Dinners on Agenda for Weekend

By Jermye English
Statesman Society Editor

A number of informal parties are on the holiday weekend calendar.

To Honor Groom-to-be

For Sunday is the dinner party for which Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand will be hosts at the former's summer home, Thetford Lodge, on the Little North Fork of the Santiam. The affair is being arranged in compliment to Philip C. Schramm, who leaves next week for San Francisco, where his marriage to Miss Eleanor Simonsen will take place on September 9. Bidden are members of the hosts' bridge club and the men will honor the benedict-elect with a shower.

Covers will be placed for Mr. Schramm, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Schramm, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaiser, additional guests, and the Brands and Spragues.

Smiths are Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith were hosts for a dinner party Thursday night at the Marion hotel for twelve of their friends. Later the group returned to the Smith home on North Summer street for an evening of cards.

Party for Travelers

Mr. and Mrs. John Jerman and Mr. and Mrs. Bland Simmons of Portland are entertaining with an informal party Saturday night at the Jerman residence in compliment to Roger Wagner and Forrest E. Simmons, Jr. who recently returned from a year's stay in Europe. A number of Salem and Portland friends of the honor guests have been bidden to the affair.

Swimming, Dancing Party

Mrs. James W. Mott will be hostess for a back-to-school party Saturday night at her country

DETROIT — Phillip Duane Willis and Miss Betty Lou Ketchum, both of Detroit, were married in Salem Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

Mr. Willis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Willis of Willamina and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ketchum of Detroit.

The couple plan to spend a few days at the coast prior to returning to their home in Detroit where Mr. Willis operates a carrier route for the Oregon Statesman.

home at Zena in honor of her daughter, Beverly, and thirty of her junior and high school friends. The young folk have been bidden to come at 7:30 o'clock for swimming, which will be followed by supper and dancing.

Joan Smith Announces Betrothal

Taking the romantic spotlight today is Miss Joan Smith, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Smith, whose betrothal to James V. Shantz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Shantz, was revealed at a party Thursday night at the Smith home on South Summer for which Mrs. Smith and her eldest daughter, Joyce, were hostesses.

The engaged duo have not set their wedding date. Miss Smith and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school and he has been attending Willamette university. The bride-to-be is a past worthy advisor of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Guests learned the news during the dessert supper when individual nosegays, with cards bearing the names, Joan and Jim, marked each place. In the center of the table was a chest covered with pastel flowers.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Must a girl accept a cocktail or a cigarette when offered by her hostess, if ordinarily she neither drinks nor smokes?

A. Most certainly not; but she should refuse graciously, and not in a way that will show the least disapproval of the custom.

Q. Is it all right for a bride to have both a matron and a maid of honor at her wedding?

A. Yes, if the wedding is a very large and formal one.

Q. When may one write an anonymous letter?

A. There is never an occasion or an excuse for writing this sort of letter.

Miss Emmons Married at Church Rites Thursday

The colonial edifice of the First Presbyterian church was the setting for the marriage ceremony Thursday night for Miss Margaret-Jane Emmons, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl William Emmons, and John Hutton Syme, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Syme of Parma, Idaho. It was at 8:30 o'clock that Dr. Chester W. Hamblin performed the nuptials before a large gathering of friends and relatives, many who came from out-of-town.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white gladioluses and pink and white asters with clusters of the same flowers marking the alternate pews. Miss Grace Ashford sang before the bridal party entered and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist. Lighting the many white tapers were Miss Jeanne Myers and Mrs. Harold Gardner (Jeanne DeMytt), who wore lavender and green ankle length marquisette dresses with flower bandeaux with their hair.

The tall, stately bride walked down the center aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Of white slipper satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a full train and long sleeves. The fitted bodice, with sweetheart neckline, was designed with a bertha collar edged with wide lace, which formed a cape in back. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a Dutch style cap of imported starched lace, studded with pearls, which matched the lace on her gown. Her shower bouquet was of white asters centered with pink Rapture roses.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Emmons selected a gray chignon gown embellished with lace insertion and matching long, lace mitts. Her flowers were pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Syme were here from Parma for their son's wedding and she chose a sage a roommate of the bride's at Oregon State college, was the honor maid and wore green satin. The bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Syme of Parma, a sister of the groom, Miss Anita Hager and Mrs. Robert Siddoway of Portland, (Mary Ann Brady), who wore rose pink satin dresses. The gowns were all styled identical with fitted bodices, bertha collars and full skirts gathered in back. They carried fans of white asters centered with pink at the base and streamers of green satin and wore bandeaux of pink and white flowers in the back of their hair.

Four year old Nancy Donaldson, as flower girl, walked immediately before the bride and wore a green faille dress like the honor attendant's.

Craig McWicken stood with Mr. Syme as best man and seating the several hundred guests were Donald Syme, Robert Nelson, Walter Kelly, Robert Siddoway, Allen Gray and William Hughes.

Assist At Reception

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Pouring were Miss Lulu Heist and Miss Ann Lindie, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Gail Sanders and Mrs. Robert G. Brady. Cutting the cake were Miss Lucile Emmons, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. George Rhoten, assisted by Mrs. Earl Cooley and Mrs. Charles McElhinny. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Lillian McDonald, assisted by Mrs. Leonard Rinearsen. Assisting about the rooms and serving were Mesdames Earl Burch, Clare W. Parker, Burton A. Myers, Oscars I. Paulson, Frank G. Myers, Gardner Knapp, Estill Brunk, Bjarne Erickson, William Newmyer, Monda Yoder, William Dunn, Gerald Robison, Misses Grace Shields, Betty Cooley, Merle Rhoten, Bernice Michal of Corvallis and Marie-Jean Wildman of Portland.

When the couple left on their wedding trip south the bride was wearing a red tailleur with grey hat and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Syme will live in Corvallis, where he will attend Oregon State college and she will serve as Camp Fire director of Benton-Polk county.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Felke and children, Mary and Dennis, are leaving today for Astoria to attend the salmon derby, and while there will be guests of her parents, the John Slottees. The Felkes returned the first of the week, from a stay at Neskwim.

Mrs. Earl-Lee of Hollywood, Calif. has returned to her home in the south after a visit in the capital with her cousins, the John S. Locheads.

Showers for Brides-elect

Miss Alicia Cover, September bride-elect, was honored at a bridal party Wednesday night when Miss Zelda Hardy entertained at the Market street home of her parents. During the evening the guests wrapped dream cakes and a china shower feted Miss Cover. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mothers, Mrs. D. J. Hardy.

Honoring Miss Cover were the Misses Jean Brown, Doris Ewen, Virginia Lewis, Clarabelle Roth, Lorene Rossiter, Lucille Karstadt, Patricia Elliott, Verlene Walker, Patricia McDonald, Ruth Lynch, Joan Enyhart, Mrs. Louis Ramus, Mrs. L. B. Cover, Mrs. D. J. Hardy and the hostess.

A Surprise Shower
Miss Patricia Carver and Miss

Patricia Long were hostesses for a surprise party Thursday night at the latter's home in compliment to Miss Janice Middleton, bride-elect of La Vern Hiebert. A pantry shower honored the bride-to-be and after an informal evening a dessert supper was served by the hostesses.

Honoring Miss Middleton were Mrs. Lee Crawford, Mrs. LeLace H. Ellis, Mrs. N. E. Hiebert, Mrs. Donald McPherson, Mrs. Lester DenBeste, Miss Marion Sparks, Miss Marion Sayre, Miss Barbara Smith, Miss Lois Ruecher, Miss Mary Margaret Will, Mrs. O. B. Long, Mrs. Mildred Carver and the hostesses.

Being welcomed back to Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Reitzer (Helen Trindle), who have been making their home in Seattle. Temporarily they are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trindle.
