

Miss Thomas John Macy Married

Joan Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thomas, Port Orford, became the bride of John A. Macy, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Macy, Monmouth, at the St. Christophers chapel, Port Orford on August 8, at an 8 o'clock ceremony. Bishop Thomas Jenkins officiated.

Soloist was Michael Carolan who was accompanied by Mrs. Bernal Forty, Edward Sargent and Kenny Forty lighted the tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white eyelet embroidery and organza dress with a fingertip illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of gardenias, yellow rose buds and bovardia.

Mrs. Alan Corbin was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a yellow printed organza and carried a cascade bouquet of rose buds, stephanotis and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Anne Sweet, Bandon, and Miss Marjorie Andresen, Camas, Wash. Their gowns were blue print organza, with blue sashes and they carried nosegays of yellow rose-hips, stephanotis and pink carnations. Anne Wilson, niece of the groom was flower girl and Danny Killian, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

Robert Macy acted as best man, and Alan Corbin and Gordon Kunkle acted as the groomsmen.

Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Macy wore summer prints.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with Mrs. R. A. Wilson, sister of the groom cutting the cake and Mrs. N. B. Marsh and Miss Joan Morgan pouring, assisted by Mrs. Donald Sweet, Miss Joyce Reeves, Mrs. John Mayne, Miss Ginny Atkinson, Miss Shirley McKenzie, Miss Mary Lou Morris, Miss Eloise Anderson and Miss Luellen Flake.

The bride chose for her wedding trip a white suit with navy accessories. After a trip to southern California they will make their home at Dallas where Mr. Macy will be a coach.

Opera Role for Miss Cummings

Lucile Cummings, mezzo-soprano who began her musical career in Salem, is to be under contract with the City Center Opera company of New York. A contract, offered when the manager heard her on a nationwide broadcast on The Telephone hour a few weeks ago, was awaiting her when she arrived here for a short vacation with her parents.

After a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cummings, Miss Cummings will return to New York to begin work on the role of Amneris in "Aida" which will open in October.

Singing at Radio City Music Hall in New York for several years, Miss Cummings began her musical studies in Salem. A pianist, in her high school days she served as an accompanist for the voice students of Lena Belle Tartar, who was Miss Cummings' first voice teacher.

From Salem Miss Cummings went to Portland and then to San Francisco and Los Angeles, doing both radio and concert work in those cities, she also made appearances with symphony orchestras in all three of the cities. She left for New York to study six years ago and in 1944 was one of the two finalists in the Metropolitan Auditions of the air.
