Jackie Robinson, the circuit's leading hitter, and Billy Cox failed to hit. Johnny Schmitz pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 1-0 three-hit victory over the New York Giants to halt an eigth-game Chicago losing streak and snap a six-game New York winning Skein. Andy Pafko homered off Larry Jansen in the second inning to account for the game's only run.

The Cincinnati Reds took both ends of a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-5 and 9-12 The Detroit Tigers shaded the New York Yankees, 3-2, in 11 innings with Pat Mullin breaking up the game with a single. Vic Raschi was the loser, to Freddie Hutchinson

The third place Boston Red Sox rounced the St. Louis Browns, 12-2, to pull to within five games of the Yanks. Joe Dobson stopped the Browns on six hits while his mates pounded out 14. Dom D Maggio collected two singles to stretch his consecutive game nitting streak to 81.
Cleveland bliced the New York

Yankees' American league lead to 21/2 games, a new low since mid-May, when they swept a twilightnight doubleheader from Washington. The Indians won their 12th of 13 extra inning games when they scored three in the 12th inning to edge the Senators, 6-3, in the twilight opener. Two triples and a pair of doubles did the trick Bobby Feller coasted home, 14-1, in the second game, with Dale Mitchell's five hits leading a 20hit attack.
