YM Planning Convention to Start Saturday

Planning to meet the needs of all ages and all interest will occupy more than 50 persons from Salem YMCA this Saturday and Sunday at the annual fall planning conference at Camp Silver Creek.

The meetings by committees will include physical department, young adult and Older Boys' conference on Saturday night, along with discussion of church league basketball and a possible volleyball league. Aiding with OBC planning will be Merlin Schulze, Salem, president of the state-wide group.

Membership and building expansion committees will meet Sunday morning, followed by a general session in the afternoon for reports and a talk by James Maxwell, northwest area secretary.

Plans for this year's membership policy, purposes and program for high school boys' Hi-Y clubs will occupy the three clubs' officers and adult leaders Sunday. First club meeting is set for September 14, just after school opens.

The conference will close Sunday evening. A vesper service is set for 7 p.m., with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin of First Presbyterian church as speaker. Ardo Tarem, Estonian native recently added to the YM staff, will show films of displaced persons camps in Germany, world YM council meetings and Olympic games, as a world service program.

Facts About Dairy Queen

"Dairy Queen," served from the freezer, is a new semi-hard confection, a wholesome, nutritious product made of fresh whole milk and milk solids. A frozen desert that provides more protein and calcium with less fat, allowing those inclined to be so, to enjoy cones, shakes and sundaes. That abundance of calcium and protein makes "Dairy Queen" an ideal food for growing children. Made from a dairy mix of purest and highest quality and dispensed under highest possible sanitary conditions direct to you through spotless stores built for that specific purpose.
