Tigers Sweep 7-5, 7-2 Tilts

Salems Open Series In Spokane Tonight

By Al Lightner

Statesman Sports Editor "Tis a good thing for the Yakima Bears that Tacoma's Tigers don't play all their games in Waters field. Were it thus arranged this season, Tacoma and not Yakima would be leading the Western International league derby. Said Tigers, extending their whammy over the now thoroughly sunken Senators, last night mopped up both ends of the doubleheader by scores of 7-5 and 7-2, therein sweeping the four-game series and making it eight straight times Manager Bob Johnson's crew dumped the Townies here at

Not at all bad for a last place club, and certainly not at all good for one that up until Tacoma came in Friday night looked as if it might be well on the way toward fifth place in the standings. The four-game snatch pulled Salem down to within a scant 21/2 games of the dungeon and an even 20 games below the .500 mark.

The club took off for Spokane right after last night's thrashing and tonight open a short stand with the Indians. Back they come Thursday night to take on Weratchee and Yakima in the fine home series of the season.

All through playing Tacoma for the season, Salem managed nine victories to 13 losses with the Tiges. Oddly enough, the Solons won six games to Tacoma's five in the latter's home park. The final count was 3-won, 8-lost here at

About the only thing the Senators managed to accomplish in the duet of last night was four double plays and the formula for keeping Rousing Richard Greco's big bat silenced. Greco got but one hit, an infield scratcher. On five of his other jaunts to the dish he was walked, bringing the total wound up hitting an even .500 with four hits in eight official frame in the opener. Big Jim Markets, spotted the Tiges a 5-0 lead in the mates bit back at Lefty Bob Kerrigan for two runs in the third and three in the fourth to tie it up. It stayed that way until the eighth when Tacoma started out on Barr's single with one out. An ensuing error and a pinch single by Mgr. Johnson produced one run, and then it was another error and a fielder's choice for the other tally and the ball game.

The Senators could do little with Kerrigan in all but the third and fourth, when seven hits produced the five Salem runs. Altogether there were nine hits off Kerrigan and 10 off Olie. After Jim's bad start in the first - four hits and two walks here - he hurled four-hit ball until the fatal eighth.

McIrvin suffered practically the same fate, a bad first inning. The Tiges got to him for three runs on four hits and a walk to start out with, and then added loners in the fifth and sixth, and a brace in the

Meanwhile there was no runproducing for the likeable lefty. The locals couldn't solve Righthander Don Carter's serves worth a hoot when it was necessary for a hit to produce a run. There were potential tallies aboard in five of the first eight innings, but either a sharp fielding play by the enemy, particularly Barr in center field, or a pop-up would leave

It was in the bottom of the ninth that Salem finally scored off Carter. With one out Bill Burgher singled and Orrin Snyder hit a long double to center. In came Claude Buckley as a pinchhitter with two out and he banged a single to left for both runs. Tacoma fielding gems pulled Kerrigan out of bad spots in the

The zero hour is close at hand. For those who greeted with righteous wrath the word that our town might lose its ball club, for those who howled and ranted about "them D- Beavers" the opportunity looms to do something about it. Trouble is lots of people will talk but few will act. Anyhow, one and all who like their baseball and also those wanting a progressive Salem should make it a "must" to be out in force and full of supercharged enthusiasm at the Wednesday eve meeting at the chamber of commerce. That session is to be the opening salvo in a move to save the Senators for Salem.

Down to Brass Tacks

Aftir all the ominous talk, after this rumor and that, the coming meeting will at long last get the matter down where it can be fully scrutinized. The principals in the drama won't all be there — meaning Beyo Boss Bill Mulligan — but it'il be a ripe time to get the ball rolling toward local ownership. And the shape and form that local ownership would take now leans to the corporation—the stock-sell-ing—setup. Wednesday night's the time to lay the roots for such a project. Let the drums beat loudly, let the doubting Thomas-es—and the Beavers—know that Salem is determined to hang on to its ball club . . . You could call the looming meeting a life and death affair . . .

Girod Rivalry

One of the best rivairies in local softball circles outside of the recent Mootry's-Papermakers City league pennant fight, has been in the lower-level Industrial loop whenever the Champ-ion Clear Lakes and the runner-up Maple Dairys took the field against one another. You see, it involves a couple of brothers from a well known baseball family. Ted Girod manages the Clear Lakers and brother Henry guides the Dairy's—and thus far each club boasts a win over the other. So Monday night's 7:30 mix between the two crews will have the ingredients of a "natural," even though the "Lakes" have even though the "Lakes" have already sewed up the fogs...

Monday night's softball feature, of course, will be the Mootry-All-Star duel. It'll be sort of a send-off for the Druggists as they get ready for the state tourney at Eugene next week. And if they don't have a bad night and are on the receiving end of a few breaks, said Mootrys might do all right in the tourney... Ace Pish, the local barber, should never again be a disgusted gent of two months . . .

There's always room at the top in sportdom and particularly so when you look at the toll crackups are taking of the king-pins of late. Ben Hogan was knocked out of action and a few days ago Joe Wilman, one of the land's best bowlers, was seriously hurt in a wreck which killed his wife.

JOE WILMAN

It's very doubtful if Hogan over gets back to his peak and it's strictly conjecture whether Wilman will return to his "grove". An injury which would be slight for someone else can be truly tragic to the athlete, for to him coordination is everything . . .

Tracks Losing But-The rate at which horse tracks over the country are losing dough should indicate that there won't be any new parl-mutuel "take record set at the coming State Fair meet. But don't be too sure. When you have a one-week stand like the Lone Oak go, the novelty alone plus a few savings kept away from the bill collectors, means plenty of business at the mutuel windows . . . Lots of gents who never venture to the big runs like the Portland Meadows, lay out bets at the fair with a certain easing of conscience for they know they've only six days in which to risk the family's piggie bank contents . . .
