Then too, (and much too often to suit us) once in awhile some cussable soul gets laggish in filing the scores on the Associated Press wire (they do this in the DST cities now and then also), and we can't do a thing but rave, rant and curse everything including those deadheads, our deadline and the dopes who are responsible for the hour difference in time. The only salvation we have, until DST is tossed out, is the wee box on page one every night. The bare scores of all games are contained

Jim Olsen, sore back and all, tackled the Caps in the opener. But Jim's long layoff, plus his allment couldn't stand up under the barrage and he was succeeded in turn by Foster, Bill Osborn and Stu Fredericks. Sinovic had two hits, both bloops, in the first game and two runs batted in. The big gun was Sheely who not only spanked his four-run homer, but three other hits as well to pocket six RBI's in all for the game. Vancouver cracked out 17 bingles in the opener to give Long Bob Costello all the support he needed.
