

Woodcock Hurt In Auto Wreck

Scrap With Savold On Doubtful List

DONCASTER, England, Aug. 4 (AP)—British heavyweight boxing champion Bruce Woodcock suffered no broken bones when he drove his truck off a road and into a tree early today.

X-ray pictures tonight showed Woodcock did not have a fractured shoulder as first believed although his Sept. 6 bout with Lee Savold of Englewood, N. J., for the British version of the world heavyweight title remains on the doubtful list.

The unconscious Woodcock was taken out of the truck he was driving earlier today after it slipped off the road on a curve, crashed through a fence and then into a tree. He was brought to the Doncaster Royal Infirmary. Hospital authorities said late today he would be kept there several days and doubted that he could start training next week in London tonight for Doncaster.

Promoter Jack Solomons, who announced that all 40,000 seats for the fight had been sold, left London tonight for Doncaster.

Williams Gets Stojack Match

It will be Al Williams, and not Tony Ross against Frank Stojack in next Tuesday night's main event at the armory. Matchmaker Elton Owen announced last night, Ross was winner via disqualification over Williams this week in the scrap that was to send its winner into a tilt with the former Washington State football All-American. But Owen figured Williams would make a tougher match for Stojack, so brushed Ross aside. Williams had Ross in a bad way when their brawl was halted this week.

The balance of Tuesday's card will be announced by the matchmaker later in the week. Matches on it, including the Stojack-Williams tilt, will be made with eliminations in mind. Owen is seeking a top man to send to Vancouver, B. C., to try to take the Coast junior heavy title belt from Jack McLoughlin. The Canadian took it from Stojack, and Frank has been hollering everything from robber to home town decision ever since.

Part of Funny Man Schacht's Ball Jaunt Not so Myrthful

By Al Lightner
Al Schacht, the famed baseball "Clown Prince" who has provided millions of laughs for an equal amount of the baseball minded multitude, including the 3146 Waters field customers Wednesday night, doesn't know if he likes the northwest or not. That is, the Canadian part of it.

the loss of the license hurt most of all. Just as it would happen, no sooner had the funny man hit the States again than hope—he was stopped by a cop for speeding. No, he didn't get a citation. After all, the man is the famed Al Schacht and, as 3146 citizens will attest, a pretty good talker.

As Schacht finished his tale of woe to a few of us in the park foyer Wednesday, New York Yankee Scout Joe Devine, one of his listeners spoke up. "How!" hawed Devine. "You should worry, Heck, I've lived six blocks from the bureau in California and haven't had my license renewed in 14 years."
