Valley Obituaries

Herbert Swarthout
ALBANY — Herbert Swarthout, 80, Tangent, died at the home of his son, Leigh Swarthout, August 3 following a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held from the Fisher Funeral home at 3 o'clock Friday. The Rev. Orville Mick will officiate. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Born Dec. 6, 1868, in Hardensburg, Ky., he spent the early years of his life in that state. Later he lived for several years in Illinois, and in 1907 came to Oregon. He lived in Medford until 1910 when he came to Albany. Since 1924 he had made his home in the Tangent community. He followed farming as an occupation.

At Louisville, Ky., on May 12, 1902, he married Mary DeMent. She died in 1915. Surviving are two children, the son Leigh of Tangent, and a daughter, Mrs. Vera Lane of Albany, and two grandchildren Walter and Marian Lane both of Albany.

Andrew Reidl
SUBLIMITY — Andrew Reidl, 78, died at the Salem Memorial hospital Wednesday. He arrived in this community from Kansas in 1935. Survived by his wife; four sons, Felix Reidl of Salem, Damon of Lakeport, Calif., Arthur and Clarence of Kansas; and one daughter Melinda Ball also of Kansas.

Funeral services will be held at the St. Boniface Catholic church in Sublimity Saturday at 9 o'clock. Rosary will be said at the church Friday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson
ALBANY — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Nelson, 85, will be held from St. Mary's Catholic church at 10 o'clock Friday morning, with the Rev. Anthony of Corvallis saying mass. Burial will be in Wilamette Memorial park. The Fortmiller-Fredericksen funeral directors are in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. Nelson died August 2 following an extended illness.

Mrs. Nelson was born at Kirby on May 19, 1864, the daughter of William and Catherine Savage. She had been a resident of Albany the past 32 years. Mrs. Nelson was a member of the Catholic church.

Surviving are the widower, Andrew Nelson, and seven children, Allen T. Clark of Portland, Mrs. Milton F. Hoyster and Ralph R. Nelson, both of Salem, and John Nelson, Walter Nelson, Harry A. Nelson and Mrs. J. E. Foster, all of Albany.

Jean McKee Harvey
JEFFERSON — Memorial services were held Monday from the Church of Christ for Jean McKee Harvey of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKee of Jefferson. Mrs. Harvey died in her sleep early Friday morning.

The Rev. Edward Terry of Portland, former Methodist pastor here, officiated. Mrs. Gilbert Looney sang, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Magart. Pallbearers were Howard Benninghoff, George Smith, Joseph E. Harvey, jr. and William Sutterlin of Portland. Burial was in the McKee family lot in the Jefferson cemetery.

Jean Frances McKee was the only child of Paul and Ada Miller-McKee, and was born near Jefferson August 29, 1916. Her girlhood was spent in this community where she graduated from high school in 1934. Following graduation, she attended Oregon State college for two years, majoring in business administration.

She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. On January 14, 1937, she was married to Charles Harvey, Portland attorney, and had since made her home there. At the time of her death she was employed in the offices of the Portland osteopathic hospital.

Surviving are the husband; two daughters, Elizabeth, 8 years old, and Kathryn, 5; and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKee.

John Davison
JEFFERSON — John Davison, 76, father of Everett Davison, died Sunday at his home near here following an illness of two months. Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Fisher funeral home at Albany. Burial was in the Jefferson cemetery. Born May 8, 1873, in Iowa, he lived in Missouri and Oklahoma before coming to Oregon in 1927. He was married to Myrtle Worden at Fairview, Okla., Oct. 3, 1903. She survives as do four children, Vesta Severance, Cherryville, Ore.; Lester Davison, Applegate, Ore.; Everett Davison, Jefferson, and Cecil Davison, Scio. Also surviving are a brother, three half-brothers, half-sister, 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Grover Cleveland Mobley
SWEET HOME — Funeral services will be held at the Howe-Huston chapel here Friday at 2 p.m., conducted by the Rev. L. Ellwell, for Grover Cleveland Mobley, 66, who died Tuesday. Interment will be made in the IOOF cemetery at Lebanon. He was born in Coffeeville, Kan., March 26, 1883 and had lived in Oregon for the past 32 years. He operated a second hand store on highway 20 near Lebanon.

Surviving are the widow; a son B. D. Mobley, Lebanon; two brothers, William, White Salmon, Wash., and Ray Mobley of Monterey, Calif., and three grandchildren.

Interment was in the Canby cemetery.

William F. Kyriss
SWEET HOME — Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Howe-Huston Funeral home here, conducted by the Rev. W. Munger, pastor of the Assembly of God church, for William F. Kyriss, 79, who died Sunday night in a Eugene hospital following a short illness.

Surviving are three sons, William, Clarence and Fred Kyriss, and a daughter, Anna Kyriss, all of Sweet Home; another daughter, Mrs. Ray Bailey, Parkdale, Ore.; two brothers, Franz and Adolph, living in Creighton, Neb., and a sister, Mrs. Caroline Haskins, Escondado, Calif.
