

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Three freshmen coeds pictured on one of the porches at Eaton hall, the administration and liberal arts building on the Willamette university campus, are Marilyn Quamme, Jean Lucker and Leah Case. Joan has come from Washington, D. C., to enter Willamette and will be with her aunt, Miss Edna Lucker, for the winter. (All candid by Don Dill, Statesman staff photographer).

Jeanne Myers to Wed Navy Man

Revealing wedding plans this weekend is Miss Jeanne Marie Myers, whose marriage to Ensign Henry Biddle Johnson, USN, will be an event of Sunday afternoon, October 2. Invitations to the wedding were in the mail this last week and to the reception in the church parlors, which will follow the 3 o'clock service at the First Presbyterian church. The bride-elect is the twin daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burton Allan Myers and her fiance is the son of Mrs. Dora Johnson.

Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will perform the nuptials. Mrs. Robert Siddoway of Portland will sing and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs will be the organist. Mrs. Lloyd V. Lewis of Eugene (Janice Myers) will be her twin sister's honor matron. Miss Grace Shields will be the bridesmaid and Sharon McNeil the flower girl. Daryl Sim will stand with Ensign Johnson as best man and ushers include Bland Simmons, Portland, Courtney Jones, Wallace Palmateer and Lloyd V. Lewis.

From the east have come Mrs. A. Freeman Holmer and seven weeks old son, Alan, and Bill. Mr. Holmer is assistant professor of political science at Willamette university and was formerly on the faculty at New York university. Mrs. Holmer and the baby arrived in Salem by plane when he was just two weeks old and the rest of the family came west. They are living at 775 North Capitol street.

The library building on the Willamette campus will prove to be a popular study place for students during the year. Taking a preview of the library during freshman week were Joyce Edgell, standing, and Alberta Fern, who have enrolled as freshmen from Salem.

Popular meeting place on the campus is the cement seat encircling the large maple tree in front of historic Waller hall and pictured here talking over freshman days are Cathy Person, Gloria Spencer and Joyce Kirby, all of Salem.

Silver Tea at Elfstrom Home . . .

The Women's association and the Westminster Guild of the First Presbyterian church will hold a silver tea on Wednesday, September 21 at the Fairmount Hill home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom. All church women and interested persons are invited to call between 3 to 5 o'clock for the first get-together of the fall season.

Receiving guests at the door will be Mrs. Malcolm Hawke and Mrs. C. E. Illidge. Mrs. L. C. Dean and Mrs. Harold Rosebraugh will introduce to the line which will include Mrs. C. S. McCollam, Mrs. Charles Layport, Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby and Mrs. Elfstrom.

Inviting to the dining room will be Mrs. William L. Phillips, and Mrs. Hobart Jackson. Asked to pour during the afternoon are Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Chester W. Hamblin and Mrs. A. F. Marcus. Assisting about the rooms will be Mesdames Robert H. Stutzman, LaVerne Young, Tinkham Gilbert, Abner Kline, James Hradie, Russell E. Pratt, Robert F. Wulf, L. V. Benson, W. D. Gilchrist, M. E. Moore, George Allen, N. J. Lindgren, A. E. Archibald, Curtis Hale and John Anderson.

Mrs. P. H. Brydon is arranging the program which will include clarinet numbers by Loren and Ronald Bartlett, accompanied by Ann Gibbens, and piano solos by Miss Gibbens.

Serving in the dining room will be Mrs. James Haworth, Mrs. William Bush, Mrs. Hal DeSart, Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Samuel Harbison, Mrs. Paul A. Hale, Mrs. Glen E. Eravel, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Emmett Kleinke, Mrs. Edgar Burnside and Mrs. Eugene Crothers.

In charge of decorating are Mrs. Lewis Judson, Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mrs. W. L. Phillips. General chairman of the affair is Mrs. Herman Lafky, assisted by Mrs. Robert Jackson.

College Belles at Willamette

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The Willamette university campus was once again the scene of much activity this past week with several hundred freshmen registering and new faculty members becoming acquainted with other faculty members and the campus. Also a highlight of freshman week was fraternity and sorority rushing, which came to a close Saturday night.

As an official welcome of the freshmen and new students on the campus President and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be hosts for an informal reception Monday night at University House. Calling hours are from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Russell Tripp, president of the student body, will introduce the students to Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Fenix, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Greig, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Withey, Dean Regina Ewalt and Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist.

Pouring will be Mrs. Fay Owen, head resident at Lausanne hall, and Mrs. Harry T. Morris, head resident of Baxter hall. Twenty upper class students will assist in serving. Assisting about the rooms will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paeth, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Roger Nelson and Prof. and Mrs. Herman Clark.

Fashion Premiere Slated . . .

Members of the General Federation convention fund committee, of the Salem Woman's club, are busy making final arrangements for the 1 o'clock dessert luncheon to be held at the clubhouse, Monday, September 26, followed by Schlesinger's and Sally's Fall Fashion Premiere. Mrs. Charles C. Clarke will be the commentator and Miss Dorothy Pederson will be at the piano. Models will be Mrs. Ross Coppock, Mrs. Donald Fisher, Mrs. Farley Mogan, Mrs. Cedric T. Reaney, Mrs. M. H. Saffron and Mrs. Sidney Schlesinger.

Bridge and pinocle will be in play later with guests bringing their own table accessories. Tickets may be had at Schlesinger's and Sally's, and from members of the committee. Mrs. David Cameron, Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. E. A. Linden, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Ralph Conley and Mrs. Bert A. Walker, Mrs. Norman K. Winslow and Mrs. Merie Travis will be at the door. This is the final benefit for this purpose to be given this season.

Mrs. George W. Alling is president. Mrs. Grant C. Rogers and Mrs. Estill Brunk are chairmen of the convention committee.

Along with new students on the Willamette campus, new faculty members and their families are also welcomed. Mrs. Chester Stackhouse, wife of the football coach and director of athletics, is pictured here on the campus with daughter, Ann, who has registered as a freshman at Willamette. Son, Don, a Salem high school student, could not be present when the picture was taken, so sent his collie, "Viking," to take his place. Until they build a new home the Stackhouse family is temporarily located at 701 N. Church st.

Patricia Fitzsimmons and Sue McElhinny, Salem coeds, who registered as freshmen at Willamette university this week. Harold Jory, registrar, is pictured in his office officially registering the girls and checking their fees.