Varied Events On Social Agenda

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The social calendar is filled with a number of varied events this week including dinners, teas and informal at homes.

Mr. Eyre to Be Honored

For Wednesday is the at home for which Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson will be hosts at their Fairmount Hill residence in compliment to her father, David W. Eyre, who is completing his 45th year of banking that day. The hosts have invited a group of Mr. Eyre's banking friends and members of his banking committee to call between 4:30 and 7 o'clock.

A Garden Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith were hosts for a dinner party Monday night in the garden of their North Summer street home for a group of their friends. Covers were placed for fourteen at a long table arranged by the creek. Cards were in play during the evening.

Tea For Mrs. Reid

Mrs. Lyle Rains and Mrs. John Van Santen will be hostesses for an informal tea Wednesday afternoon at the former's home on Jefferson street for the pleasure of Mrs. Cora Reid, formerly of Salem, who is visiting here this week. Mrs. Reid has just returned from Panama, where she has been with her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. John Bagley, and will again join them in Ohio, where he is now stationed with the army. While in Salem Mrs. Reid was with the Marion county school superintendent's office.

The hostesses are inviting through the press all of Mrs. Reid's friends to call during the afternoon between 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

Nuptials Are Performed

The South Salem Friends church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Koellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Koellman, and Marvin Greenlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Greenlee, on Sunday, August 14. The Rev. Oscar N. Brown officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

White and pale pink gladioluses decorated the altar and ivy entwined the tall candelabras. Lighting the tapers were Miss Betty Brown and Miss Betty McMillan, who wore identical gowns of pink. Soloist was Mrs. Gerald Jaffee, accompanied by William F. Fawk. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, fashioned with sweetheart neckline adorned with seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioluses centered with pink rosebuds.

Miss Lynne Standley was the honor attendant and her gown was yellow. She carried an arm bouquet of orchid gladioluses. The bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Billings in an aqua gown, with which she carried yellow gladioluses and Mrs. Frank Griffin, who wore a rose colored gown, carried cameo colored gladioluses.

Sgt. Dale Greenlee, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and seating the guests were Marvin R. Sagnotty, the groom's cousin, and Max R. Sunderland.

Mrs. Koellman chose for her daughter's wedding a pale green dress with white accessories and Mrs. Greenlee wore an ice blue dress with navy and white accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias.

At the reception Mrs. John Anderson, the bride's aunt from McKenna, Wash., and Mrs. Gerald Jaffee, cut the cake. Mrs. Evelyn Davis and Mrs. Melvin Pavlik poured. Miss Betty Pearson passed the guest book.

The bride chose a pink suit with navy and white accessories for her wedding trip and on their return will reside at 1440 Ferry st., Salem.

St. Johns Lutheran church Guild will meet at the parish house Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Hostesses will be Mrs. William Fischer, Mrs. H. W. Gross, Mrs. John Gettman and Mrs. John Fox.

High Award For Violinist

Larry Maves, Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Maves of Eugene, formerly of Salem, returned to Eugene last week from Interlochen, Mich., after studying and playing music for two months at Michigan's National Music Camp. Larry, a 16-year-old violinist, brought back the highest award a student can attain at Interlochen, "Best Musician for High School Boys," and a full tuition scholarship for 1950 at the Music Camp. The honor was bestowed on him last Sunday by world-famed Dr. Joseph Edgar Maddy, who helped establish the music festival in 1928.

Larry played his violin before a group of the country's leading musicians and scholars at Interlochen and competed with 1500 select students from 48 states and five nations. Not only is the award the highest to be attained at Interlochen, but it is one of the highest awards which can be granted to any high school music student in America.

The award came after Larry played Mozart's "Violin Concerto in A Major First Movement", with concerto orchestra accompaniment, under Ottokar Cadek, famed violin professor at the University of Alabama. The award was based on outstanding musicianship, character and "campmanship."

Larry's father is manager of collections department of Eugene's U. S. National Bank, a similar position which he held in Salem while at Ladd and Bush. Larry has been training for seven years, three of which were under George Boughton, assistant professor of music at the University of Oregon. He has served as president of the Eugene high school orchestra and concertmaster for the Junior Symphony during 1949.

A Delegate

Jack Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Slater, will entrain Wednesday for Chicago, Washington, D. C., New York and Boston to attend the 37th biennial grand convocation of Kappa Sigma fraternity at New Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass., from September 6 to 10. Mr. Slater is a delegate of Gamma Sigma chapter of Kappa Sigma at Oregon State college, of which he is president. He will be a senior on the campus this fall. Enroute home the Salem man will come by way of New Orleans and Los Angeles, planning to be away three weeks.

Miss Roth Engaged

Adding her name to the list of brides-elect is Miss Shirley Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roth, whose betrothal to W. Edgar Natziger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Natziger, all of Salem, has been announced. No wedding date has been set.

Miss Roth is a graduate of Silvertown high school and is employed at the Ladd and Bush branch, United States National bank. Her fiancé is a graduate of Salem high school and is now engaged in farming at Central Howell.

Couple to Live in Salem

Salem will be the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgibbon (Molly Blair), who were married on August 26 in Portland at St. Agatha Catholic church. The bride, who has many friends in Salem, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry C. Blair of Portland, and her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Fitzgibbon, all of Portland.

Mr. Fitzgibbon will enter the Willamette university law school this fall. The newlyweds have already secured an apartment here and will be at home in Salem after September 10. The Blairs have made many Salem friends at Neskevin, where they have a summer home.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white satin made with long sleeves and a full train. Her illusion fingertip veil was arranged in a lace Juliet cap with pearls and her flowers were gardenias and stephanotis in a cascade bouquet. Mrs. George Smith, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. She was gowned in apple green marquisette and wore a Leghorn picture hat with ribbon trim in dark green. She carried varicolored begonias.

John H. Fitzgibbon, jr. was best man for his brother, Edward S. Pierre, Donald Smith, Herald White, Frederick Kingery and Thomas Bailey were ushers.

The Town club was the scene of the wedding reception and among those pouring was Mrs. Lowell Kern of Portland, formerly of Salem.

Mrs. Karl T. Newbry and daughter, Shirlee, have returned from an extended stay at their summer home at Ashland. Miss Newbry will be among those entering Oregon State college this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Goodman (Phyllis Freres) are leaving this week for Canby to make their home, where he will be athletic coach at the high school. The couple's marriage took place here in July.

Brides-elect Honored at Showers

Entertaining centers around the many late summer and early fall brides-elect.

Mrs. Howard B. Jenks was hostess for a dessert luncheon on Saturday afternoon at her country home near Tangent for the pleasure of Miss Carol and Miss June Young, who will be married at a double wedding on Saturday night at the First Presbyterian church.

A kitchen shower feted the brides-elect and guests were seated at small tables with kitchen gadgets as favors. The afternoon was spent in hemming dish towels for the honor guests and each guest brought the brides-to-be their favorite recipes.

Honoring Miss Carol and Miss June Young were their mother, Mrs. Hubbell A. Young, and Mrs. Pierce Jenks, Mrs. Jean Murry, Miss Carolyn Jenks, Mrs. L. B. Luper, all of Tangent, all of Tangent, Mrs. Harold Wattenpaugh of Corvallis, Mrs. Walter Kropp, Mrs. John Summers, Mrs. Seth French, Mrs. C. R. Ashton, Mrs. Roy Nutting, Mrs. Lloyd Powell, Miss Flo Nutting, Mrs. A. Lee, Mrs. Dorothy Lee Miller, all of Albany, and the hostess.

Miss Virginia Beall will be hostess Wednesday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beall, for a kitchen shower honoring Miss Beverly Wikstrom, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Mentzer will be the event of September 24 at the First Presbyterian church.

Honoring Miss Wikstrom will be Miss Shirley Clark, Miss LaVelle du Buy, Miss Marilyn Linsler, Miss Marilyn Reay, Miss Marlene DeWitt, Miss Alice Louise Ohling, Miss Dione Stoodly, Miss Betty Bangert, Miss Jeanette Martin, Miss Evelyn Bishop, Miss Virginia Currier, Miss Phyllis Cutler, Miss Barbara Owens, Miss JoAnn DeWitt, Miss Una Mae Grayless, Miss Thais Crandall, Miss Margy Acton, Miss Beverly Fox, and the hostess.

Weekend visitors in Salem at the home of Judge and Mrs. Harry Belt were their daughter, Barbara, of Portland and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex DeSchweinitz and sons, Allan and George, of St. Helens.

To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kaser go congratulations on the birth of an eight pound daughter, Susan Margaret, on August 24 at the Salem General hospital. The little girl has an older sister, Karen Rae and her grandmothers are Mrs. Alice Kaser of Portland and Mrs. Ilda Canoy of Salem.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Voigt returned Sunday night from a motor trip to Canada, stopping at Jasper National park, Lake Louise, Banff and Glacier National park.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks were at Seal Rocks over the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise at their beach home.

Au Revoir Party at Arnesons

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Arneson and Mr. and Mrs. Nels Tønning were hosts for an au revoir party Saturday night at the former's residence on South Cottage street in compliment to Miss Sylvia Kjeldstad of Oslo, Norway. Miss Kjeldstad, who accompanied the Arnesons home from Norway a year ago, leaves next week for Seattle, where she will study languages at the University of Washington for the ensuing three years.

The evening was spent informally with music and dancing, after which the hosts served a smorgasbord supper. The group feted the honor guest with a travel shower. The folk dancing group of Sons of Norway presented a group of numbers in honor of Miss Kjeldstad. Sixty-five friends of the honor guest attended the affair.
