Wednesday Ball Meeting Very Important

Apparently ducking the possibility that they'll be raked over the coals, Portland officials have declined the invitation to attend the mass meeting Wednesday night at the chamber of commerce.

The way the thing stacks up now, if enough enthusiasts show up to warrant it, a committee must be named to meet with Mulligan, if possible, to uncover those necessary facts.

Mootrys Play 'Star' Squad

The City Softball League champion Mootry Pharmacists will wade into battle again Monday night at Leslie, this time against an all-star team made up of the better players on the other seven clubs that participated in the 1949 pennant race.

A preliminary tilt at 7:30 will pit the 1-2 clubs of the Industrial circuit, the champion Clear Lakers and the runner-up Maple Dairymen.

Although the lineup for the All-Stars has not been named, it is likely that most of its players will be taken from the Paper Makers and Golden Phoenix teams which finished second and third in the City race.

Mootry's first engagement in the state tournament at Eugene is due at 4 p.m., August 25 against Bend.

Brems, Chiefs Nab Decisions

The Bremerton Bluejackets, helped by the "fireman" work of John Marshall in the ninth inning, chalked up a 4-3 victory over the Western International league leading Yakima Bears last night.

Three singles off Larry Powell gave the Brems their margin in the sixth inning. Bob Williams homered for the Yakimas.

Wenatchee's Chiefs blanked the Victoria Athletics, 7-0, as Merle Frick gave seven scattered hits. Frick was in trouble several times but had his stuff in the clutch.

Clyde Haskell whacked two singles and a double for the winners. (Vancouver-Spokane result on page one).

Ferrier Leads 'Rapids' Meet

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 20-(AP)—Big Jim Ferrier fired a red-hot 65 in seven under par to take a four-stroke lead at the three-quarter mark in the 72-hole Grand Rapids open golf tournament today.

The genial San Franciscan was tied with E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Lloyd Mangrum at 133 when he teed off for his third round today.

But he took charge of things in a hurry. Ferrier racked up an eagle, five birdies and 12 pars on his round as he had a 33-35 for a 198 total. (The score tied the Cascade Hills country club record. Mangrum carded a 35-34-69 for 202 and second place, while Harrison had 35-35-70 for 203 and the No. 3 spot.)

Ferrier, who is tiring of his role as runner-up on the pro golf circuit, made it plain today that he was out for the $2,600 first prize money.

Greco, Barr Win Contests

Doubleheader Tonight Fortier Beats Pete;

By Al Lightner
Statesman Sports Editor
Rousing Richard Greco, 215 pounds of pain for the Salem Senators just about every time he comes to town, enacted his role to near-perfection again last night at Waters field by being the major domo of most of the events taking place in the second game of the Tacoma-Salem series.

The Tigers won the game, 2-1, in a seldom-seen hurling battle between Lefty Ray Fortier of the enemy and Gene Peterson. Fortier aimed most of his thanks to Greco following the fray.

Usually Rousing Richard uses his big hit wand to put defense in the towers. Last night he used that weapon and a bit of deftly befitting Tris Speaker to escort the last-placers to their victory.

The battle was a dandy until the sixth inning. Both Peterson and Fortier had their top assortments of stuff working well.

Then with two outs Greco busted into a low, sideward curve pitch from Pete and bounced it against the right-center wall for a triple.

Greco wasn't long on third base, for Eddie Barr followed up by dropping a single into center to score the high outfielder with the first run of the game.

A few innings earlier, before the game settled into the hoedue it was, Greco personally killed off a Salem surge that would have been good for at least one run and possibly two. It was in the second inning and both Bob Snyder and Claude Buckley were on the sacks as a result of singles.

Bill Burgher advanced them with a sacrifice bunt and Linfield Pete himself poked the twisting shot into right field that brought on one of the top fielding gems of the season here.

The ball wasn't well hit, but it was headed for safe territory along the right field foul line. Greco looked as if he couldn't get to it in a week, but lo, with a final desperate lunge after a long skipper, he managed to bail, regained his balance and flipped it into the infield to execute a double play and wipe out the rally.

Buckley had lit out for home on the hit and was doubled at second base easily.

This was Salem's only major threat off the pert stopper until the ninth inning. By then the count was 2-0 for Tacoma, another run having scored in the eighth on Art Pennington's error on a bad throw, a walk to Greco, an infield hit by Barr and a line fly to right, with the bases loaded.

But Bill Ferrier fired the ball, who was safe on the error, tagged up and scored after Buckley took down Sheets' liner.

Salem's only run belonged to Manager Bill Beard. Fortier opened the Salem ninth by walking Snyder for the third successive time. He fanned Buckley but Burgher singled and Fortier ended Snyder to second. Beard then batted for Gene Peterson and spanked a single to center, scoring Snyder.

The unusually large crowd stomped hard for a continuation of the rally, but Wayne Peterson could do no more than bloop a soft liner to Al Spaeter at second who immediately turned it into a game-ending double play by tossing to Al Cohen at short who doubled Burgher.

Greco's bid to be the game's sultan was shared by three Tiger double plays, all of them hauling Fortier out of messes. . . . Salem had nine hits, three by new First-sacker, Dick Bartle, and Tacoma had eight, two apiece for Joe Kanev and Barr. . . . Fortier whiffed 10 in all for one of the better key excursions of the season here. Pete fanned six and hurled well enough to win any man's game. Just as it would happen in the hard-trying McMinnville last night, Fortier when the lefthander was at his best.

Series ending doubleheader tonight at 6 o'clock will find Jim Olsen and Cal McIvry for the Salems against Don Carter and Bob Kerrigan of the Tigers. . . . Now up 2-0 in the series the visitors seem headed for another sweep, just as they did the last time in town.

In the pregame contests it was all Tacoma also. Big Greco in his 10 swings lofted three from the park and hit the fence once for seven points. One of his blows went clear over the right hand corner of the Bishop ad atop the scoreboard, a terrific thing. Another cleared left-center with yards to spare and the third went over right-center. Wasley lammed one out, but it was a foul by a few feet, so Greco won the tilt. . . . In the romps around the sacks against time Eddie Barr did it in a terrific 13.8 seconds. Bill Burgher, hampered by a stumble as he rounded a first base screen in 15 second flat. . . . The crowd of 1463, exceedingly on the huge side as recent crowds have gone, no doubt turned out to watch the pregame clashes mostly. . . .
