

Dr. Beal to Speak at AAUW

Dr. Paul Beal, associate professor of romantic languages at Willamette university, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women Saturday afternoon at the Marion hotel at one o'clock. His subject is "A Visit to Mismisbourg," which is the estate of Marie Gevers, author and member of the Royal Belgium Academy of Literature. The estate is situated near Antwerp, where Dr. Beal was a guest this summer during his tour of Europe.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Miss Elizabeth Russum or Mrs. J. M. Deviers by Friday noon. Hostesses for the first fall meeting, at which Miss Elise Schroeder will preside, are Miss Mirpah Blair, Mrs. Charles A. Cole, Mrs. Maynard Nelson, Mrs. Earl Percy and Mrs. William R. Newmyer. Mrs. H. Gordon Carl is chairman of the hospitality committee. Mrs. Waldo O. Mills is decorations chairman for the branch and has appointed Mrs. John A. Jelderks in charge of decorating for the first luncheon.

At Home Today

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer are entertaining with an informal at home today at their Belmont street residence with friends being invited to call between 3 and 9 o'clock. The affair is being arranged in honor of the Meyer's silver wedding anniversary and for Captain and Mrs. Verden E. Hockett, who have just returned from Saipan.

Town Club Dates Set

Announcements were received this week by Town club members telling dance dates for the coming season. Formal dances will again be held at the Marion hotel with a snack bar a feature of the evening. Saturday, October 22 is the date for the first dance and others are on December 10, February 18 and April 8. Robert Drager is president

Takes Over the Gavel

Miss Elise Schroeder, president of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women. This is the first in a series of pictures and articles of presidents of the larger women's organizations in the city to be featured each Sunday in the women's section during the winter.

Miss Schroeder will preside at the first meeting of the branch on September 24 at the Marion hotel. The branch holds monthly luncheon meetings the third Saturday during the winter, with two evening meetings also scheduled. The branch was organized here in 1922 and now has a membership of 240 college women. Purpose of the organization is to unite college women of the Salem area for practical educational work and the maintenance of high standards of education and to cooperate with the national association of AAUW in its general work. The branch contributes annually to scholarship and fellowship funds and last year founded the Beryl Hoyt fellowship award. Study groups play an important part in the organization, which are open to non-college women and to all interested persons in the community, who are not members of AAUW. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

of the club this year and Ward Davis, secretary-treasurer.

Carolyn Carson A Bride

Miss Carolyn Carson became the bride of Austin H. Wilson, Jr., at a lovely afternoon ceremony on Saturday at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carson and the bridegroom's parents are the senior Austin H. Wilsons. It was at 4 o'clock that Dr. Seth Huntington performed the ceremony before the decorated altar of white gladioluses and dahlias. Miss Edith Fairham was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist.

James W. Carson escorted his sister down the aisle and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of blush pink satin fashioned with a full gathered skirt terminating in a long train, fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Two clusters of stephanotis held in her place her fingertip length veil which was edged in lace. She carried a white Bible marked with a lavender orchid and streamers of stephanotis.

Mrs. Douglas Armstrong was the matron of honor and wore a white marquisette frock over a pale green satin slip fashioned with a shawl collar and short sleeves. Miss Ruth Skinner, the bridesmaid, wore a similar dress, only of pale green marquisette over green satin. They carried cascade crescent shape bouquets of ivory gladioluses tied with yellow net and ribbon. Miss Lee Steinbeck and Miss Dolores Bauer of Portland, in pale green satin dresses, lighted the tapers.

Attend the Groom

Lloyd Anderson of Roseburg stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Sichel Hinkle, jr., and Napoleon Roque, junior.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. William H. McClain and Mrs. Charles Coleman presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Eugene I. Foster cut the bride's cake. Assisting were the Misses Mary McClain, Carol Herrmann and Ruth Melby, Nancy Kettleberg and Margaret Wood of Portland, Mrs. Wayne Struble of Eugene, Mrs. James Woodroffe and Miss Addy Lane.

The couple left for the south on their honeymoon, planning to visit in San Francisco, Santa Cruz and the California beaches. For going away the new Mrs. Wilson wore a permisson handknit suit with Kelly green topcoat and black suede accessories. After September 26 the couple will be at home in Corvallis on Second and Tyler streets, while both are completing their senior year at Oregon State college.

Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Shiffer and Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee returned home Saturday from a fortnight's motor trip which took them north to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., Seattle, Port Angeles, Spokane and eastern Washington cities.

Mrs. LaVern Hiebert (Janice Middleton), who was married at the First Methodist church on September 10. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. L. Crawford and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nele E. Hiebert. The newlyweds will live in Salem. (Jesten-Miller).
