(Editor's note: The U.S. Circuit court of appeals in San Francisco on Friday, in upholding a lower court decision that U.S. citizenship should be restored to three Japanese-American women, issued a scathing indictment of the war-time "imprisonment" of coastal residents of Japanese ancestry. Thousands were kept in war relocation centers, including the one at Tule Lake, Calif., for more than two years. It was at one of these camps that the three women renounced their U.S. citizenship. The circuit court said it was due to "mental fear." Spending some time at the Tule Lake camp in 1943, under special assignment from The Associated Press, was Wendell Webb, now managing editor of The Statesman. He recounts those days in the following story.) the following story.)

New Facade for Metropolitan Store

A modern new front soon will decorate the Metropolitan store, 136 N. Commercial st. Manager George Burt said Saturday.

The new facade will be entirely of aluminum and glass, and a new marquee will be constructed of aluminum. Construction is scheduled to start in the near future, said Burt. Burt only recently became manager here after coming from southern California. Prior to World War II he was employed by S. H. Kress and Co. and rose to the managership of the Eureka. Calif., store. He spent nearly four years in the army air force and since his discharge has managed a variety store in California.

His Letter of Introduction !

A CADILLAC doesn't tell who you are-but it speaks most eloquently of what you are!

It says, as plainly as if it spoke the words, that you're a man or a woman of discriminating taste; that you're a person of achievement in your own world of affairs; and that you have the utmost consideration for the safety and comfort of those who ride with you.

In business, in finance, and in the professionsthe owners of Cadillacs stand apart. The Cadillac crest has become a mark of achievement in every community and in every noteworthy walk of life.

This, of course, is an extra value that comes to the owner of a Cadillac car . . . a pleasing addition to the wonderful performance, the matchless comfort, and the unbelievable endurance which are inherent in every car that carries the Cadillac name.

If you would like to know what a pleasure it is to "drive your letter of introduction"-come in at any time for a ride that's a revelation.
