

Grade, High Schools Ready At Aumsville

AUMSVILLE, Aug. 26 (Special)—Teacher appointments have been made for Aumsville elementary and high schools, both of which will open September 12, school officials reported today. Teachers in the Aumsville unit of the new Cascade union high school include Roy E. Hough, principal; Ruth Riches, commercial; Milton Gralap, mathematics; Laura Bates, social science; Blousson Woods, English; John Seim, boys physical education and coaching; Mary Seim, girls physical education; Elbert Derry, science and Walter Krause, music. Elementary school teachers include Roy E. Hough, superintendent; Roy Girod, principal and 8th grade; Cleora Parks, 7th grade; Mary Sehon, 6th; Gertrude Soyval, 5th; Texia Kennon, 4th; Grace Richards, 3rd; Margaret Feller, 2nd, and Mammie Bost-rack, 1st. The building for the two schools has recently been redecorated and new fixtures have been installed, according to Hough.

Control Tower Sees Airport Day Preview

Private planes participating in Salem's aviation day handicap race this Sunday will look like the above to control tower operators at McNary field. Many events and displays, including special crop dusting and spraying techniques demonstration of interest to farmers, will be presented at the afternoon show. Private planes will be on display as well as several different military aircraft. In photo above are Stanley Dilatash, left, CAA tower director, and at right Jim Miller, tower operator, while the plane is being piloted by John Hughes of the Salem Air Service. (Statesman photo.)

Dallas Man to Be Maneuver Empire

DALLAS, Aug. 25 (Special)—A Dallas man, Capt. Dick Harmon, has been selected as one of two Oregon men to serve as an umpire in the army-navy maneuvers in Hawaii this fall. Capt. Harmon, commander of the Dallas heavy tank company, Oregon National Guard, is a World War II veteran with active service in the South Pacific.

His assignment in the 100-day Hawaiian maneuvers will be made after he reports to Ft. Lewis August 29. Lt. Col. Robert L. Irving, Roseburg, is the other Oregon man selected to serve as an umpire. Capt. Harmon's wife and daughter plan to visit the islands during a part of his tour of duty there.

Private Fliers Offer 200 Hours Free Flight at Airport Sunday

Eight free courtesy flights by commercial airlines and more than 200 hours of free flights by private fliers are scheduled in largest plans for Salem's aviation day, entirely free to the public, Sunday at McNary field.

West Coast airlines Friday announced a DC-3 airliner, operating from the airport's west side where most of the show will be held, will give four one-hour courtesy flights from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. To Give Free Flights

United airlines earlier had told airport officials a DC-4 airliner would give four free flights over the Detroit damsite area beginning at 2 p.m. About 40 names for the fourth flight will be drawn at 3 p.m. from a list of persons registering at the airport. A new featured air race was announced Friday between Ace Demers of Ace's Flying Service in Salem, flying a P-40, and Dick Martin, professional acrobatic pilot from Hillsboro, flying a P-38. The competition will be a part of the annual Brooks handicap.

To Lead Mass Flight Demers will lead a group of 30 fliers in a mass flight demonstration over the city this afternoon as a preliminary feature to Sunday's program.

Aviation day, expected to attract 200-250 planes from every Oregon point, is free to the public, including parking space, and will include aircraft dealer displays, various races, safety demonstrations and courtesy flights. The program is sponsored by local commercial operators and Salem's company B of the national guard.

St. Mary's Open Sept. 12

MT. ANGEL, Aug. 26 (Special)—St. Mary's grade school will open classes Monday morning, September 12, with registration on the previous Friday, September 9, it was decided at a school board meeting last night.

Added to last year's teaching staff will be Eymard Berning, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berning of Mt. Angel, and Martin Reynolds of Chilliwack, B.C., Canada, whose grandparents were pioneer settlers of Mt. Angel.

Reynolds will be a regular classroom teacher and Berning will handle the athletic program for the seventh and eighth grade boys and will act as part-time relief teacher for the eighth grade for the principal, Miss Theresa Dehler. Three extra rooms being added to the school building will not be ready for the opening of school but the board hopes to have them ready for occupancy by Thanksgiving.
