Evangelist Will Display Magic

The Rev. Joseph Kemp, Litt.D. "The Magical Evangelist," will speak and show his magic at the p.m. Sunday service of the First Baptist church. Dr. Lloyd Anderson, pastor of the church, will continue his series on the parables, speaking on "The Parable of the Hidden Treasure." Wednesday evening a farewell reception in honor of Miss Evelyn Varney will be held immediately following the regular Wednesday night service. Miss Varney will sail August 26 for Japan where she will work under the Conservative Baptist foreign missionary society. The First Baptist church of Salem will assist in her support.

Mill City Group Wins Banner

MILL CITY — Several local members of the C. E. from the Christian church here attended the Willamette Union C. E. picnic Sunday in Corvallis. They were Grace Pyle, Pat Cree, Anna Mae and Donna Nelson and Tom and Bob Shelton. Pat Cree and Anna Mae Nelson served on the hostess committee for the picnic, and Miss Nelson and Bob Shelton were appointed to the nominating committee. The Mill City group won the banner for coming the farthest distance from home to the picnic.

Seattle Woman to Help Conduct Four Services in Salem

Mrs. Toni Van Ornum, former Seattle group leader, will assist the Rev. Olive Stevens in conducting services of the Institute of Religious Science and Philosophy beginning Sunday at the Salem Woman's club. Mrs. Van Ornum last spoke in Salem Dec. 28, 1948, when she stopped here while traveling from Seattle to the Religious Science conference in Los Angeles where she received her training.

Salem Parishers Visit Clackamas

Salem members are taking part in the two-weeks state camp meeting of the Church of God at Clackamas, where the Rev. O. W. Clemens of Salem will preach this afternoon and conduct a communion Tuesday. The local Church of God's ladies' missionary group will have charge of a tea during the camp meeting which is already in progress. Because of the camp meeting, the local church's regular church services on Sunday are discontinued for this Sunday and next, but Sunday school will be held as usual at 9:45 a.m. Sundays.

Veteran of Red Revolution to Speak Sunday

INDEPENDENCE — The Rev. Verne Chapman arrived Wednesday from Kansas to assume duties as the newly-appointed pastor of the First Methodist church. Chapman replaces the Rev. Cary O. Heath, pastor of the church about two and one-half years, who resigned Dec. 1, 1948, due to ill health. Burton E. Berger, a senior at Oregon State college, served as interim pastor until his graduation. Since June the pulpit has been filled by substitutes. Chapman, who had requested an appointment on the Pacific coast, was accompanied from Kansas by his family, Mrs. Chapman and two daughters. His daughters will attend Independence high school. The family will reside in the parsonage. The American-European Bethel mission, of which he is a member, now is serving the Jewish people in several European countries and in Palestine. Slides of Hitler's atrocities against the Jewish people will be shown at the meeting.
