

Rites Read At Church Sunday

A Willamette university couple, Miss Virginia Atkinson, and Eldridge Lloyd Hutchison, Jr., exchanged their marriage vows at an afternoon ceremony on Sunday at the First Congregational church with Dr. Seth Huntington officiating at the 3 o'clock service. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Dunbar Austin of Boise and Donald W. Atkinson of Milk River, Alberta, Canada, and the groom is the son of the Lloyd Hutchisons of Camas, Wash.

Jean Hobson Rich was the organist and Gordon Pratt the soloist. Miss Joyce Reeves and Miss Lenore Wilson, in apple green tulle frocks, lighted the candles. Guy F. Atkinson of LaCanada, Calif., came north with Mrs. Atkinson to give his granddaughter in marriage. Her period style white satin wedding gown was made with long sleeves and fitted bodice with round neckline and gathered, net yoke enhanced with a lace ruffle. The train was edged in lace and the skirt was caught up in front with flowers to reveal a lace petticoat. A seed pearl tiara held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and bouvardia.

Mrs. Martin Squires of Usk, Wash., was the matron of honor and wore a copper satin gown made with off-shoulder neckline and full skirt. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred Graham (Dorothy Hobson) of Dayton, Miss Mildred Norton of Bellingham, Miss Lila June Hutchison of Camas, and Miss Mary Libby of Mt. Vernon, Wash. Their dresses were of forest green satin made similar to the honor attendant's and carried nosegays of chrysanthemums. The girls all wore matching satin mitts and headbands of chrysanthemums.

Attend The Groom
Howard Lorenz of Camas stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Howard Olson, Salem, Robert Atkinson of Boise, brother of the bride, Glenn Boice, Camas and Fred Graham, Dayton.
Mrs. Austin attended her daughter's wedding in a brown-crepe gown with steel grey insets and corsage of yellow roses and bouvardia and the groom's mother wore a gold crepe gown with corsage of Talsman roses and bouvardia.

A reception followed at the Chi Omega sorority house. Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee and Mrs. Charles McCarger cut the cake and Mrs. William Connell Dyer presided at the coffee urn. Miss Yvonne Simpson was at the punch bowl and assisting were Mrs. Jay Reeves, Miss LaFyrre Showacy, Miss Minnie Just, Mrs. F. Fjellheim, Miss Beth Tedford, Miss Joan Morgan, Miss Patricia Dickey, Miss Jean Carsh and Mrs. James Arndt.
The newlyweds left by plane for Vancouver, B. C., where they will sail on an Alaskan cruise to Ketchikan. After October 1 they will be at home in Salem at 1206 Chemeketa street. For travelling the bride donned a three piece beige gabardine suit with pink and white accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Joan Lee A Bride

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke E. Lee on South Cottage street was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Joan Lee, and Jack Jay Harris, son of Mrs. Grace Harris, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Carl Schultz officiated in the presence of members of the immediate family and a few close friends. The ceremony took place on the 80th birthday of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jane Lee.
The couple exchanged their vows before the fireplace, which was banked with bouquets of pink and white gladioluses and asters. Dr. Leon Barrick, uncle of the bride, sang and her aunt, Mrs. Howard Bergman of Seattle, played the accompaniment and wedding march.
Mr. Lee gave his daughter in marriage and she wore a grey wool tulle suit with grey hat and accessories. Her corsage was of baby orchids. The couple was unattended.

A reception followed the nuptials with the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jane Lee, cutting the cake. Mrs. Grace Harris presided at the punch bowl and assisting were Miss Carol Lee, sister of the bride, and Miss Winona Kroeger, a cousin. Passing the nuts and candy were Albert Kroeger and Dennis Oehler, young cousins of the bride. Miss Bessie Smith passed the guest book.
After a trip along the coast the couple will be at home in Salem. The bride is employed at Ladd and Bush branch, United States National bank and her husband is with Roberts Brothers.

CLUB CALENDAR

TUESDAY
Chadwick chapter, OES, meet at Masonic Temple, 8 p.m.
American War Mothers, meet at Salem Woman's club, lower floor, 3 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
Centralia Temple, Pythian Sisters, meet at KP hall, 8 p.m.

FARMERS INSURANCE GROUP

AUTO - TRUCK - FIRE

The west's leading automobile insurance carrier. The Farmers Insurance Exchange, writes coverage showing a savings up to 30%. See us at 466 Court street.

BILL OSKO
466 Court St.
Phone 3-5881

BILL OSKO
Ins. Mgr.

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Mrs. Alfred A. Schramm, president of the Salem YWCA, holds an informal conference with the three new staff members who took over their offices September 1. Left to right are Miss Joyce Lamoreux, program director for young adults; Miss Gertrude Acheson, executive director of the Salem YWCA; Mrs. Schramm, and Miss Norma Wallace, director of activities for the teen-age group, "Y-Teens." (Statesman photo).

A New Look for Closets

By Vivian Brown
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Even well-appointed homes hide skeletons in closets. Often a peek into one of those inner recesses is a challenge to the talent and efficiency of the housewife.

Clothes, hats, shoes and coats are crowded together. Particularly in small apartments, wearing apparel seldom gets an airing. Sometimes space is wasted in closets because you can't reach high enough to take advantage of upper shelves or because depth can't be utilized properly, says designer Kim Hoffmann. He suggests that you can utilize height by building a chest with two bottom drawers protruding 8 inches further into the closet in step-fashion. If each drawer is 15 inches high, it will give you an added 30 inches to reach the top-most storage.

If you have many closets, plan them out for things of a kind—records, dressing room with shelves and mirrors, nursery, bar or an emergency kitchen closet.
If you own a house, you can plan closets more generously. But even if you do not, a one-room apartment can be twice as serviceable says Mr. Hoffmann, if you will just give thought to proper planning.

Utilize Depth . . . A Lazy Susan closet unit will swing clothes around in a jiffy.

Meet Me at the Fair

Preview of Handiwork Shows Good Sized Entry List; Good Place to Meet

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Previewing the State Fair on Sunday is a much more simple process than shouldering Labor Day crowds, though we wouldn't give up that annual first day tour of the grounds for anything.

Somehow meeting all your Salem friends on the steps of the pavilion, at the popcorn booth or along the midway, and finding even the most well-groomed of them footweary and warm and content is a mighty good beginning for the winter season.

But speaking of weary, when we watched the final judging of needlework Sunday afternoon, we were associated with workers who had labored well past midnight to make the displays the best ever—and were looking to another all night session with dozens of quilts, hundreds of crocheted and woven pieces and innumerable woven and embroidered entries.
From the looks of the woman's division on Sunday—the display should be a very fine sight.
Again they'll have long rows of benches where maams can rest, getting up every few minutes to take another look at her best crocheted coverlet or hand embroidered quilt, and to stand a moment and hear the comments. She'll make the room a meeting place after papa and the boys have looked again at the farm equipment or the automobiles. Hundreds of women missed those benches last year—public demand caused their return.
Again this year, the entire room will be devoted to women's handiwork, with an occasional entry by a man. The commercial display of electrical equipment has been eliminated, the stage being arranged with a display of Oregon Flax products, with linen fish netting used on the back drop.

The cooking and canning division seems to have taken a new lease on life. Though the entries do not number as many as in the good old days, the quality seems to be there, and a somewhat larger number of entries were made this year than last.

You Will Never Find a Better Time

Remember the Fair Week Special and drive out on your way to the Fair and enroll.

It Takes So Little Time
It Is So Very Worthwhile
You'll Be Surprised How Reasonable
Our Rates Are at the
Paul Armstrong
School of Dancing
With Branch Studios at McMinnville and Stayton
1990 Mission St. (Out Airport Road)

Au Revoir Party for Miss Swift

Miss Jean Claire Swift, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift, was honored at a surprise au revoir party Sunday night when Mr. and Mrs. George C. Alexander of Eugene and his sister, Miss Charlotte Alexander, entertained at the George Alexander home on East State street.

Miss Swift, who graduated in June from the University of Oregon, is leaving the middle of the month for San Francisco to make her home. She plans to secure a position in the bay city, where she will take an apartment.
Twenty of Miss Swift's college friends were bidden to the 6:30 o'clock buffet dinner, which was served at small tables on the patio. Gay colored checked cloths covered the tables and centerpieces were bouquets of chrysanthemums and asters. The evening hours were spent informally.

Miss Duffy Married to Mr. Norton

Pretty, brunette Florence Duffy, became John S. Horton's bride at a lovely ceremony Sunday afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Father T. J. Bernards performed the 4 o'clock rites before members of the immediate family. Bouquets of gladioluses flanked by tall white tapers were arranged at the altar. Wayne Meusey was the soloist and played the wedding music.

The bride, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Duffy, was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore a handsome afternoon gown of golden apricot satin back crepe fashioned with hip detail on the jacket and push-up sleeves with cuffs. Her accessories were sable mist brown and her hat was of aubergine green adorned with a taupe veil. She wore antique gold jewelry and carried a family prayer book marked with green orchids.

Mrs. Charles Stuart McElhinny, Jr., was honor attendant for her sister and wore a mocha brown long sleeved sheer wool gown with pencil slim skirt. Her accessories were mink brown and yellow rosebuds were her flowers. Mr. McElhinny stood with the benedict as best man and ushering the guests to their pews was Kenneth Kohlen, Eugene, brother-in-law of the groom.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Duffy chose a navy blue ensemble accented with white. Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Horton were down from Baker for their son's marriage and she wore a pearl beige dress with brown accessories.
The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the Marion hotel immediately following the rites. Mrs. Kenneth Kohlen of Eugene presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny cut the bride's cake. Miss Frances Ann Glavey of The Dalles passed the guest book.

The bride's table was covered with a point d'esprit cloth and centered with a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and larkspur flanked by white tapers. A pink and white striped cloth covered

Fitzmaurices Entertain on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at home on Sunday afternoon at their Morning side residence. Fifty of their friends called between 2 and 5 o'clock and a buffet supper was served during the afternoon. Tables were arranged both in the garden and in the house.

Receiving with the hosts were their son, Jack, and daughter, Joanne, University of Oregon students. Assisting informally was Miss Carolyn Brady.
Mr. and Mrs. Fitzmaurice were married in Portland and have lived here 23 years. Mrs. John Ryan of Portland, a bridesmaid at the wedding, and Mrs. John Ferris, also of Portland, who played the wedding music, were here for the occasion. Others attending from out-of-town were Mrs. Fitzmaurice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wade, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wade, all of Condon.

Will Fly to Honolulu

Miss Ruth Van Orsdel will be feted at several au revoir parties this week prior to her departure for Honolulu on Sunday. She will fly to the Islands and will be met by several relatives and friends on arrival. Miss Van Orsdel, the daughter of Mrs. Robert Van Orsdel, has been with the Marion county welfare commission here, and will hold a similar position in Honolulu with the welfare commission.

Thursday night Mrs. Phillip Johnston and Mrs. Clifton Mudd will entertain with a farewell party at the former's home in compliment to Miss Van Orsdel. Twenty of her friends, have been bidden to the party.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Murhammer will be hosts for a chicken dinner at their country place at North Santiam Tuesday night for Miss Van Orsdel. Saturday night she was entertained at dinner at the American Legion club by Miss Jean and Miss Phyllis Seibert.

More for Your Money

Lounge Wear for College Girls Is Newly Practical

By Mrs. Genevieve Smith
It's refreshing to find pajamas, nighties, and robes as pretty and practical as some that are being turned out for college girls, especially by some of the smaller designer-manufacturer firms.

Of course, they are equally appealing to almost all ages, because they make sense in looks, comfort, and service. That is, if you're a small size, for the range is only for juniors and small women.

Good quality cottons, soft enough to be comfortable and in weaves suited for lounging, are made up most attractively in pajamas, short gowns with matching panties, a new type of dress-like gown, buttoned down the back and with a set-in belt (which is unbuttoned for comfort's sake in sleeping), and many lounge coats, and coat-and-pajama ensembles. You'll find these in checks, smallish plaids, prints, stripes, and solid colors in a sort of broadcloth weave.

The colors are magnificent. The styling is good, and the fabrics and design to give complete comfort. The cottons are fast colors and pre-shrunk, so that laundering is no problem—even in a commercial laundry. It's a wonderful asset to have lounge wear that can be kept flower fresh and crisp with honest-to-goodness laundering.

Quilting is extremely popular in some of the lounge coats. Before making your final decision to buy, you'll want to remember that fabrics treated this way must have more care in laundering, since rough handling eventually will cause the padding to shift and mat.
(Copyright 1949, General Features Corp.)

Garden Programs At Fair Listed

Programs to be sponsored daily by the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs at the state fair this week are as follows:
Monday—Mrs. Thomas Tharalson will speak on fuchsias at 2 p.m.; Dr. E. J. Kraus will show slides and speak on early chrysanthemums. Hostess will be Mrs. William Morris in the afternoon, and Mrs. R. S. Lusk and Mrs. Kern Mills for the evening.

Tuesday—9:30 a.m.; P. H. Brydon will show slides and talk on camellias and rhododendrons. Hostess for the day are Mrs. Ray Liney, Mrs. Hunt Clark and Mrs. Kern Mills.
Wednesday—Mrs. Leander Anderson and Mrs. Hammond Ritter will demonstrate corsage making at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Charles Cole and Mrs. Clara Brunk hostess for the afternoon, Mrs. H. Rehms in the evening.

Thursday—Mrs. Hazel Bartlett will demonstrate flower arrangements at 2 p.m. Mrs. Frances Colyan and Mrs. Willard Cole acting as hostess.
Friday—Ollie Schendel will talk on roses for the garden at 7:30 p.m. Hostess will be Mrs. Howard Hunsaker, Mrs. E. L. Herrel and Mrs. B. Rathgen.

Saturday—Lucille Hersh will demonstrate feather corsage making at 2 o'clock. Hostess will be Mrs. J. B. Van Cleave and Mrs. Kern Mills.
Sunday—Al Clark will talk on begonias at 2 o'clock. Mrs. H. E. McWain and Mrs. Kern Mills are the hostess.

These talks will be given in the back room of the floral building. Information on gardening and garden clubs will be given. Books and catalogues will be there for information of when to get flowers and shrubs.

Mrs. Kern Mills is chairman of the booth, sponsored by the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs.

Miss Hjort Now Mrs. Crumme

At an impressive ceremony Sunday night at the First Congregational church, Miss Marilyn Janet Hjort, daughter of Mrs. Halldan J. Hjort and the late Mr. Hjort, became the bride of Raymond Hugh Crumme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Crumme of Berkeley, Calif. Dr. Seth R. Huntington performed the 8 o'clock nuptials before members of the immediate family and a few close friends. Joe Einwallner of Portland was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist.

Robert Carl Hjort gave his sister in marriage and for her wedding she selected a moonstone blue full skirted afternoon dress with matching hat and pink accessories. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Peggy Moritz was the bride's only attendant and she wore a two-piece plum satin dress with matching accessories and carried a corsage of moonstone blue full skirted afternoon dress with matching hat and pink accessories. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hjort chose a cocoa brown afternoon dress and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother was here for the ceremony and wore an ash of roses gown with an orchid corsage.

The reception was held in the fireplace room and pouring were Mrs. Glen Roberts of Dallas and Mrs. Guy Corcoran of Seattle, aunts of the bride. Cutting the cake were Miss Sally Ann Barr and Mrs. William Baker of Eugene. Assisting were Misses Darlene Bull, Anita Hager, Jeanne Myers, Barbara Smith and Grace Shields.

The newlyweds left for Victoria, B. C., on their honeymoon and for going away the bride wore a blue wool suit with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the nuptials were Mrs. Guy Corcoran and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corcoran of Seattle, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hjort of Stanwood, Wash.

Haunting About Johnsons

NOTHING CAN TOUCH this gay Goodman scarf. Cravenetted against the rain, it's all pure silk and there are loads of patterns to make everybody prettier. 1.98

LOTS AND LOTS of style has this truly exclusive sweater jacket. It's a waffle-knit Ensemble by Select Sportswear and it couldn't be smarter for office or school. In navy, red, white; sizes 36-40 10.95

LAST CALL FOR BACK TO SCHOOL and here's a fitting topper. Luxurious gabardine in this teen-ager coat with leather-woven buttons and guaranteed rayon-satin lining. In beige, brown, navy, wine or green. Sizes 10 to 16 49.95

HOLLYWOOD CASUAL, clever, correct. Pacific gabardine of one hundred per cent wool, this skirt has a box-pleat in front and comes in black, brown, green and grey. 10 to 18 8.95 AND THEY'RE ALL OF COURSE, WHERE EVERYTHING'S IN FASHION

ARE YOU USING JOHNSON'S LAY-AWAY? MAKES IT EASY!

Johnson's
Store for Ladies
Salem, Oregon

You expect all-over fit in shoes

now get

ALL-OVER FIT
in hosiery

Round-the-Clock has the answer to twisting seams, wrinkled ankles and all those other annoying hosiery troubles. They are proportioned not just in length, but in width as well, the way your shoes are sized. And they are pre-made to measure in patterns to fit every size and shape of leg. Try Round-the-Clock

Individual Fit nylons and complete hosiery beauty.

nylon hosiery

$1.50 - $1.95

Price's

135 North Liberty