To Fight Tax TOKYO-(INS)-Movie house operators in Tschiura, fighting a city amusement tax ordinance, have cut their admission prices from the equivalent of U.S. 11 cents to less than a penny and find their business booming. This new twist came when the Tsuchiura city assembly threatened seizure proceeding against the theatres on charges of tax eva-

The theater operators contended very few people could afford to spend 40 yen, which included a 150 percent city amusement tax. To prove their point, the operators cut admission to 3 yen, less erators say they now can make both ends meet even paying the 150 percent tax.

But the city assembly realizes it The report said, however, the averages are distorted on the high fide by the fact that many law penditures now that this source of revenue has been drastically cut.

RUSSIA PLANS MORE BOOKS

MOSCOW-(A)—A big increase in the number of books published in the Soviet Union is planned for 1950. The editorial council of the State Publishing House of literature said in the last pre-war year they published 179 book titles totaling 3,100,000 copies.

In 1950 it is proposed to publish 381 titles totaling 37,100,000 copies.
