Home Rites On Sunday

At the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. McLaughlan, Miss Nancy McLaughlan became the bride of Donald Wayne Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Earle, Sunday, September 11, at 5 o'clock. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin of the First Presbyterian church officiated at the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white marquisette dress with lace insets, designed with a round neckline, long tight sleeves and train. Her fingertip veil was held by a cap of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white gladioluses and pink rosebuds. Miss Marry Ellen McLaughlan, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was of yellow marquisette over taffeta and she carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds. Anne Moree Jones was flower girl. She wore a dress of pink organdy with which she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Best man was Robert D. McLaughlan, brother of the bride and usher was William Laidlow. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McLaughlan chose a plum crepe dress and the groom's mother, Mrs. Earle wore a blue crepe dress. Both wore corsages of gardenias. Mrs. Agnes Briedwell cut the cake and Mrs. Earl T. Jones served at the punch table. Assisting were Mrs. Robert D. McLaughlan, Mrs. Stanley M. Jones, Mrs. Rodney Ramp and Mrs. Victor Koop. For their wedding trip to San Francisco, the bride chose a cocoa brown gabardine suit with matching accessories and pinned to her suit was a corsage of orchids. On their return they will reside in Salem. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLaughlan, Miss Mary Ellen McLaughlan, Mrs. Agnes Briedwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ramp of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Jones of Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Jones and Anne Moree of Caldwell, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson, Miss Caroljane Gilkey and William Jefferson, Jr., of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace E. Ross (Rita Heenan), who were married on September 2 at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of the Edward Heenans and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ross. (McEwan photo).

Brides-Elect Honored

Announcement of interest today is the approaching marriage of Miss Lenore Beam to Ralph F. Dungey, which will take place on Saturday evening, September 17 at 8 o'clock in the First Christian church with the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. Miss Beam is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth M. Beam of Salem and Mr. Dungey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dungey of Gervais. Honoring Miss Beam at a miscellaneous shower recently were the women from the office of the department of Veterans' Affairs. Mrs. Carol Trowbridge and Mrs. Lillian Klippert were in charge of arrangements, the shower being given at the latter's home. Among those present to fetter Miss Beam were Misses Donna Kipper, Evelyn Averette, Mesdames Pearl Victor, Gladys Smith, Florence Garrett and Ruth Beam. A miscellaneous bridal shower was given for Mrs. D. H. Allison (Betty Bollard) on Wednesday night when Miss Pat Doss and Mrs. William Waldy entertained. Honoring Mrs. Allison were Misses Lena Phillips, Carrie Taylor, Nancy Gates, Ine Lowery, Lois Houser, Florence Sanders, Mrs. Obb Allison, Mrs. Ellis Laugheed, Mrs. William Post, Mrs. E. McMurray, Mrs. C. Allison and the hostesses. Miss Alice Jackson, bride-elect of Raymond L. Tompkins, was honored with a surprise bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Robert L. Tompkins. Present were Miss Jackson, Mrs. Gale Ellis, Mrs. C. A. Elm-lund, Mrs. Eddie Cater, Mrs. Lloyd Laudie, Mrs. Jess Mayes, M. Vivian McClain, Mrs. Harold Kromwell, Mrs. LeRoy Vogel, Mrs. Evelyn Hanby, Miss Frances Williams, Mrs. Clifford Jorgenson, Mrs. John Andall, Miss Loretta Randall and the hostess. The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul Episcopal church will hold its first fall meeting today at 1:30 at parish hall. The National convention of the church, which is to be held the latter part of this month in San Francisco, will be discussed.

Winners at the weekly ladies day at the Salem Golf club on Wednesday were Mrs. J. N. Thompson, class A; Mrs. Stuart Theide, class B; Mrs. Charles Musser, class C; and Mrs. Lynn Hammerstad, class D. Results for September 7 were Mrs. Claude Johns, class A; Mrs. Norris K. Crothers, class B; and Mrs. Millard Pekar, class C.

Young Business Groups Meet

The Salore club of the YWCA held its first fall meeting Monday night at the YW. A covered dish dinner was served to fifteen and Miss Lavonne Schuester, president, presided at the meeting. The club, composed of young business women, made plans for the fall program. Members will form a bowling team this winter. Several are planning to attend the northwest conference in Vancouver, B. C. in the late autumn. The next meeting will be an outdoor dinner at Crestwood Acres, September 26. Service club of the YWCA met Wednesday night. This year the club will assist with both social and service activities and speakers will be engaged for some meetings. Mrs. Francis Knapp is president and the next meeting will be October 4. Both groups are open to any young women in the community. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. They are under the direction of Miss Joyce Lamoreux, director of the program for young adults of the YWCA.

Mrs. Hill a Hostess

Mrs. George Terry Hill was hostess for a smartly arranged luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her South Liberty street home for a group of friends. Autumn flowers were used in decorating and the afternoon hours were spent informally. Covers were placed for Mrs. Brace Knapp, Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Mrs. Forrest Bodmer, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Edward Lewis, Mrs. Clifford Hill, Mrs. Lynn Hammerstad, Mrs. Richard Springer, Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. John R. Wood and Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Ruth McVey and her daughter, Miss Ruth McVey, are on business and pleasure trip south, which took them to San Diego, Calif. They will visit her son, Kent McVey, US navy air corps, who is stationed at North Island. The travelers will return October 1.
